Introduction

Discover true Bavaria. A land of fairytale castles and breath taking alpine scenery fit for royalty on the border of the majestic Austrian Tirol; full of soaring peaks and glistening lakes. This one week self-guided walking holiday is the perfect balance between sightseeing and walking in spectacular alpine mountains, and with a choice of walks most days you can make your holiday as demanding or relaxing as you choose. You will be based in the historic town of Fussen for the week, allowing you to absorb the culture and enjoy the fantastic alpine hospitality.

Over the week you will have the opportunity to discover the fabled castles built by 'mad' King Ludwig II, nestled at the end of Germany's Romantic Road. Your walks will take you to both the towering palaces of Neuschwanstein and Hohenschwangau, and to the ruins of Falkenstein for a spectacular view. You will also visit Pfronten from where your walks will take you amongst the high peaks of Bavaria and through meadows and valleys to sleepy villages. Staying the week in one comfortable 3* hotel base in the heart of Fussen, you have plenty of flexibility to make your holiday your own and take your choice of walks on each day, or perhaps even rest the boots for a day of sightseeing and local exploration.

Is this holiday for you?

This holiday is perfect if you are looking to combine the charm and intrigue of King Ludwig II's land of fantasy Bavarian castles with some great mountain walking in the Allgau Alps. On average, you will walk around 13km and 4-5 hours each day, with moderate ascents of up to 790m in a day. On most days, you will have the option to extend or to shorten your walk, so you can decide on the level of hiking to suit your preferences. The walks follow forest roads and good mountain paths, with the occasional stony section, and routes are generally marked with directional signs. Having a basic knowledge of map reading and navigation will stand you in good stead on this holiday.

DAY 1

Arrive in Fussen on Germany's famous Romantic Road.

Arrive at your hotel in Fussen. Famed for its royal inhabitant King Ludwig II, Fussen sits nestled under the alps at the southern end of the popular Romantic Road route, home to Ludwig's Neuschwanstein and Hohenschwangau castles. Depending on your time of arrival, you may wish to take a stroll into the old town where life spills into the streets in the summer months with locals enjoying the outdoor cafes. Enjoying this lovely town, it won't take long for you to understand why King Ludwig II choose this beautiful part of Bavaria to build his royal residences.

DAY 2

Explore the castles of Hohenschwangau and Neuschwanstein and walk back to Fussen.

Your day begins with a short bus transfer to the little village of Hohenschwangau where you can explore 'mad' King Ludwig II of Bavaria's extravagant castles. The castles have featured in many films including musical favourite Chitty Chitty Bang Bang and it is said that Neuschwanstein was the inspiration for both Disney's Cinderella and Sleeping Beauty castles. When you have finished exploring the magnificent castles you have the option to take a walk through the lush meadows to Fussen. Your route will take you across the famous Marienbrücke Bridge with its daring 92m arch above the Pollat Gorge for fantastic views. THE CASTLES: If you would like to incorporate a visit to the castles today we recommend booking your tickets in advance. Hohenschwangau is the oldest of the castles with references to a fortress dating back to the 12th century. The castle as it stands today is based on a redesign by King Ludwig II's father, King Maximilian II, who rebuilt the castle in the 19th century. It was here where Ludwig spent his childhood, with views over Alpensee and the spectacular valley. Dubbed as 'mad' King Ludwig II he was an eccentric character, who was said to have told his governess "I want to remain an eternal mystery to myself and others" and so built a fantasy world around himself. The neighbouring castle of Neuschwanstein was commissioned by King Ludwig II in 1869, but died before his full vision was completed in 1892.

DAY 3

Discover spectacular views and the remains of Falkenstein castles on a ridge hike along the Austrian-German border.

Today provides a lovely walk from Pfronten to Fussen via a spectacular traverse along the Austrian-German border and the tranquil lake of Alatsee. Taking the local bus to Pfronten in the morning, your route begins with an ascent to the ruins of Falkenstein castle, passing Mary's Grotto along the way. The ruins of Falkenstein were set to be King Ludwig II's third fairytale castle before he died; and at a height of 1,268m it would certainly have been another castle with an enviable view. Today, there is hotel built next to the ruins which makes for a lovely spot for a refreshment break before continuing on your way. Accompanied by beautiful views into both Germany and Austria, your route descends along the ridge through forests of pine and spruce to reach the small lake of Alatsee, nestled within the surrounding hills. It is the perfect spot to stop, relax and soak in the beautiful Bavarian landscape. Returning to your hotel base in Fussen, enjoy a hearty meal at a restaurant of your choice before turning in for the night.

