Introduction

Sitting at the heart of Central Asia, the republic of Uzbekistan has a richness of history matched by few places on earth. A succession of conquering forces, from Alexander the Great to Ghengis Khan and his descendants, have left their unique mark on the region's culture and architecture. We start out exploring Khiva, before following the Oxus River to the magical Silk Road oasis of Bukhara, which flourished in the 9th and 10th centuries. We'll also travel to Samarkand, one of the undoubted wonders of the world, with its mosaic-clad and turquoise-tiled monuments. Here we'll stay in a well located guesthouse, close to the Bibi-khanym Mosque, one of the largest and most magnificent mosques in the Islamic world and commissioned by Tamerlane himself. As well as visiting Uzbekistan's most famous cities, to allow us a better understanding of Uzbekistan and its people, we will also enjoy some easy paced mountain walks in the high valleys of Zarafshan and Nurafan mountains, where we have the opportunity to meet the Uzbek shepherds and farmers who make their livelihood in this rarely-visited part of the greater Pamir range. During this part of the holiday we stay as welcomed guests at village homestays and experience nomadic shepherd life sleeping in a traditional yurt. With a unique blend of sightseeing and straightforward mountain walks, this is a superb adventure holiday situated at the crossroads of Asia.

Is this holiday for you?

This holiday is a mix between sightseeing, cultural discover and easy-paced mountain walks, which will allow us to gain a fuller understanding of this fascinating part of the world. Three of our walking days are relatively short (days 7, 8 and 10). There are 2 options for the walk on day 9 - either a short walk around the foothills of the Zarafshan foothills near Tepakoul or a longer walk traversing the range of around 8 - 9 hours. This extended day-hike is entirely optional. All of our walking is on good trails and walking times will vary between 4 - 6 hours. Please note that the sightseeing tours in Khiva and Bukhara will be primarily on foot which allows for a more personal experience of life in these ancient cities. There will also be some reasonably long drives on roads of variable condition. There are 2 nights where we will use basic but charming village homestay accommodation, which will be a real highlight of the holiday, and 1 night in a traditional yurt.

DAY 1

Meet at the group hotel in Tashkent. A single transfer from Tashkent Airport is provided. Fly to Khiva.

KE Land Only package services begin with an early morning airport transfer to the hotel. Rooms are provided for a brief rest and the opportunity to wash and change. The group will meet over breakfast. Afterwards, there is time for sightseeing with our tour leader in the Uzbek capital, including the Tchorsu Bazaar and the Koukeldash Madrasah. Later in the afternoon we return to the airport and fly to Urgench, from where we take a short transfer to our hotel accommodation in the town of Khiva, close to the border with Turkmenistan.

DAY 2

Guided tour of the Silk Road city of Khiva including the Ichkan Kala with its blue-domed madrasahs.

Khiva is an ancient settlement, with a long and turbulent history. There may have been a city on this spot for more than 1500 years. More recently, Khiva was the capital of an important Khanate in the 17th century and was a major Silk Road trading centre. The Ichkan Kala (historic centre) has more than 50 important monuments, including palaces, mosques, mausoleums and madrasahs (schools of Koranic learning). On our sightseeing tour we will visit Tosh-Houli Palace and Juma (Friday) Mosque. Later in the day there will be some free time for independent exploration. The ancient city looks particularly magical in the late afternoon as the sun begins to set. This is best viewed from the minaret of the Juma Mosque. We spend a second night at the hotel in Khiva.

DAY 3*Drive along the Oxus River to Bukhara, following in the footsteps of Alexander the Great.

Today, we make a reasonably early departure for the drive back east. After the first hour, our road runs alongside the Oxus River, locally known as the Amu Darya. Here we are following in the traces of Alexander the Great, whose army passed this way in 329BC. Turning away from the river, we cut through the striking landscape of the Kizilkum Desert, stopping off for lunch at a roadside restaurant and reaching our guesthouse in Bukhara in the late afternoon. Journey-time will be around 6 - 7 hours.

