Along the way you will discover nature reserves as well as picturesque towns and cities with their cathedrals, Baroque castles, fortresses and historic monuments, offering a glimpse into the influences on this region over the course of history. Not only that, your journey will take you through the regions of Alsace, Baden and the Palatinate, all known for their wonderful wines which you will of course have plenty of opportunity to enjoy.

The cycle paths are well-established and predominantly flat, and riding an average daily distance of around 50km a day this trip is perfect as a first long distance cycling holiday or one to undertake with your family. You can travel on this holiday flight-free from the UK, making use of the excellent rail network in Western Europe. We can also assist with extending your time in stunning Strasbourg or magnificent Mainz if you wish, just speak to our sales team for more information.

DAY 1

Arrive in Strasbourg and explore the old town.

Arrive at your hotel in the historic centre of Strasbourg, and take the opportunity to orient yourself around this beautiful city.

Strasbourg, as the capital of the Grand Est region of France formerly known as the Alsace, has a rich cultural history borne of its border with Germany. There is plenty to discover, we recommend an extra night here if you can! Visit the UNESCO listed Grande-Île de Strasbourg, marvel at the majestic Strasbourg Cathedral and the 18th century Rohan Palace, and explore the narrow streets and peaceful squares. Take the time to wander the alleys and canals of the old quarter of Petite France, admire the pretty half-timbered houses and discover the historic Covered Bridges (though now no longer roofed) over the Ill River. You might like to enjoy an evening meal in the Grande-Île at one of the "winstubs", traditional restaurants serving up authentic specialties with an accompanying tippale from Alsatian wine country. With a plethora of restaurants and a world-class gastronomic reputation, you will really be spoilt for choice for dining out in Strasbourg.

Ride along the Rhine Valley from Strasbourg to the baroque city of Rastatt.

Setting off on your day's ride this morning, your route will take you out of Strasbourg making use of the well-signed EuroVelo 15 cycle path, through charming French communes alongside the Rhine River before taking the free ferry to cross the border at Drusenheim onto the German bank of the Rhine. From here you will have a leisurely pedal along the cycle path that follows the river bank, passing through scenic meadow landscapes along your way into the heart of Baden: Rastatt. Immerse yourself into this baroque city with its abundance of wonderful sights to visit. We highly recommend a visit to the impressive Residential Palace, the first baroque residence in the Upper Rhine Valley. The palace, gardens and town were planned as a whole with palace being the focus of the city, creating an impression of elegant uniformity. You will have plenty of time to explore from your hotel in the heart of the old town, and enjoy your well-earned dinner in your pick of one of the many restaurants this city has to offer.

DAY 3

Cycle through idyllic nature reserves on your way to Germersheim.

After a hearty breakfast at your hotel, embark on your journey today which will take you through the Palatinate primeval forest, a floodplain landscape that has become rare on the upper Rhine. Enjoy the peace as you pedal gently through seemingly untouched nature. Taking the ferry across the Rhine at Neuburg and passing the industrial outskirts of Worth, your route then takes you through the Hordter Rheinaue nature reserve, one of the largest and oldest in the Rhineland-Palatinate region and home to many endangered animal and plant species, before you reach Germersheim, your destination for the evening. The military history of this garrison town dates back to the 2nd-4th century AD, with the buildings and facilities mostly preserved and today utilised not only for military purposes, but also housing departments of the University of Mainz as well as museums. The imposing Germersheim fortress still stands here as the largest Bavarian fortress outside of Bavaria!

Discover the UNESCO-listed cathedral of Speyer on your way to Heidelberg.

Leaving Germersheim this morning, continue your cycle journey along the Rhine to the Imperial city of Speyer. Here you will have the opportunity to admire the UNESCO World Heritage listed Speyer Cathedral, founded in 1030 and considered to be one of the most important Romanesque monuments from the time of the Holy Roman Empire. You might like to take a break here in the popular shopping district of Maximilian Street, which connects the Imperial Cathedral with the Old City Gate and Tower. Lined with beautifully restored baroque houses this is a lovely spot to enjoy a coffee and a spot of people watching. Crossing back over the Rhine to pick up the cycle path, you soon approach Schwetzingen where the famous palace and beautiful gardens make for an unmissable stop.

Reaching the romantic city of Heidelberg on the banks of the Neckar River, you can settle in and immerse yourself into this beguiling city. Take a stroll through the historic city centre and discover Heidelberg Castle and the Old Bridge, among the most impressive sights to be found in Germany. Did you know that the largest wine barrel in the world can be found here?

Pedal from Heidelberg to Worms via the historic town of Ladenburg.

Saying goodbye to Heidelberg this morning, you will get back on your bike and begin your onward journey. The first stage of the day will find you riding along the Neckar River before it joins the Rhine. Passing through the historic town of Ladenburg, founded by the Romans about 2000 years ago, you will see evidence of its importance as a trading town across all eras as reflected today in the well-preserved cityscape. Temples, thermal baths, market basilica as well as winding streets, beautiful half-timbered houses and medieval city fortifications look back on a long history.

