Introduction

Our Family Thailand adventure holiday is a true insight into this beautiful country with lush rice terraces and forest; its charming, colourful, smiling people; cultural Buddha marvels covered in gold, and paradise island beaches. Our diverse itinerary includes activities to keep all family members entertained – it is brilliant! We fly directly into Chiang Mai in Northern Thailand and start with a Thai cooking session, laying a foundation to the delicious foods of Thailand. The Silver Temple and making our own plate is next before we head into the rural countryside near the Doi Inthanon National Park for a 3 day trek through remote villages, meeting the Karen hilltribe people and overnighing in their welcoming homestays. Before taking the overnight train we learn the art of Thai kick-boxing and visit an elephant sanctuary to learn how conservation team care for these majestic animals. Bike rides in historic Ayutthaya and then through the alleyways of Bangkok allow us to explore these cities, temples, markets and street life in interesting ways. The finale to this adventure is three nights on the tropical paradise island of Koh Samet, to soak in the sun and sea under clear blue skies. This varied holiday for the family truly touches on all aspects of Thailand and your lives will be enriched for this time spent in this unique country – The Land Of Smiles.

Is this holiday for you?

Much of this holiday is interactive sightseeing, for example the silver workshop and the cooking session. There are two days when we have sightseeing cycle rides (2-3 hours with stops). The rides are on road with little traffic, through hidden alleyways in Bangkok and in the historic park in Ayutthaya. The 3 day trek in Northern Thailand is 4-5 hours on two days, and up to 6 hours on one day. The pace is not fast and many stops will be made along the way to meet the people, see the wildlife and rest and take a dip in waterfalls. There are some sections of ascent. It is a great adventure to walk to these remote villages and then overnight at homestays. The homestays are simple, with basic toilet facilities and a bucket of water for washing instead of showers. You will be looked after very well as Thai hospitality is second to none. The end of the holiday is designed to wind down from the travelling adventure, at the paradise beach island of Koh Samet. This is a great itinerary.

DAY 1

Arrive Chiang Mai, transfer from the airport to the group hotel. Afternoon Thai cooking class with local market visit.

Our holiday starts at the group hotel in Chiang Mai. A single timed group transfer from Chiang Mai Airport is provided. We have some time to freshen up and rest at the hotel before this brilliant holiday kicks off with a Thai cooking session. We begin with a tour of the local food, spice, vegetable and fruit market. Our guide will explain many of the foods on offer, how they taste and if they are spicy or flavoursome. We then return to the cooking school and set about making a few dishes of our own. Maybe we fancy some spring rolls, a stir fry, soup or a curry. There is a variety of options to suit all palates. This is a great introduction for children and adults to the absolutely delicious food of this fantastic country.

DAY 2

Visit the monks at Wat Srisuphan Silver temple, make your own silver plate. Afternoon tour of Chiang Mai including the splendid golden Wat Suan Dok temple.

After breakfast we make our way to the fascinating 500 year old silver temple of Wat Srisuphan. We meet with the monks and look at the unique, intricate and impressive engravings made into this temple of silver, nickel and aluminium. Some of the panels have Marvel characters (yes, as in superheros) and alien families engraved - good ones to search for with the children. Unfortunately women are not allowed inside the temple, but the outside is just as interesting. The silver workshop is next door, as craftspeople are continuously refreshing the temple. It is here that we are shown what making these panels and decorations entails and then we have a little turn of our own on a small silver plate. This is a perfect keep-sake from this fun temple visit. This afternoon we head to explore the old and modern Chiang Mai, seeking out the most sacred Buddhist monuments. We drive out of town to visit the golden temple at Doi Suthep Mountain. We climb the staircase looking at the naga (the mythical beautifully adorned serpent found in this part of Asia) carvings. When we reach the top, we will be dazzled by the golden pagoda. This is such a special part of the world. It's great to see the views below of Chiang Mai. Our last visit of the day is the Wat Suan Dok, 48m golden Buddhist Stupa or Chedi.

DAY 3Start our mini-adventure trek through rural villages, stilt houses, forest and waterfalls to our overnight stop in the village of Khun Na Sa.

