Introduction

Starting in the original Bhutanese capital of Punakha, this superb new trekking holiday begins by following the ancient trading route to Thimphu over the Sinchu La (3530m). Until the road building programme of the late 20th century, the only access between the valleys of Punakha and Thimphu was across the ridges and passes connecting these two important valleys. The second section of our trek takes us up and across the Dagala range, including the Laba Chung Laptsa (4520m) from where we will have a stunning perspective on the Eastern Himalaya and then traverses the ‘Valley of a Thousand Lakes’, before we end our holiday in the modern capital of Bhutan, Thimphu. Very few visitors to Bhutan have followed this route and when KE founder Glenn Rowley made this trek in November 2016, he saw no one else at all. Glenn's opinion of the trek: "I've completed many short treks in the Himalaya but the view from the Dagala range, which reaches from Chomolhari (7314m) in the west to Gangkar Puensum (7570m) in the east, is one of the best in Bhutan, you can literally see every peak. The lack of other trekkers, pristine campsites, the feeling of remoteness whilst being only a few days away from civilisation, the beautiful Dzongs, and contact with welcoming Bhutanese people, made this trip extra special for me".

BOOK EARLY for BHUTAN! With only two airlines operating flights into Paro from Kathmandu, seats are limited and in high demand. Book early to guarantee your place on your chosen departure. We strongly advise booking a year in advance where possible.

Is this holiday for you?

This trek is suitable for regular hill walkers. On our 8 day trek we will for the most part be following trails that have been well prepared for the ponies or yaks that were traditionally used to carry supplies on the route. The trekking does involve some long days of 6-7hr with the occasional longer day. We will be crossing several passes over 4000m and will also encounter long ascents and/or descents on some days, so a good level of fitness is essential. Remember that the moderately high altitude will make the walking feel more demanding than at lower elevations. Our hike up the Tiger's Nest at 3100m will be great acclimatisation before starting our trek. During the trek we will encounter a variety of terrain; from fertile and intensively terraced farmland, through some of the finest mixed forest in the world, to open, alpine pastureland and high mountain valleys and passes. This is a fully supported trek, and you will only be required to carry your day pack each day. Our friendly camp crew will take care of all the camp chores, so you can relax, rest, and enjoy the views at camp.

Holiday Itinerary

Day 1: Meet at the group hotel in Kathmandu. Transfers from Kathmandu Airport are provided.

Arriving in Kathmandu you will be met outside the arrivals hall by a local KE representative who will arrange the transfer to the group hotel in the heart of the city; they will also supply you with a copy of your Bhutanese Visa, your ticket to Paro and details of the timings and where to meet the group the for the transfer back to the airport the following morning. The hotel is only a short walk from Thamel and flight time allowing you may have time for some independent sightseeing. We have also arranged for dinner in the hotel tonight, which you can take at your own leisure. KE Land Only package services begin with the airport transfer.

Day 2: Fly to Paro in the Kingdom of Bhutan. Sightseeing Paro.
After taking breakfast in the hotel, the group will meet in the lobby at a designated time and transfer together back to the airport in Kathmandu to check in for our flight to Paro, Bhutan. The flight from Kathmandu to Bhutan is one of the most spectacular of all mountain flights. From the left side of the plane Everest, Makalu and Kangchenjunga, three of the world's highest mountains, are clearly visible. The total flying time is only 45 minutes and soon we are descending into the Paro Valley, enjoying the splendid views of alpine forests, small monasteries, temples and flat-roofed farmhouses. Arriving in Paro we are met by our Bhutanese hosts and transfer to our hotel. Depending on flight times there may be an opportunity to visit the impressive Ta Dzong and the ancient watchtower above, which now houses the National Museum.

Day 3: Hike to the Taktsgang (the Tiger's Nest) Monastery. Drive to Punakha.

