Introduction

Forming a natural boundary between the states of Alberta and British Columbia and rising to over 3500 metres, the snow-capped Canadian Rockies include some of the world's finest mountain scenery. To make the most of this dramatic region, we have devised a walking holiday that explores a variety of trails and areas that showcase the natural wonders on offer. Traversing forested valleys to flower-filled alpine meadows and pretty glacial lakes, each of our day-walks will take us into the middle mountains allowing access to some of the most coveted and iconic views and experiences.

Starting in the lesser-frequented Kananaskis Country we spend two days exploring these quieter trails, before heading onto Lake Louise where we spend 3 nights to take in the incredible trails and sights. We will leave the crowds behind in the valley as we hike up to the spectacular Plain of the Six Glaciers, with optional stop for cake and coffee at the quaint mountain teahouse on the trail! We'll drive along the stunning Icefields Parkway to hike the Wilcox Pass trail and an optional Athabasca Ice Walk. Our Rocky Mountain adventure then takes us to Revelstoke to discover the best the national park has to offer, including the Eva Lake Trail and Balu Pass Trail in the Glacier National Park. Finally, we head to the quintessential mountain village of Banff where we will undertake spectacular hikes surrounded by high mountain peaks at Cory Pass and the Cascade Amphitheatre to round off this incredible journey!

Is this holiday for you?

This holiday is a series of moderate day hikes in the Canadian Rocky Mountains, reaching spectacular viewpoints, mountain lakes, forests and passes to get a stunning overview of these epic mountain ranges. The selected walks are designed to be achievable for a weekend walker, ranging from 4 to 6 hours daily with moderate elevation gain. There are a couple of longer days as well as easier days, and it would be possible to opt out of certain walks if in need of a rest. The routes are on good well-trodden trail, with a few optional extensions that use steeper trails to reach passes or viewpoints. The Cory Pass trail is the toughest day at 1100m elevation and 8 hours hiking, partly on easy forest trail and partly on rocky scree path. The walks have been selected to balance the key highlights of visiting the Canadian Rockies with exploring some quieter trails to experience the peace and nature of the mountains. During this holiday we will be using the national park campgrounds, staying in tents (with the exception of our time in Lake Louise, where we stay in the Alpine Centre Hostel in shared dormitories). The camping is on a participatory basis so you will be expected to put up your tent and assist with daily camp chores such as food preparation and washing up.

DAY 2

Drive to Kananaskis. Hike to Chester Lake in Kananaskis National Park.

In the morning we drive around 2 hours to Kananaskis Country to start our adventure in the Rocky Mountains. Kananaskis is a favourite walking spot for local hikers, less touristic than other areas, we are able to enjoy peaceful trails to spectacular mountain vantage points, verdant alpine meadows and pristine lakes. We reach our campground at Boulton Creek, our base for the next 2 nights, before heading out on our first trail. Blessed with stunning mountain scenery, the Chester Lake hike is one of the best hikes in Kananaskis. Unlike typical single-track mountain hiking trails, the Chester Lake hike has a nice wide trail allowing groups of people to easily socialize along the way up. A beautiful, moderate trek through a dense pine and larch forest to a picturesque alpine lake surrounded by majestic peaks, the trail to Chester Lake is a gentle incline with a huge visual payoff. Once you reach your high point for the day, the Chester Lake Trail ventures into the heart of a beautiful alpine meadow with rocky mountain peaks towering above on all sides. Having savoured our first experience of this epic range it is time to return to camp, descending along the same trail.

Kananaskis National Park: Burstall Pass Hike

Today we enjoy a second day in Kananaskis as we embark on another classic hike to Burstall Pass.

Burstall Pass is a classic hike in Kananaskis Country. The route starts out meandering up through larch forest. As we ascend the forest clears allowing us to go down to the Burstall Lakes and take a break admiring these stunning waters. From here the track narrows and crosses Burstall Creek and a muddy and marshy section of the trail, before climbing on to a wildflower filled alpine meadow. From here we again climb through the forest eventually reaching Burstall Pass where the trees open up for beautiful views down into Banff National Park and Mt. Assiniboine. Dropping slightly down the other side of the pass affords extra views into Spray Valley and Mt. Leman. After a break at the pass to admire the views we return back the way we came for another night at our Kananaskis campsite.