DAY 4*Exploration of Bukhara 'Pearl of the Desert', a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Bukhara is another important Silk Road city. It is the most complete example of a medieval city in Central Asia, with a structure that has remained largely intact. Bukhara was one of the largest cities of Central Asia, owing its prosperity due to its location on a rich oasis at the crossroads of ancient trade routes. It became a major cultural centre of the Caliphate of Baghdad in 709, and in 892 the capital of the independent Samanid Kingdom. It was destroyed in 1220 by the Mongol horde of Genghis Khan. Every stage of the city's history can be glimpsed today. The earliest monuments include the 10th century Ismail Samani Tomb, the decorated brick minaret of Poi-Kalyan from the 11th century, along with the Magok-i-Attari Mosque and the Chasma Ayub Shrine. The Timurid period is represented only by the Ulugbek Madrasah. The most celebrated buildings date from the Shebibanid period - the Poi-Kalyan group, the Lyabi-Khauz ensemble, the Kosh Madrasah, and the Gaukushon Madrasah. The historic part of the city is, in effect, an open-air museum and we will have a full guided tour today, the first of our 2 days in this city known as the 'Pearl of the Desert'. Of particular interest is the Ark Fortress, former home of the Bukhara Khans, where, in the 19th century the Emir of Bukhara had the English officers Stoddart and Connolly imprisoned and killed. Much of the "The Great Game", the battle between Imperial Britain and Tsarist Russia for control of the Central Asian states was played out in this part of the world. During the course of the day we will also visit the Tim Abdullah Khan (covered market), where we find beautiful hand woven silk Ikat, the ancient Zoroastrian temple, the Kukeldash Madrasa, the Nodir-Devon Begui and we will also take a walk in an old Jewish quarter and visit the synagogue. After a full day of sightseeing we return to our guesthouse for a second night.

DAY 5*A second day in Bukhara, with time for further exploration of this amazing Silk Road city.

After yesterday's guided sightseeing, we will have the opportunity today to do some exploring on our own. As well as its famous monuments, Bukhara has excellent bazaars and tranquil squares, such as Lyabi-Hauz, shaded by mulberry trees and a great place to take it easy. Watch the world go by as you sip a cup of green tea in one of the Chaikhanas (tea shops) or visit one of the city's hammomi (baths) for a hammam steam bath and massage. The hammomi in Bukhara are housed in ancient buildings and are amongst the most atmospheric in the country. Bukhara is an excellent place to shop for souvenirs, with a wide range of goods available from street vendors and the shops in the ancient bazaars. Overnight at our Bukhara guesthouse.

DAY 6*Drive to Nurata, a desert oasis. Visit to an Alexandrian Fort and then on to a desert yurt camp.

It's back into our bus today, for the drive north and east towards the lake of Aydarkul. Our first stop is at the ancient oasis of Nur, now known as Nurata, where the sacred 'Chasma' spring rises close to 2 mosques and flows through the town in a narrow canal. The spring waters are teeming with fish, which are considered sacred and grow to a good size. There is also the ruin of an Alexandrian fort on a low hill above the mosques and visiting it will both stretch our legs and give us great views over the town. Our overnight stop tonight is in a yurt camp at Yanghi-Gazgan, a short drive from Nurata.

DAY 7*Onward to Lake Aydar for lunch then transfer to Ukhum and Hayat in the Nurata Mountains.

This morning we will drive north for an hour or so to Lake Aydar. Amazingly, this 200 kilometre-long lake is a recent development, having arisen as an accidental bi-product of the damming of the Syr Darya River in the late 1960's. This flooded former salt flat now appears to be a permanent feature of the landscape and has been stocked with fish, which thrive in the slightly salty water. We will have a picnic lunch at the lake, meet the local fishermen and maybe even have a swim. Returning to our transport, we drive to the village of Ukhum in the Nurata Mountains. Here we will check in at our comfortable homestay accommodation and take an out-and-back walk to the nearby village of Hayat where we can visit the breeding enclosures of the highly endangered Severtzov's wild sheep. Overnight at Ukhum.

DAY 8

A walk in the Nurata Mountains, ascending to a 1500 metre pass. Drive to Tersak village.

To gain a better appreciation of this culturally rich region, we go for a walk in the Nurata Mountains which form a 200 kilometre-long chain, rising to just over 2000 metres, on the south side of Lake Aydar. Our walk takes us through a picturesque valley and nature reserve which is home to shepherding communities. Arriving at a 1500 metre pass, we have tremendous views of the highest peaks of the range, including Hayotboshi (2169m). Returning to Ukhum, we make the 3-hour drive south via Samarkand to the Uzbek village of Tersak in the Zarafshan Mountains, where we overnight in a local Uzbek homestay.

