Introduction

Wheel your way through Italy's heel and discover the charms of Puglia on this one-week self-guided cycling holiday. A region where rural roads take you pedalling through centuries-old olive groves to perfect hill-top villages and pristine beaches. As you ride along the country roads you will be captivated by the unique Puglian architecture with its curious mix of trulli houses in Alberobello, soon replaced with the romantic Renaissance and Baroque grandeur of Lecce. Following the coast and admiring the sparkling turquoise seas as you go, you will also have time to relax on the warm sands of the Salento beaches, and be awestruck at the dramatic cliffs, coves, and caves which line the Adriatic as you meander towards Otranto.

Staying in a selection of fantastic 3-star and 4-star hotels on a bed and breakfast basis, you will be able to pause and savour the flavours of Puglia along your way, whether that be snacking on Taralli crackers with a glass of beautiful locally-produced wine, feasting on tasty Orecchiette pasta, or sampling olive oils - from the olive groves that you have cycled past - with a lovely chunk of Pane di Altamura bread. The fresh flavours of Puglia will leave sweet memories long after you have departed, that's for sure. Plus, staying in a traditional trullo house in Alberobello will allow you the opportunity soak up the atmosphere at this UNESCO site without the crowds - an almost other-worldly experience.

Is this holiday for you?

This trip really is 'la dolce vita'. If you love combining your cycling with culture, magnificent architecture, and cooling off by the sea, then this is certainly the trip for you. Cycling around 50km with up to 500m of ascent a day on quiet country lanes and roads, your routes will allow you to discover the historic stronghold ports of Monopoli and Otranto, and the Southernmost point of Puglia where the Adriatic and Ionian Seas meet. You will delve into the captivating city of Lecce, as well as the curious town of Alberobello. You will stay in family-run 3-star and 4-star hotels on a bed and breakfast basis, along with a unique stay in a trullo house. Plus, with your bike hire included in the trip, you can really enjoy the freedom to explore at your own pace. This trip is suitable for groups of 2 or more travellers.

DAY 1

Arrive in sparkling Monopoli, explore its old town, and take a walk into history at the Il Bastione del Molino Ruins.

Your trip begins in the picturesque town of Monopoli where radiant buildings, castles, and medieval churches sit above the turquoise waters of the Adriatic Sea - the perfect welcome to the Puglia. After checking in, take a walk through the narrow streets and discover the picture-perfect old town where every doorway, shutter-dressed window, and whitewashed building is waiting to be captured on camera. Take your time over a coffee in one of the characterful cafes, then admire the views from the Castello di Carlo that stands proud above the harbour. Maybe you'll stretch your legs with a walk up Via Luigi Cadorna to visit Il Bastione del Molino Ruins - the remains of the fort that once protected the town from plundering pirates and the Spanish Armada. In the evening relax over an aperitivo, dine at one of the many restaurants offering warm hospitality and fresh local fare and, enjoy sipping one of the lovely local white wines as the sun goes down.

Ride through idyllic Puglian countryside to Castellana Grotte's spectacular caves and stay in a quirky trullo house in Alberobello.

Your first ride will take you on a gradual climb away from the vibrant blue of the Adriatic coast to the gently rolling valley of Itria. As you make your way past fragrant olive groves and pretty fields framed by low stone walls, you will have plenty of time to pause and take in this typical Murgia landscape. You will soon arrive in the town of Castellana Grotte, home to an immense underground system of karst caves (the biggest in Europe) - a real masterpiece of nature. If you want to experience the region from below the ground, it is possible to take a tour of the caves. Castellana Grotte also makes a great lunch stop before continuing on your way to the star of the day, Alberobello, the trulli capital of the world. You will have plenty of time to explore this magnificent UNESCO site with over 1,000 traditional trulli houses. These unique circular drystone dwellings are constructed from limestone and have conical roofs with a decorative keystone pinnacle said to ward off evil. A highlight of today is that you can stay on after the crowds and spend the evening here in Alberobello as you will be staying in a trulli house yourself tonight! You will get a real taste for how it must be to live in these curious buildings.

Cycle through verdant vineyards and olive groves, and explore the charming towns of Locorotondo, Cisternino, and Ostuni.

Waking up in your own little trullo you can enjoy a relaxing breakfast before hopping back on your bike and making your way through this lush region known for its excellent olives and DOC wines. Stop and enjoy the quaint villages along the way - and perhaps even sample some local produce. You will soon arrive in the charming town of Locorotondo, its name translating as 'the round place' on account of the perfectly round design of its old town. Regarded as one of the most beautiful towns in Italy, the old town perfectly caps-off the hill on which it sits. Meander along its tiny ancient streets, enjoy a coffee in the lively central piazza, and perhaps snack on the region's delicacy - Taralli. Ride around the old protective walls for fantastic views over the patchwork quilt of vineyards and meadows below before heading onwards to the equally enchanting town of Cisternino, famed for its fornello pronto. This great local tradition makes for a delicious lunch at what is a cross between a butcher's shop and a rustic restaurant. Simply select your meat from the butcher, grab a seat, and the butcher will bring it to you when it's ready. Your final goal today is Ostuni, perched on top of a hill flanked with olive groves and renowned for its gleaming white buildings. After checking in to your hotel you will have time to explore the town and admire magnificent views out over the countryside to the sea beyond before feasting on more fantastic local food in one of the many excellent restaurants.