A classic hike in Banff National Park, Plain of Six Glaciers starts on the shoreline of world-famous Lake Louise, climbs up to a traditional Canadian teahouse, and offers stunning glacier views and a look back across Lake Louise and the Chateau. From the teahouse, views of some of the tallest mountains in the Canadian Rockies are plentiful. After breakfast we set off on the 2 hour transfer to Lake Louise. Leaving the crowds of Lake Louise behind our trail leads us past the lakeshore and climbs up through the forest. Looking back we are afforded stunning views over Lake Louise and the peaks beyond. After 5.5km, finishing with 2 steep switchbacks, we reach the Plain of Six Glaciers Tea house, a quaint and traditional Canadian Teahouse serving tea, coffee, cakes and scones. We can continue on another 1.5km to Abbot's Pass Viewpoint for more spectacular views and a great spot for today's lunch stop. We return to Lake Louise descending the same trail. After a short detour from the main trail to visit the charming waters of Miller Lake, the hike continues north to arrive at the picturesque area around Eva Lake. ### DAY 9

Hike the Balu Pass Trail in the Glacier National Park.

After breakfast we transfer to the Balu Pass roadhead where our hike for today begins. The Balu Pass Trail is an out-and-back hiking route that passes through avalanche paths and into alpine meadows offering some truly amazing alpine views. It's hard to forget that you're in grizzly bear country on this hike. Its name is derived from the Hindi word "baloo", meaning bear. The steepest part of the walk is at the end - a short uphill hike to Balu Pass summit. Wild flowers in August and the view of the glaciers, icefields and mountain peaks repay the effort. The trail ends at the summit of the pass. After our walk we will return to our vehicle for the 30 minute drive back to our campground at Canyon Hot Springs.

DAY 10

Hike to Paget Lookout and Sherbrooke Lake in Yoho National Park.

The trail to Paget Lookout begins behind the Great Divide Lodge, climbing steadily through dense forest and offering occasional views of Cathedral Mountain. The trail alternates between flat sections and steep ascents, passing remnants of an old telephone line and transitioning to a subalpine landscape. Switchbacks lead to a cliffside viewpoint and, eventually, the historic Paget Fire Lookout. This shelter provides panoramic views of the Kicking Horse Valley, the town of Field, and surrounding peaks, making it a perfect spot to rest and take in the scenery. On the return trip, we take detour to Sherbrooke Lake, surrounded by wildflower meadows, wetlands, and avalanche slopes. Boardwalks cross streams near the lake's edge, where Mt. Ogden's towering slopes dominate the view. The trail offers a blend of natural beauty, historical significance, and breathtaking vistas, making it a rewarding adventure in Yoho National Park. We return to our vehicles and transfer to Banff and our next camp at Tunnel Mountain Campground, where we spend the next three nights.

Banff National Park: Cory Pass Hike 2350m.

Today starts with a short drive to the trailhead for our hike to Cory Pass. The toughest day of our trip, the Cory Pass is a varied and challenging hike with a steep 900-meter ascent to the pass, where you'll find towering rock formations and breath-taking views of the jagged Mount Louis, popular with rock climbers from around the world. After a kilometre walking through the forest the route forks uphill towards the pass. The trail climbs steeply for 1.5km before reaching a flatter section with incredible views from the ridge. We will be able to see the route contouring Mount Edith towards Cory Pass. A rocky section leads to the top of the pass, with incredible views of the 'Gargoyle Valley' and the mountains that flank it, including Mt Cory, Mt Fifi, Mt Louis and Mt Edith. We descend the other side down a scree slope and back into the forest where we join a gentle forest path back to the trailhead. From verdant forest to rocky valleys this hike provides a variety of spectacular environments to travel through. We then return to our campground in Banff.

Banff National Park: Cascade Amphitheatre Hike

Today we take another short drive to the start of the trailhead at Norquay Ski Resort, at the top of a winding switchback road above Banff Village, reducing the amount of climbing we need to reach the mountains. From the base of the ski hill we start our hike with a short descent to Forty Mile Creek, and then a steady ascent through pine forest up to the massive Cascade Amphitheatre. From the meadow below marvel at the towering limestone walls that create the amphitheatre, before descending the way we came. We return to Banff to enjoy our last evening in the mountains.