DAY 9

A morning's walk in the Zarafshan Mountains. Overnight in the Omonqutan Valley.

This morning we enjoy a walk into the Zarafshan Mountains, the western extension of the Pamir-Alay Range that reaches greater prominence in neighbouring Tajikistan. After breakfast we slowly climb up a valley that leads us to a set of interesting rock formations where we see 'statues' of gorillas, snakes and other animals carved by nature into the mountainside. From 'Kichik Kurgan Tov' (Small Mountain Fortress) we continue on to a ridge to reach the high point of the valley 'Katta Kurgane Tov' (Big Mountain Fortress) at 1780 metres for impressive views over the valley. We descend to the village and after lunch, we drive to the Omonqutan Valley where we overnight at a comfortable mountain resort with a swimming pool.

DAY 10

A final hike in the Zarafshan Range. Visit Shakhrisabz to visit the remains of Tamerlane's White Palace, then drive to Samarkand.

This morning's hike gives us a final chance to discover everyday life of the Uzbeks. We start walking through a flat area dominated by large rock features, the path zig zags between these beautiful formations before reaching the Langar Pass (1850m) and the high summer pastures favoured by the local shepherds with their herds of goats and sheep. After lunch back at the village, we drive to the ancient city of Shakhrisabz, formerly known as Kesh. This is a pleasant place, set within a green landscape of orchards and vineyards and was the summer home of Tamerlane. It has a number of important architectural landmarks linked to Tamerlane, including the ruins of the incredible Ak-Saray Palace, the Jahangir Mausoleum, which dates from the late 14th century and is the resting place of Tamerlane's eldest son. We'll also be able to visit the impressive Kok-Gumbaz Mosque, built by Ulugbek, Tamerlane's son and successor and the mausoleum of Sheikh Shamseddin Kulyal, spiritual guide to Tamerlane and his father. Shakhrisabz is a traditional centre of handicrafts, especially embroidery, and is a good place for souvenir hunting. After our visit, we make the drive to the Silk Road City of Samarkand, where we will overnight in a hotel.

Full day guided tour of Samarkand including the Registan, the Gur Emir complex and the Shah-i-Zinda.

Capital of the ancient Timur / Tamerlan Empire, this ancient city is located at the crossroads of the main trade routes from China, Siberia, Persia and the West, making it an important stopping point along the Silk Road. Today we embark on a full day guided city tour. Our tour will include the Registan, one of the most magnificent squares in the Islamic World. The 3 Madrasahs (Islamic Colleges); Uleg Beg, Tilya-Kari and Shir Dor, that border the square have been restored to their former glory. We also visit Gur Emir, where the tomb of Tamerlane lies beneath an enormous slab of dark green jade. The interior of the mausoleum is ornately decorated with blue and gold panels. Other highlights will be a visit to the Bibi-Khanym Mosque, built for Tamerlane by his favourite wife, and the atmospheric Shah-i-Zinda Mausoleum.

Food & Water

It is not recommended to drink untreated water from the taps. If you are on a trekking or cycling holiday, water is supplied to fill up your individual bottles. This will be boiled, filtered or provided in large jerry cans or 5 litre bottles. Additionally you should take purification tablets or a filter bottle (such as a Water-To-Go bottle) to treat your water when in towns or where water is not supplied. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

Meals are either taken at our overnight accommodation or in local restaurants. Breakfasts consist of yoghurt or eggs, fruit juices, bread, tea and coffee. Lunch will be mostly taken in restaurants, although packed lunches will be provided on some occasions. Dinner is a three-course meal and will usually include a selection of salads and bread, sometimes soup, a main course that could be a "pot au feu" style stew or the local plov (rice pilau) speciality followed by cake or fresh fruit for dessert. All meals in Uzbekistan are served with copious amounts of delicious green tea. Please note that vegetarianism is not a concept widely understood in Central Asia and choices for vegetarians will be much more limited. You may also wish to bring along some snacks from home. If you are vegetarian please remember to inform us of your dietary requirements before you travel.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your diet with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Accommodation

When in Khiva, Bukhara and Samarkand we will stay in hotel/guesthouse accommodation. We will also enjoy 1 night at a traditional yurt camp and 2 nights in Uzbek homestays with good facilities in different villages in the Nurata and Zarafshan mountains. There will also be a night at a comfortable mountain resort with swimming pool in the Omonqutan Valley.