DAY 4

Meander through rural Bavaria's bucolic meadows and explore the castle ruins at Eisenberg.

Your walk today begins from the charming town of Pfronten. This low-level level route takes you through rural agricultural landscapes, peat bogs and typically quaint Bavarian villages. Along the way there is the possibility to visit the ruins of Hohenfreiberg and Eisenberg castles which dominate the landscape, both previously strongholds for the surrounding area. Set upon a huge rock foundation the castles provide a good vantage point to see the surrounding area before returning to Pfronten and enjoying a refreshing beer. You might even like to sample one of the restaurants here in Pfronten before taking the bus back to Fussen to retire for the night.

Hike to the summit of the Edelsberg for far-reaching views over the Bavarian alps.

This morning, take the bus to Pfronten from where your walk will commence. You have a beautiful hike in store today, to ascend one of the most well known peaks in the area: the Edelsberg. A steady climb will take you through wooded pastures, along scenic becks and past pretty waterfalls, before gaining the ridge of the Kappelkopfl from where the views start to open up. Another push will take you to the high point today, the summit of Edelsberg at 1630m, from where you can take a breather and drink in the awesome 360 degree panorama as a reward for your efforts. Commencing your descent, you will walk through tranquil forest to reach the charming village of Rofleuten before culminating your day's loop walk back in Pfronten.

Walk above the Lech valley, one of the last wild rivers of Europe.

Tuck into a hearty breakfast before taking the bus from Fussen to the ski resort of Buching, nestled at the base of the Jagdberg massif. Today's walk takes you across the verdant flanks of the mountain range, accompanied by wonderful views over the Lech valley. The Lech is a tributary of the great Danube, flowing through the mountains of the Austrian Tyrol and the Allgau Alps before eventually meeting the Danube. This stunning turquoise waterway is considered to be one of the last wild rivers in central Europe, carving its course naturally through entrancing alpine landscapes. Undulating your way through the lush mountain pastures, you will come across some inviting mountain chalets where you might like to enjoy a refreshing drink and perhaps a snack while basking in the mountainous surrounds, before completing your descent to Hohenschwangau.

DAY 7

Discover the UNESCO-listed church of Wies on a pilgrimage route through unique wetland landscapes.

After your mountain days the last couple of days, today's walk is a more gentle lowland affair. Your route from Steingaden will take you through landscapes unique to this geographical area, formed in the last ice age where vast blocks of ice created depressions that filled with water when the ice melted. Wetland areas such as this plays host to a wealth of fascinating flora and fauna, such as butterflies, dragonflies and damselflies; and squidgy carpets of sphagnum moss and carnivorous sundews. Wet and healthy peat bogs also trap carbon from the atmosphere, so you can see why this is such an important and valuable environment. The little hamlet of Wies can be found at the mid-point of your walk. Here you can pay a visit to its UNESCO-listed Baroque church, a popular destination over the centuries for pilgrimages from Germany, Austria, Bohemia and even Italy, and home to a fine example of Rococo art and architecture.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

Bavarian cuisine is closely connected to that of its neighbouring countries and built on staple ingredients such as beets and potatoes, crops which thrive in the Bavarian climate. The menu can often be meat heavy with dishes such as schweinshaxe and knodel (roasted pork knuckle with potato dumplings), weisswurst (white veal sausage) popular choices. One of our favourite lunch options is brezn with obatzda (pretzel with Bavarian cheese), it is a local delicacy and yummy too!

Austrian cuisine is symbolic of the former crownlands of the monarchy and its multi-cultural history with Hungarians, Bohemians, Slovaks, Poles, Croats and immigrants from the Dalmatia, Subcarpathia, Bukovina and Carniola all bringing their favourite recipes with them as they came to Vienna. The best of the best have become fully integrated into the Austrian menu and even crossed the border into Bavaria. Take the Apfelstrudel for example which originally came from Turkey after being adopted by Hungary. Who would have thought this national dish was actually Turkish?

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.

Travel Insurance

It is an essential condition of joining a holiday with KE Adventure Travel that you have a valid travel insurance policy to cover the cost of medical treatment and to protect the value of your holiday in the event of cancellation.