This morning we make the stunning hike up to one of the most important religious sites in the entire Himalaya, the Tiger's Nest. The monastery has a most stunning location, perched on the ledge of a cliff 900m above the Paro Valley. Not just a cultural experience, this hike up to over 3000m will provide some excellent acclimatisation ahead of our trek. Around half way up the trail there is a classic viewpoint for Taktsgang, looking across the gorge to the monastic buildings clinging to the cliff wall opposite. There is a small teahouse located here where we can stop for a rest and a drink with a truly unforgettable view. The final approach to the monastery takes us down to a sacred waterfall, surrounded by a thousand fluttering prayer flags, where every crack in the rock is crammed with tsa-tsas (small caskets containing the ashes of the dead), before climbing back up towards the monastery. Leaving our bags and cameras at the gate we should hopefully be allowed to take a look around inside. As we explore amongst the chambers and altar rooms our guide will be on hand to explain all about the Buddhist rituals and iconography. We return to Paro in the afternoon. Arriving in Punakha we can expect warmer temperatures and a change of scenery towards fertile farmland, fruit trees and rice paddies. In the late afternoon we will visit Punakha Dzong, one of Bhutan's most impressive buildings; it was here that the first king was crowned in 1907 and also where the current, and fifth, King first donned the Raven Crown. Particularly impressive is the pillared hall, which is decorated with art work depicting the most important scenes from the life of the Buddha and presided over by impressive giant gilded statues of Buddha, Guru Rinpoche and Zhabdrung Rinpoche (or Bluebeard). After visiting the dzong we will check into our hotel. If there is any luggage that do not require on the trek we can can leave a separate bag with the driver for delivery to our hotel in Thimphu to collect at the end of the trek.

Day 4: Walk through forests of blue pine and rhododendron to Dupshipang (2440m)

After breakfast, we drive to Chorten Nyebu (1700m), the site of an ancient temple and here we meet our trek crew and horsemen who will accompany us over the next days. The trek today is a gradual ascent which begins through terraces of rice. We pass several villages and as we gain height we can look back over the valley below where we can also see the golden roofed Khamsum Yuley chorten, which was built by the Queen Mother. After crossing two streams and climbing steadily through forests of blue pine and rhododendrons, we reach a clearing, which is our camp for the night at the place known as Dupshipang (2440m).

Day 5: Trek over Sinchu La (3530m) and down towards our camp in a meadow (3485m).
We continue climbing steadily though mixed forest towards the Sinchu La. The view begins to open up and we can see Thinleygang village, Talo Monastery and the main road to Punakha. After approximately 4-Shours we reach the Sinchu La (3530m), marked with a small Stupa and many prayer flags. The trail across the top of the pass has been worn to a deep groove by generations of travellers between Punakha and the villages that now form Thimphu. These days most Bhutanese make the journey by road, thus bequeathing an excellent quiet trekking path to those who appreciate walking in the foothills of the Himalaya. From the top of the pass if the weather permits, we have extensive views over the Thimphu Valley and Phajoding Monastery and of distant Himalayan Mountain ranges. The old ‘Winter’ route between Punakha and Thimphu now aims directly for the capital, whereas we trend left heading towards our next pass to continue our adventure. From the top of the Sinchu La we descend to our camp in a meadow (3485m), surrounded by rhododendron and mixed conifer forest.

Day 6: Today we trek to the Dochu La (3100m).

Today's trek, which leads us down towards the Dochu La on the Punakha/Thimpu road, is relatively gentle with some occasional uphill climbing through dense forests of oak and blue pine with frequent dramatic clearings where we have extensive views over Thimphu city. Much of the walk is along old and disused logging trails which makes for relatively easy underfoot conditions. We will also pass some semi-nomadic Yak herders' winter settlements. This is also another opportunity to enjoy the amazing panorama of snow-capped Himalayan peaks and admire the 108 'Druk Wangyal' chortens. We camp around an hour on from the main road at a camp that offers great views of the Himalayas.

Day 7: Across the Hele La (3225m) to our camp near the settlement of Chamgang (2600m).

From camp we should be treated to a stunning view of the sunrise. Today we begin with an uphill walk of around 2 hours to the remote Lungcheytsey Temple (3570m). From here we descend through the forest of pine and dwarf rhododendron, before heading up once more towards the Hele La (3225m). We will stop for lunch near the pass before descending down towards our camp, around an hour away from the small hamlet of Chamgang (2600m). Chamang is populated by highlanders who have relocated form the highlands of the Daga La to avoid the harsh winters.

Day 8: To Tsokam (3200m). Trekking through apple orchards and mixed forest.

Today we trek for around an hour to reach Chamgang village, from here our path first leads up through orchards of apples, before a long gradual climb takes us through forests of spruce, birch, juniper, oak and rhododendron. The forests are full of wild life with many species of birds and are also known for the many varieties of blue poppy found here. Our camp tonight is in a clearing known as Tsokam (3200m), which means 'dried lake'. This is a winter meadow used to graze the Yaks when the herders bring them down from the higher mountain slopes.

Day 9: Trek across the Tsa Rila La (4190m) to Lhaba Chung (4300m).
We have a steep climb for about an hour to start the day, after which we ascend more gradually beside the Dokka Chu, where we are likely to see the tents of semi-nomadic Yak herders. On this route Himalayan Monal Pheasants are a common sighting and we have fantastic views of the Himalaya as we climb over several ridges to reach the Tsari La (4190m). Eventually we reach a steep ravine and stream across which the locals have now built a concrete bridge. Crossing the bridge, we then ascend for around another hour to our camp site at Lhaba Chung (4300m). Tonights camp is just below a lake and has been used for centuries by the yak herders as their summer grazing grounds.