Ride through tranquil Salento, 'the heel of Italy's boot', to the vibrant coastal town of Gallipoli.

You might want to pack your swimming costume in your pannier for today's ride, as there are several inviting swimming opportunities along your route! Your day begins by taking the train further down Italy's heel to Lecce, where you will have time to enjoy a morning coffee and purchase supplies to fuel you on your ride. Then you'll pedal out of town into the Salento region before arriving at the gorgeous Gulf of Taranto. With its clear turquoise waters juxtaposed with whitewashed houses, you would be forgiven for thinking you are on a Greek island. Cycling through tranquil countryside punctuated with large olive trees, fragrant coastal pine forests, and sand dunes, you will soon reach the medieval fishing town of Gallipoli - an explosion life after your rural ride. Gallipoli is a town of two halves, with the modern town occupying the mainland, while its historic centro storico sits on a small island connected to the mainland by a 17th-century bridge. This beautiful city has a vibrant past, having been frequently under siege thanks to its strategic position. It will therefore come as no surprise that it is heavily fortified, and its centre is filled with impressive Baroque churches as well as aristocratic palazzi paid for with the wealth from the town's former success as a key trading port. Take time to get lost in Gallipoli's narrow streets, stroll along its promenade, and enjoy dinner in one of its many pavement restaurants as the sun sets on another great day of cycling.

Ride to the southernmost point of Puglia and stand on the edge of the divide between the Ionian and Adriatic Seas.

Waking to the salt air of the Ionian Sea you can enjoy another relaxed breakfast, and perhaps explore Gallipoli further, before riding along the coast to the southernmost point of Puglia which divides the Ionian and Adriatic Seas. Stop off at Punta Pizzo Beach for a cooling dip in the sea along your way, before arriving at the medieval Torre del Pizzo watch tower. Originally used for sighting and defending, it is one of 171 watch towers that once kept guard along the coast of Salento. Cycling on, you will soon arrive at Santa Maria di Leuca, once thought by the Romans to be the end of the earth. Whilst it may not be the end of the earth, it is the divider of the Ionian and Adriatic Seas, and provides beautiful undisturbed vistas over the azure waters. Legend has it that it is here that St Peter first landed on Italian soil and began to Christianise the land, beginning with the temple at the tip of the promontory. Today, flocks of faithful pilgrims visit the Basilica here, that is inscribed with the words 'portal to paradise'. As you watch the sun set on another great day cycling, it is easy to believe this!

Cycle high along the clifftops, blessed by sea breezes, to discover Grotta Zinzulusa and Otranto.

Feel the refreshing soft sea breeze as you ride along the high coastal route, winding your way along the gentle, undulating rift of the cliffs towards Otranto. The phenomenal views might make you feel as though you are in a National Geographic cycling feature! You will notice how the coastline differs here: gone are the long sandy beaches of the Ionian coast you experienced yesterday; instead, today's coastline is jagged, cliffy, and peppered with the dramatic grottoes of the Adriatic coast. There are plenty of opportunities to stop along the way, to explore little towns and villages and enjoy a morning coffee, before arriving in Castro - a perfect place to stop for lunch. You might decide to go and see the spectacular karst cave of Grotta Zinzulusa here too, renowned for its crystal-clear waters and the extraordinary landscapes that surround it. Its name is derived from the Italian word for 'rags', as the myriad stalactites resemble rags hanging from the cave's ceiling. Entering this natural cathedral along a walkway beside the beautiful blue water, you might feel like you are on another planet as you gaze in awe at the stalactites and stalagmites. Alternatively, there is a lovely open-air swimming pool along from the cave, where you can enjoy a relaxing swim before you ride onwards to Otranto. Arriving in Otranto you will have time to be enchanted by its compact old quarter, and visit the cathedral where you can see bones displayed like macabre works of art in glass cabinets behind the altar - the bones of 813 Christian martyrs who were infamously slaughtered by the Turks in 1480. If you prefer to see something less morbid yet equally stunning here, take a look at the cathedral's floor, which is adorned by a magnificent medieval mosaic with the tree of life at its centre. In the evening venture to one of the local restaurants to enjoy more of the region's wonderful specialities.

Discover the Alimini Lakes as you cycle to Lecce.