Sleeping arrangements in the yurts and at the homestays are communal, with 3 to 6 people sharing a room, with basic shared toilet and shower facilities. Mattresses and bedding are provided, but we recommend you bring a light sleeping bag to supplement the bedding. The modest facilities are more than made up for by the warmth of the welcome from our hosts.

In the hotels and guesthouses accommodation will be twin share. If you are travelling by yourself, you will be paired up with another single client of the same sex. Single rooms at these places can be pre-booked at supplementary cost. If you are planning to extend your holiday, additional nights at the group accommodation in Khiva and/or Samarkand can also be pre-booked.

Group Leader & Support Staff

The group will be led by a professional and qualified tour leader.

Spending Money

Approximately $200 should be allowed for miscellaneous expenses. This will allow you to pay tips of approximately $50 to the local staff. We recommend that you take your travel money in the form of US dollars cash. Money can be changed at a reasonable rate at the airport or at the hotel in Tashkent. Please note that whilst better rates of exchange can be obtained on the black market in the bazaars, unofficial exchange is illegal and can result in imprisonment. For this reason we advise you change money only at accredited bureaux. Credit cards are of limited use in Tashkent and Samarkand. On arrival in Uzbekistan Airport you will need to complete 2 copies of the Customs Declaration Form (ask for copies of the form in English if none are available). The forms asks for a declaration of the amount of currency you are bringing in to the country - please be careful to state correctly exactly how much money you have with you in different currencies. One form will be retained by Uzbek Customs, you will retain the other copy until departure. On departure you will need to complete another form showing how much currency you are taking out of the country. Once again, please be careful to state the exact amounts and note that it is illegal to take more money out of the country than the sum you arrived with.

Guidance on Tipping

In Central Asia, it is usual to tip the members of your trek crew, including your local guide, if you are happy with the services provided. As mentioned above, we estimate that $50 will cover this aspect of your trip expenditure. The guide will help the group to determine an appropriate level of tipping for drivers and other local staff.

Baggage Allowance

For this holiday you should take one piece of luggage and a daypack. For international flights please check your baggage allowance with your airline.

Group Size & Holiday Status

For each holiday there is a minimum number of participants required to enable it to go ahead. Once the minimum number is reached, the trip status will change from 'Available' to 'Guaranteed to run'. You can check the trip status for each departure in 'Dates and Prices' table. Other than in exceptional circumstances, we will not cancel a trip once it has achieved this guaranteed to run status and so you are free to proceed with your international flight booking and other travel arrangements.

Other nationalities, should check entry requirements with the Embassy of the Republic of Uzbekistan in their own country.

Health & Vaccinations

If you have a severe allergy please inform the KE office before you travel. We will do all we can to help, but we cannot guarantee an allergy free environment on KE trips. You should inform your leader on arrival of your allergy, and let them know where you keep your adrenaline pen.

VACCINATIONS

You should contact your doctor or travel clinic to check whether you require any specific vaccinations or other preventive measures. You should be up to date with routine courses and boosters as recommended in the UK e.g. diphtheria-tetanus-polio and measles-mumps-rubella, along with hepatitis A and typhoid. A good online resource is Travel Health Pro.

Preparing for your Holiday

Getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable you will find the experience.

Climate

In Tashkent and Samarkand, the daytime temperature in April and May will be around 20 to 30 degrees centigrade. In the mountains it will be cooler, 15 degrees during the day and 10 degrees at night. In September and October, daytime temperatures range from 20 to 35 degrees centigrade in the cities. The temperature can drop to single figures overnight at the desert camp at Yanghi-Gazgan and it can feel chilly in the evenings whilst staying at the mountain villages so you are advised to take a warm fleece jacket. The weather is usually good throughout the summer, with clear skies and little rain or snow.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that prior to travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination.