Day 10: Across the Laba Chung Laptsa (4520m) and trek to Watachen (4100m).

On today's hike we will have fantastic views of the Himalaya. One we reach the Laba Chung Lapsta, a classic saddle mountain at 4520m, the extensive panorama will include distant Kanchenjunga as well as the Bhutanese peaks of Masang Gang, Gangchhenta, Tsenda Gang and Jichu Drake. For an even better view those with energy to spare can climb a further 200 metres above the saddle to a small summit. From the saddle our path descends. We take a detour from the main path ascending to visit the lakes, the Chage Tsho, Sertsho and Yu Tsho (Tsho = lake). This is a beautiful area containing many alpine lakes and tarns in numerous valleys, although the epithet of a 'Thousand Lakes' is more poetry than arithmetic. From the lakes, we follow the emerging stream downhill for a while to the main Labatama Valley where there are scattered yak herders' huts. In the springtime this is a flower-strewn meadow with fragrant wild asparagus filling the air. Our next camp is nearby the herder's huts at Watachen (4100m).

Day 11: Across the Pangalabtsa (4200m), trek through 'mushroom' country to Genekha and drive to Thimphu (2400m).

We now traverse around the head of the valley to the Pangalabtsa, a pass at 4250m adorned with a huge cairn and prayer flags. Here there is an excellent view over the entire Dagala range and most of the Bhutanese Eastern Himalayan peaks. From the pass we make a long gradual descent, crossing several side valleys and their streams, to reach a rocky outcrop where the vegetation changes from spruce and larch to tall blue pine. We now follow a broad trail down the ridge to the Yak pastures of Gur (3290m), from where we have a gradual descent through forests alive with birdsong to a superb viewpoint in the form of a huge rock platform. The villages of this region derive significant income from the harvesting of matsutake and chanterelle mushrooms that grow wild in the forests. In the season mushrooms from this valley are sold all over Bhutan. Below the viewpoint our descent becomes steeper as we follow a well-crafted ancient trail with steps down to the Dolongu Chu, which we cross on a rustic bridge. Following the stream downhill we reach the Geynitsang Chu and continue following this river north to a suspension bridge. On the other side a short climb brings us to the village of Genekha where our vehicle will be waiting to drive us the 40kms to our hotel in Thimphu. After checking in and taking a welcome hot shower we will go out to explore Bhutan's capital city.

Day 12: Fly to Kathmandu. Overnight Kathmandu.

We have an early transfer to Paro Airport for the morning flight to Kathmandu. The flight takes only 45 minutes and on arrival we transfer to our comfortable hotel. The remainder of the day is free to explore the city or for shopping in the bazaars. An evening meal is included at the hotel, for those that wish to dine together, or you are free to head out into Thamel independently to a restaurant of your choice.

Day 13: Departure day. Transfers to Kathmandu Airport are provided.

KE Land Only package services end after breakfast. Transfers to Kathmandu airport are provided. There are many interesting extensions that can easily be added to your holiday. Why not pre-book a simple full day-tour in the Kathmandu Valley, or a multi-day excursion to the wildlife reserve at Chitwan. Contact the KE office for more details.

Meal Plan

All meals are included in the holiday price from dinner on day 1 to breakfast on the final day of the Land Only itinerary.

Food & Water
The Bhutanese love chillies; red, green, raw, cooked and flavouring their condiments – fans of spicy food will be in their element in Bhutan! Don't panic if spicy food is not for you, all the hotels and restaurants in Thimpu and Paro offer a range of delicious dishes suitable for all tastes. Breakfasts whilst in hotels will consist of choice of cereal or muesli, eggs, toast, beans, sausage or bacon with tea, coffee and juices.

You can expect to be fed very well during the trekking section of your holiday. Our trekking chefs are old hands at managing camps and meals whilst in the mountains. A senior trek cook and camp manager must have a minimum of five years of training and experience to qualify for the post! Our cooks have undergone training both on Bhutanese and continental dishes and can expect to be served a wide variety of delicious food on trek. Breakfast and dinner will be taken at the camp sites, whilst lunches will generally be carried on ponies and served mid-way on the trekking route for the day. Tea and hot drinks will be provided throughout the day and you will also usually also get a wakeup call from the camp crew with a nice cup of hot Chai! Whilst on trek drinking water will be purified by boiling and will be provided regularly.