Today we head out of town into the green and verdant countryside for the next few days. Our walk starts at the small village of Huay Teun, south-west of Chiang Mai. The drive is around 2 hours and we stop along the way at a market to pick up provisions for the next few days. Outside of the city, the air is clean and we start seeing the rural way of life. Our luggage for the next 2 nights is packed on a motorbike to join us later, and we are ready. We walk alongside a stream which comes from Doi Lor Mountain and enjoy our picnic lunch before continuing upwards on an ascending trail used by the local community. We rest at a hidden waterfall in the forest before completing our walk into the village of Khun Na Sa where we overnight in our homestay. The charming people here will make everyone feel very welcome, and our guides will help with the cooking and ensure we are comfortable for the night. The group will be in a large room altogether with mattresses on the floor, covered with hanging mosquito nets. Facilities are simple with a bucket of water for washing and clean local toilets. This is the perfect way to discover the true nature of the Thai people and how the rural community lives.

After our breakfast we pack our little bags and set off on our second days' walk and adventure. We take the quiet forest trail, which gives us plenty of opportunity to look out for some of the wildlife including lots of bird species. We have a jungle style picnic along the route. This afternoon we arrive into Ban Khun Puay, which is a Karen hilltribe village of around 70 families. We get acquainted with the people in the village and learn about their lifestyles. We have some music or story-telling and dinner, before going to sleep in our homestay for the night.

DAY 5Walk out of the nearby Doi Inthanon National Park, transfer to Chiang Mai. Learn some Muay Thai / Thai boxing (kickboxing) skills this evening.

We leave early for our trek out of the area. We are close to the Doi Inthanon National Park here. There are some beautiful rice terraces in this area. Traditional wooden houses on stilts are dotted throughout the lush, green, verdant terraces which are built on the undulating hills of this area. The majority of our walk today is spent going downhill. We stop at a waterfall for a refreshing dip or just to relax in this pretty spot. At the roadhead we say our farewells to our crew and return in the vehicle to Chiang Mai. We arrive mid-afternoon and have a little time before the exciting 2 hour Muay Thai or Thai boxing introduction. It is the national sport and a cultural martial art of Thailand, and is a form of kickboxing. We learn the background and some basic techniques. For many this is a highlight of the holiday.

DAY 6Full day visit to the Elephant Sanctuary, overnight train to Ayutthaya.

Elephants are one of the most magnificent animals in this world. We visit the Kanta Elephant Sanctuary. Here the elephants roam free in the tranquil sanctuary. All elephants are rescued from tourism entertainment or logging. They are allowed to be social and bathe in the fresh water lagoons. On our full day visit, we join a group, and set about learning about these wonderful animals whilst feeding them, walking with them and helping them bathe in the river. It's an inspiring day, perfect for nature lovers. If we didn't love elephants before, we will now. We say goodbye to the elephants and return to Chiang Mai to prepare for our exciting overnight on the train to Ayutthaya.

The overnight train is an air conditioned 2nd class carriage. Most of the trains have berths each side of the aisle. These are bunks, with the bottom bunk forming 2 seats, and the top bunk folding down. Some trains are configured differently with 4-person berths. The train carriage attendant makes the beds for you with proper bedding including pillow, sheets and blanket. There is a restaurant/dining carriage, or you can eat at your seats, as the steward comes to take your order. You are well looked after, and sleeping on a train through the night is a fabulous adventure for children and adults alike.

DAY 7

Arrive Ayutthaya, visit the saffron clad Buddhas at Wat Yai Chaimongkol, afternoon cycle ride around the ancient city ruins of Ayutthaya.

We wake on the train as the sun comes up, and we disembark in the town of Ayutthaya. We have breakfast at the morning market or a local restaurant and can watch the saffron-clad monks emerge from their monasteries for the daily alms collections from the local Buddhist residents. The laid back atmosphere is a pleasant stopping point before busy Bangkok. We pop to visit the local Wat Yai Chaimongkol temple, which has an impressive collection of seated stone Buddha's all adorned with the saffron robes. We check into the hotel at lunchtime, and then we have the afternoon on a cycling excursion of Ayutthaya Historic Park. This island is surrounded by three rivers and is where the old capital used to be. The ruins are impressive temples and palaces which were built between 1351 and 1767. We have fun on the bikes as we travel between the specific sites of interest. There are very few cars in this area. This is a great way to get around, and makes it more interesting for the children. We return to the hotel where we can have a swim in the pool before we head out for some dinner.