The cycle path takes you through cultivated fields and town peripheries, and soon cuts through pleasant parks and forested paths. Passing through the town of Lampertheim you will shortly meet the wetland wildlife reserve here, a momentary juxtaposition of rural and urban scapes before you roll once more across the Rhine into Worms, your destination for the day. Park up your bike at your centrally located hotel and head out on foot to experience this Imperial city and locate your chosen restaurant for your evening meal and with a glass of Palatinate wine.

DAY 6

Ride through peaceful nature reserves on your way to the charming wine making village of Nierstein.

Your penultimate day of cycling will see you crossing back over the Rhine from Worms and past patchworks of farmland and vineyards, source of much of the produce enjoyed in this region and beyond. Pedalling gently along the eastern bank of the great Rhine, your route takes you past the historic port town of Gernsheim, through the lush greenery of the Kuhkopf-Knoblochsaue nature reserve, then back across the river via ferry to Nierstein your base for the night. Be sure to sample a glass of Riesling here, from grapes grown in the surrounding red slate vineyards of the Rheinhessen. There are a number of wineries here (known as "weingut") offering tours and tastings - we suggest booking ahead if you wish to undertake one of these. You might also like to explore neighbouring Oppenheim where you can find the Gothic church of St Catherine, or discover the multi-level cellar labyrinth hidden beneath the streets of this medieval town.

Complete your Rhine Cycle ride to Mainz, the wine capital of Germany.

With a short stage today you can have a leisurely morning in Nierstein before setting off on your final ride of the week, keeping the sparkling waters of the Rhine on your right. Perhaps the wines you have sampled on your holiday so far were produced from grapes grown in the vineyards you will cycle pass today!

Arriving to the city of Mainz, hand back your trusty steed at your hotel and you are free to explore the wine capital of Germany. Head out to the picturesque old town where you can stroll through narrow lanes, cobblestone streets, discover beautiful squares and admire the lovingly restored half-timbered buildings. The majestic St Martin's Cathedral and many surrounding buildings have a distinctive pink hue from the red sandstone used in their construction. Look out also for the Marktbrunnen (market fountain), a striking sandstone fountain donated to the citizens of Mainz in 1526. Today this is one of the oldest and most beautiful Renaissance fountains in Germany. Enjoy your evening meal at your pick of the many fabulous restaurants here and raise a glass to celebrate your week of cycling and discovery.

This region of France and Germany has a wonderful blend of French and Germanic culinary influences and traditions, you will have no shortage of delicious and not to mention hearty food to enjoy over your holiday. There are many dining options from excellent restaurants to cosy traditional eateries where you can sample the local specialities of the region.

In the Alsace, popular dishes include choucroute (braised pork or fish on a bed of sauerkraut), baeckeoffe (a warming dish made from potatoes, vegetables and meat, slow cooked with Alsace wine and herbs), and tarte flambée which is like a thin pizza that is enjoyed at any time of day. You will also find lovely ingredients available for your picnic lunch, including braided pretzels, deli meats, cheeses and pastries (try the kougelhoph - a sweet Alsatian pudding cake).

In neighbouring Germany, you can expect filling soups and stews along with the familiar bratwurst, meatballs, dumplings and sauerkraut commonly featured. For a sweet treat, try the Spekulatius - thin, crispy spiced cookies which can also be found in buttery or almond coated varieties.

The region produces some of the most noted dry Rieslings in the world as well as highly aromatic Gewürztraminer wines. The wines produced here are mostly white, some reds are also available as are sparkling wines.

For the latest details on visiting countries within the EU or the European Economic Area (EEA), please check the UK Government website

The information that we provide is for UK passport holders. A passport with 6 months remaining validity at the end of your stay is generally required, and you should have at least 2 blank pages for each country that you visit.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you have the correct travel documents and visas for your holiday. Please ensure that you check for the latest advice before travel. For the most up to date information on entry requirements, please visit the UK Government website.

Severe Allergies

Please inform our KE Sales and support team of any severe allergies you may have before travel. We will always do our best to help but we are unable to guarantee an allergy free environment on our KE trips. We also recommend that you discuss this with your accommodation on arrival so that they can better assist you.

Currency

The currency for part or all of this holiday is the Euro.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided cycling holiday is that you decide the pace. This trip is designed for leisure cyclists and does not require you to be in peak fitness. Having said this it is always sensible to get some additional exercise before going on an active holiday. After all, the fitter you are the more enjoyable your cycling will be. You should be comfortable with cycling 40-60 km a day on easy cycle paths and we advise to dust off your bike and head out on a few rides before your holiday.

Climate

Rhineland-Palatinate is part of the West-European Atlantic climate, characterised by mild winters and moderate summers and is therefore part of the warmest climate zones north of the Alps. Expect daytime highs to reach around 26 degrees C in the summer months, and around 15-20 degrees C in the spring and autumn. Showers can occur at any time of the year so it is always worth packing your waterproofs just in case.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that prior to travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates direct from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.