It is not recommended to drink untreated water from the taps. If you are on a trekking or cycling holiday, water is supplied to fill up your individual bottles. This will be boiled, filtered or provided in large jerry cans or 5 litre bottles. Additionally you should take purification tablets or a filter bottle (such as a Water-To-Go bottle) to treat your water when in towns or where water is not supplied. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

Accommodation

This holiday has 2 nights in Kathmandu, one en route to Bhutan and one on the return journey. In Kathmandu we use a comfortable, centrally located hotel. In Bhutan, we will also use comfortable and well located hotels in Paro, Thimphu and Punakha.

Whilst on trek there will be a total of 7 nights full service camping where you will enjoy a full-service from our friendly camp crew. You will sleep in hardy 2 man dome tents and inflatable Thermarest mattresses are provided.

All the camp equipment and luggage will be transported between camps by ponies or yaks, you need only carry your day pack. Our camp crew will erect and dismantle the tents for you, cook, and take care of all the camp chores.

During walking days, having stayed behind to collapse camp, it is usual for the crew and the pack animals to overtake the group during the day and you will usually arrive into camp to find it already established, with your personal bags already placed into your pre-assigned tents and the kettle on!

In camp, as well as the tents used for sleeping, there will also be a mess tent, with chairs and tables, where the group will dine (and socialise into the evening), a toilet tent and even a shower tent where a bucket of hot water can be provided for you to wash with. Hot water for washing will also be provided to you in the mornings and when you arrive at the camp each day. On cold nights we'll even provide hot water bags/bottles to keep you warm when it is time for you to retreat to your tents for the evening.

All accommodation is allocated on a twin sharing basis. If you are travelling by yourself you will be paired up with another single client of the same sex. Depending on availability it is normally possible to book single accommodation. It is also possible to book extra nights in Kathmandu if you plan to arrive early or depart later than the group trip dates (subject to availability).
Group Leader & Support Staff

A professional English-speaking local leader will accompany the group in Bhutan. During the trek the leader will be assisted by a support crew including camp assistants, cooks and baggage animals and their handlers.

Altitude

This holiday involves going to high altitude. During the course of your trip you will reach altitudes in excess of 3500 metres. This is not something that you should worry about; the human body is quite capable of adapting to a very wide range of altitudes, but it is important that we follow some simple rules in order to acclimatise successfully. Before coming on this holiday you should read the advice on trekking at high altitude. You can also talk to one of our trekking experts if you have any concerns about altitude.

Spending Money

Approximately £250 (or equivalent US dollars, Euros etc.) changed to local currency, should be allowed for miscellaneous expenses including approximately £50 - 70 for tips to local staff. We recommend that you carry your travel money in the form of cash, since you will exchange the majority of this on arrival. On arrival in Kathmandu you will only need a small amount of Nepalese rupees for drinks in the evening and we suggest that you change £10 or £20 at your hotel. When you arrive in Paro you will be able to change money at the airport into Bhutanese Ngultrum. Sterling, US Dollars and Euros are all equally acceptable for exchange in Nepal and in Bhutan. If you are intending to buy expensive souvenirs, you should budget accordingly (credit cards can be useful in this respect). Also, if you expect to buy considerable quantities of soft drinks or beer, you should make an allowance for this. You can withdraw cash from ATMs in Kathmandu. In Bhutan money can be easily exchanged but you cannot rely on withdrawing money from ATM's.

Guidance On Tipping

Tips are the accepted way of saying ‘thank you’ to your local staff. They do not form part of their wages. KE always pays local crews the best rates of pay, no matter what country they are in and any tips they receive are seen as a personal thank you from group members. For our part, we advise local teams that tips are not a duty or a prerequisite but are a bonus and entirely dependent on the service that was given. For your trek crews we recommend that you give a tip if you feel that their services have met your satisfaction. We recommend that you decide the level of tipping and present these from the group as a whole rather than individually. As a rough guide we suggest each group member contributes around £50 - 70 (in equivalent local currency) to a pool for tipping.

Free KE Gift

We would like to give you a free gift as a way to say thank you when you book your holiday. Choose from exclusive KE branded t-shirts, caps, neckwarmers, trek bags* and more. Alternatively you can choose to make a £10 donation to the Juniper Trust Charity. You can make your selection in your MyKE account after booking. You will need to select your free gift at least 6 weeks before you depart and all items will be posted out at 5 weeks prior to departure. For all late bookings, we will endeavour to send your FREE gift to you before you travel, however this cannot always be guaranteed. Please visit our Free KE Gifts page for more details of all our KE Branded goodies on offer.