The ferry takes us over the Chao Phraya River and we continue our tour in Thonburi past its temples, museums and urban life. We finish our loop through the flower market and back to the start. We begin our day with a tour of the Jim Thompson House, named after a silk merchant who built this beautiful teak mansion in the 1960's. Whilst Jim Thompson was alive he was adamant that the silk production for his company should be done as a cottage industry, from home, with the females becoming the family breadwinner, bringing hundreds of people out of poverty. We visit the nextdoor workshop to see how silk is hand woven to produce high-quality silk fabrics. This afternoon we have free time. You can choose to take an optional long-boat ride along the waterways, visit the food market, or go to Wat Saket/The Golden Mount for a close up view of this golden stupa, or of course there is always the option to see the massive golden Reclining Buddha at Wat Pho. There is so much to see and do, and your guide will advise you the best places and routes for your family.

Joining Arrangements & Transfers

The group will meet at the hotel in Chiang Mai.

A single timed transfer from Chiang Mai Airport to the group hotel is provided in the afternoon of Day 1 of the Land Only itinerary.

On the last day of the Land Only itinerary, there will be a single transfer back to Bangkok Airport timed for the check in for the evening flight to London.

Anyone may join the group transfers by prior arrangement. Travelling as a group or on public transport saves energy. If this is not practical, we can provide private transfers and extra nights in Bangkok or Chiang Mai at an additional cost.

Hotel contact details and an emergency number will be provided with your booking confirmation.

Meal Plan

All breakfasts, 3 lunches and 2 dinners are included in the holiday price. Where there is a wide range of dining options such as in Bangkok and Chiang Mai we have left the choice of type of experience and budget to you. Street food and meals in local restaurants are safe, tasty and inexpensive. It is possible to have a great meal for less than £1 per person (50 Thai Baht). It is also possible to pay up to £20 per person in a high end tourist restaurant, or a simple burger and chips will cost approximately £3.

Food & Water

It is not recommended to drink untreated water from the taps. If you are on a trekking or cycling holiday, water is supplied to fill up your individual bottles. This will be boiled, filtered or provided in large jerry cans or 5 litre bottles. Additionally you should take purification tablets or a filter bottle (such as a Water-To-Go bottle) to treat your water when in towns or where water is not supplied. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

In Thailand eating is an essential part of the experience. Thai food is justifiably famous and some would say the best cuisine in the world. Though some dishes are very spicy (such as the fiery and quintessentially Thai, Tom Yam soup) it is a mistake to think that all Thai food is hot, and there is a tremendous subtlety of flavours. Your guide will give you hints and tips on how to discover what suits you best from a typical Thai menu. And of course the Thai cookery course in Chiang Mai will give everyone a better appreciation of the ingredients and techniques involved in creating delicious Thai dishes. In Bangkok and Chiang Mai there are also many restaurants and cafes serving international dishes and all the familiar fast food outlets are also represented.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your diet with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Accommodation

The group will spend 3 nights at a centrally-located hotel with air conditioning and a small swimming pool in Chiang Mai.

During the jungle trek north of Chiang Mai, we stay for 2 nights in village houses/homestays. The group will be in a large room altogether with mattresses on the floor, covered with hanging mosquito nets. Our guides will cook and ensure we are comfortable for the night. Facilities are simple with a bucket of water for washing (no shower) and clean local toilets.

The overnight train is an air conditioned 2nd class carriage. Most of the trains have berths each side of the aisle. These are bunks, with the bottom bunk forming 2 seats, and the top bunk folding down. Some trains are configured differently with 4-person berths. The train carriage attendant makes the beds for you with proper bedding including pillow, sheets and blanket. There is a restaurant/dining carriage, or you can eat at your seats, as the steward comes to take your order.

In Ayutthaya we stay in a tourist class hotel on the banks of the Pasak River. The hotel has air conditioned rooms, a restaurant, bar and small pool. There is also access to the river where there is a seating area.

We have 2 nights in Bangkok we stay in a centrally located hotel with air conditioned rooms, restaurant and bar.

The hotel that we use in Koh Samed is normally the Sai Kaew Beach Resort. This is a family friendly hotel with a swimming pool and nestled next to two idyllic beaches. We can relax, unwind and enjoy a good book whilst the children swim, snorkel and play in this safe environment. There are also watersports available locally on the beach.