Our guide will recommend good establishments and we can eat together as a group. Whilst camping the group will need to assist with camp chores such as food preparation and washing up.

Food & Water

Food in local restaurants in Western Canada is quite typical to the UK. A variety of choices and prices to cater to all walks. As you venture into the smaller areas, the choices become more limited. For example, Lake Louise is quite limited, but still has an excellent cafe restaurant at the hostel. There is a local pub in the village centre, and other hotels/resorts to choose from. Your typical restaurant dinner menu is burgers/hand held sandwiches, pizzas, pastas, salads, and main dishes.

Camp dinner is typically hearty, easy to prepare, warm meals, that people can choose exactly what ingredients they want, for example, Tacos. Other meals could include pastas, curries, BBQ's (hotdogs/ burgers), and hot salads. We leave it up to the guides to create their own menus as this allows them to add their own flavour to the trips they lead. Your guide will be aware of any individual dietary requirements and cater to appease everyone.

Picnic lunches are typically sandwiches, wraps and salads, accompanied by fruit/veggies/nuts/granola/ bars. For the most part, during camp breakfast, the guide will set up a lunch station and guests can prepare what they want from the choices provided.

Camp breakfasts are typically quick, cold meals to help get the day going. For example, fruit and cereal/ oatmeal, with coffee/tea. However, when time allows, sometimes guides will do a bigger morning camp cook up: bacon, eggs, potatoes, etc.

As far as catering to special diets, we don't currently cater to vegans or celiacs, as we can't guarantee sourcing 100% vegan products and/or no cross contamination when cooking. We do however cater to vegetarians, at no added cost, and gluten free guests at a supplement of $10/day/person to offset the cost of gluten free products.

Accommodation

The group will have one night at the start of the holiday in a hotel in Calgary where we stay in comfortable twin-bedded rooms with private bathroom, 8 nights camping at National Park campgrounds, and 3 nights at the Lake Louise Alpine Centre Hostel in shared dormitories.

Comfortable 3 person tents are used on a 2 person basis while camping. As a participatory camping trip you will be expected to put up your own tents. Sleeping mats are provided, but you must bring your own sleeping bag, travel pillow, towel etc.

During our stay in the Lake Louise Alpine Centre Hostel, the dormitories are shared between 4 to 8 people with shared bathroom and shower facilities. Some of the dormitories are mixed male and female. There is a large kitchen area and a communal lounge area.

If you are travelling by yourself, you will be paired up with another single client of the same sex for the 1 hotel night. Single rooms are available for a supplementary cost for these nights. You will also be paired up to share a tent with another single client of the same sex, Single tents are also available at a supplementary cost for the nights camping.

If you are planning on extending your holiday additional nights at the group hotel are available on request.

Group Leader & Support Staff

The group will be led by a professional mountain guide. For groups of 6 and over there will also be an assistant guide. The guides also drive the minibus and cook meals whilst camping.

Guidance on Tipping

Tipping is the accepted way of saying 'thank you' for good service. It is important to remember that tipping is voluntary and should be dependent on good service. In North America it is the norm to tip for most services and we recommend that you may wish to set aside around CAD$6-$12 per day per guide and have a few dollars to tip for meals and other services.

Baggage Allowance

There is no strict weight limit on this holiday other than that imposed by your airline. We do ask you to restrict your luggage to one main bag and a rucksack/backpack. Your main bag will be transported in the support vehicle or attached trailer.

Climate

The weather in the Canadian Mountains is ever-changing and always unpredictable. Summer days are long, but the summer season is short. July is the warmest month with a mean daily maximum temperature of 22°C. We can expect to encounter temperatures during the day ranging from 18°C to 27°C. Naturally, at the higher elevations on our trip, the daytime temperatures will be lower than this. At night, the temperatures will typically drop to around 10°C. Although the weather is relatively stable at this time of year, we can expect some rainfall as mountains produce their own weather.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.