* A trek bag is one of the free gift options available for this holiday. Delivery outside of the UK will be charged.

Baggage Allowance
For this holiday you should take one piece of luggage, which should be a soft bag such as the KE kit bag and a daypack. Your bag on trek will be carried by porters or pack animals and should not weigh more than 15kg. It is possible to leave extra baggage at the hotel in Kathmandu and also in Paro. For international flights please check your baggage allowance with your airline.

Group Size & Holiday Status

For each holiday there is a minimum number of participants required to enable it to go ahead. Once the minimum number is reached, the trip status will change from 'Available' to 'Guaranteed to run'. You can check the trip status for each departure in 'Dates and Prices' table. Other than in exceptional circumstances, we will not cancel a trip once it has achieved this guaranteed to run status and so you are free to proceed with your international flight booking and other travel arrangements.

Recommended Outdoor Retailers

Many of the Equipment items listed above are available from Cotswold Outdoor - our 'Official Recommended Outdoor Retailer'. When you book a holiday with KE you will receive 15% discount voucher from Cotswold Outdoor and other retailers.

General Information

Passport & Visas

A passport with 6 months remaining validity at the end of your stay is generally required for visits to countries outside the EU. The information that we provide is for UK passport holders. Please check the relevant embassy or consulate for other nationalities. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have the correct travel documents and visas for your holiday. Visa requirements and charges are subject to change without notice. If you are travelling outside the EU you should have at least 2 blank pages in your passport for each country that you visit.

Visa Bhutan

All nationalities require a visa. KE will apply for the visa for you. The visa fee is included in your holiday cost. We require copy of the information page of your passport in order to make the arrangements for your Bhutanese visa. A colour scan must be emailed or posted to us at the earliest opportunity.

Visa Nepal

All nationalities require a visa and this can be obtained on arrival at Kathmandu Airport. The visa process is automated and this includes having your photograph taken. The visa fee is $25 for 15 days, $40 for 30 days, $100 for 90 days. The visa is FREE for children under 10 years. The visa allows multiple re-entry. Payment must be made in cash and USD, GBP or Euros are accepted. Whilst these are not now needed for the visa process, we recommend that you travel with at least 2 spare passport photographs.

Health & Vaccinations

You should contact your doctor or travel clinic to check whether you require any specific vaccinations or other preventive measures. You should be up to date with routine courses and boosters as recommended in the UK e.g. diphtheria-tetanus-polio and measles-mumps-rubella, along with hepatitis A and typhoid. Malarial prophylaxis is not usually required for trips in the mountains, however if you are visiting rural and remote low lying areas then they might be necessary. On holidays to more remote areas you should also have a dentist check up. A good online resource is Travel Health Pro.

Dengue fever is a known risk in places visited. It is a tropical viral disease spread by daytime biting mosquitoes. There is currently no vaccine or prophylaxis available and therefore the best form of prevention is to avoid being bitten. We recommend you take precautions to avoid mosquito bites.

Currency

The unit of currency in Bhutan is the Bhutanese Ngultrum.
The unit of currency in Nepal is the Nepalese Rupee.

Electricity Supply & Plug

We recommend you check if you require an adaptor for your electrical items at:

http://www.worldstandards.eu/electricity/plugs-and-sockets/

Preparing For Your Holiday

It makes a lot of sense to spend some time before coming on an active holiday getting some additional exercise. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable you will find the experience. The walking on this holiday is not overly demanding and ascents are mostly gradual, but walking at altitude especially over 3000 metres makes its own demands on the body. You should be aerobically fit and also comfortable with walking up to 6 or 7 hours each day over several days. We would suggest that you adopt a weekly exercise regime. Regular walking in mountain or hill country is the best preparation but any regular exercise will be good for developing better stamina. Before departure, we suggest that you try to fit in a number of long walks in hilly country.

Climate

In general the climate of Bhutan is damper than one would expect to find in the Himalaya of India or Nepal. The monsoon usually arrives in June, and lasts until the end of September, bringing with it the heavy rainfall which is responsible for the lush vegetation which carpets much of Bhutan. The months either side of the monsoon offer the best conditions for a visit to Bhutan. Post-monsoon (October / November) generally brings the most stable weather with predominantly sunny days. It should be remembered however that this is the Himalaya and rainfall, snow and even short-lived storms can occur at any time of the year. At the time of year of this departure we can expect day-time highs of around 20°C at altitudes around 2000 metres.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign & Commonwealth Offices' Travel Aware campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that prior to travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates direct from the FCO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.
Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use. We have pledged to AITO's Project Protect that 70% of our agents stop using single use plastic bottles.