In the hotel accommodation (not the village house or the train) children under the age of 12yrs will usually share rooms with their grownups. This might be a twin, triple or quad room, a double with an extra bed, or multiple rooms depending on the number of family members. If you are travelling with children over the age of 12yrs, you will be in separate rooms or sharing twin/multi-bed rooms. Please talk to us about your requirements and we will do everything to ensure that you are happy with your rooming allocation.

All accommodation is subject to availability and change.

Spending Money

Approximately £150-200 per person (or equivalent in US dollars or Euros) should be allowed for tips, soft drinks, snacks, non-included meals and miscellaneous expenses. Alcoholic drinks, souvenirs and optional activities are additional so you may wish to budget for these.

You can choose to take your money in pounds sterling, dollars or euros. There will be the opportunity to change money into local currency on arrival at the airport and your local leader will advise the best places to change money en-route. Additionally, you will be able to get currency from bank ATMs in Chiang Mai and Bangkok, and other towns that you visit. Credit cards are useful and it is a good idea to carry one in case of emergency.

Guidance on Tipping

Tipping is the accepted way of saying 'thank you' to your leader and local team. Tipping is entirely voluntary and should be dependent on good service. We recommend that you decide levels of tipping and give any tips as a group rather than from individual group members.

Baggage Allowance

For this holiday you should take one piece of luggage and a daypack. Luggage with wheels is useful for this holiday. During the 3 day/2 night excursion in the jungle with the hill tribes, you will take only what you need for the three days and the rest of your things can be left at the hotel in Chiang Mai. This luggage will be transferred by motorcycle during the walk. We suggest you bring a second, foldaway bag for this purpose, or pool your luggage with family members. For international flights please check your baggage allowance with your airline.

Group Size & Holiday Status

For each holiday there is a minimum number of participants required to enable it to go ahead. Once the minimum number is reached, the trip status will change from 'Available' to 'Guaranteed to run'. You can check the trip status for each departure in 'Dates and Prices' table. Other than in exceptional circumstances, we will not cancel a trip once it has achieved this guaranteed to run status and so you are free to proceed with your international flight booking and other travel arrangements.

General Information

Passport & Visas

The information that we provide is for UK passport holders. A passport with 6 months remaining validity at the end of your stay is generally required, and you should have at least 2 blank pages for each country that you visit.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you have the correct travel documents and visas for your holiday. Please ensure that you check for the latest advice before travel. For the most up to date information on entry requirements, please visit the UK Government website.

Visa Thailand

UK and USA passport holders do not require a visa for short stays.

Health & Vaccinations

If you have a severe allergy please inform the KE office before you travel. We will do all we can to help, but we cannot guarantee an allergy free environment on KE trips. You will need to carry your own treatment for the allergy with you, as 'adrenaline auto-injectors' are not carried as standard by KE leaders and staff. You should inform your leader on arrival of your allergy, and let them know where you keep your adrenaline pen.

VACCINATIONS

You should contact your doctor or travel clinic to check whether you specific require any vaccinations or other preventive measures. You should be up to date with routine courses and boosters as recommended in the UK e.g. diphtheria-tetanus-polio and measles-mumps-rubella), along with hepatitis A and typhoid. A certificate of yellow fever vaccination is required if travelling from countries with risk of yellow fever transmission and for travellers having transitted for more than 12 hrs through an airport of a country with risk of yellow fever transmission. On holidays to more remote areas you should also have a dentist check up. A good online resource is Travel Health Pro.

Currency

The unit of currency in Thailand is the Thai Baht.

Climate

There are 3 main seasons in Thailand. From November to March the climate is relatively cool and dry. In April and May the heat and humidity increase. The rainy season brings some welcome cooler weather and lasts from June to October. The rainy season does not mean rain all the time, far from it. The climate is very tropical with cloud building quite quickly leading to a short lived afternoon or evening downpour before the skies clear again. Typical daytime temperatures in Bangkok at this time are around 32 - 35°C and in Chiang Mai it will be around 28 - 30°C. Winter temperatures (Christmas and Easter school holidays) will be cooler and this is a great time to visit with virtually no rainfall.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that prior to travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates direct from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.

Why Choose KE

Why KE

Our trek in Northern Thailand is special. We stay with Karen Hill tribe people and truly see rural life. We explore the temples of Ayutthaya on our bicycles. Just one overnight train is required as we arrive by flying internationally into Chiang Mai (a similar price to Bangkok flights), meaning we don't retrace our steps like many other Northern Thailand itineraries do.