Your final ride of the week takes you north of Otranto, first to the beautiful Alimini Lakes, then on to Lecce, a city full of palaces and treasures. The Alimini Lakes run parallel to the sea, sitting in a protected nature reserve of over 1,000 hectares. These two beautiful lakes are quite different in character yet both form an important habitat for birds. Alimini Grande is fed mainly by sea water and is encircled by thick pine forest and typical plants typical of the Mediterranean. With its mix of sea water and freshwater, the bottom of the lake is home to both shellfish and freshwater plant species. However, Alimini Piccolo is fed only by freshwater and is smaller and shallower as it has not been affected by the erosive action of the tides. After an immersive nature experience here perhaps you'll stop nearby to relax on one of the fine sandy beaches or take a dip in the sea's crystal blue waters before pedalling on to Lecce. With Baroque architecture so distinctive that it has been given its own name, Barocco Leccese, it is a riot of cherubs and gargoyles. This is a city to experience and be captivated by as you soak in its character, so be sure to make time to lose yourself in its narrow streets where hidden piazzas and extravagant churches are suddenly unveiled. In the evening, delight once again in local cuisine and raise a glass to a great week of cycling in Puglia.

Self-Guided Families

Our Self-Guided Holidays are perfect for your next family holiday and are suitable for children of all ages.

Our partner hotels and accommodations are able to provide cots for young children, and some offer family rooms. We can also arrange hire of children's bikes and tag along bikes for most of our self-guided cycling trips and with trips such as Lake Constance and the Danube offering routes on designated cycle paths you can rest assured in keeping your family safe.

As a parent we trust that you know your own child's capabilities, so please read the itinerary details to ensure the distances covered each day are suitable for your family. If this is a first time walking or cycling holiday for your family, a centre-based trip is a fantastic option as it allows you to easily opt out of a day's walking if a day of building sand castles, swimming in the pool, or visiting museums is calling instead.

Please discuss this further with our Sales Team who will be happy to assist in picking the best trip for your family.

Meal Plan

This trip is on a bed and breakfast basis to allow you the most flexibility during your holiday.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

Italy has long been a foodie's dream, and Puglia in particular is a real treat for the taste buds. With its vast coastline there are endless supplies of delicious fresh seafood to be savoured, and the region's famous Pane de Altamura bread is simply perfect for mopping up any dish. Yet one of the highlights is the vast amount of vegetarian dishes on offer here. This southern region has traditionally been a poor one built on agriculture, and this shows in the simple yet fantastic hearty cuisine where vegetables and pasta are the star ingredients. You can look forward to snacking on Taralli, small cracker rings made from crispy bread dough served with dipping oil and perfect with a glass of excellent local wine, or to picnicking on Apulian Focaccia, or on Panzerotti - a savoury parcel of dough, rather like a small calzone, stuffed with mozzarella or Pugliese cheese, tomato, and basil. Why not feast on the region's famous Orecchiette pasta (so-called as their shape looks rather like a little ear) served with broccoli, or on Parmigiana di Melanzane or Parmigiana di Carciofi (aubergine or artichoke sliced thinly, floured and fried, and layered with tomato sauce and cheese before being baked). Those with a sweet tooth might enjoy the immensely moreish Pasticciotti - mainly found around Lecce - these little crumbly-pastry puffs filled with creamy lemon custard and Amarena cherries are traditionally served with a cappuccino at breakfast time, however they make a scrumptious snack at any time of the day. Yum!

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Accommodation

On this trip we have selected a range of fantastic family-run 3-star and 4-star hotels, and we have even included a night in a traditional trullo house so that you can really experience Puglian life throughout the ages. All the hotels have been chosen for their warm hospitality and lovely facilities. All offer a great buffet breakfast for you to enjoy and to fuel you for your daily adventures, and some also have a pool or terrace - perfect for relaxing after a day in the saddle.

It is possible to arrange additional nights' accommodation in Monopoli before your trip or in Lecce at the end of your trip, if you would like to explore this fascinating area a little more. Please speak to one of our Sales Team for more details.

Bike Hire

Reflective vests are mandatory in Italy as soon as cyclists leave a village/town and cycle during night-time hours (half an hour before sunset until half an hour before sunrise). They are also mandatory when cycling in tunnels with traffic. Please pack a reflective vest or jacket.

Standard hybrid bikes come with 24 gears, and all bikes come equipped with a pannier for your daily essentials, plus a milometer, bike lock, pump, repair kit, and spare inner tube.

Our Sales Team will discuss the bike size with you during the booking process so that the correct bike size can be reserved for you before you travel.

We strongly recommend that you bring your own helmet with you for the best comfort, however you can order a helmet in advance to collect before you begin cycling for an additional €14. Please contact our Sales Team to reserve this in advance of travel.

We also recommend packing a gel seat for extra comfort, or a pair of padded cycling shorts, as it is always nice to have some padding for a more comfortable ride.

Upgrade to an E-bike

If you are looking for a bit of extra support whilst in the saddle, you can upgrade to an e-bike to make your ride even more leisurely.

Equipped with a battery and motor, these electric bikes give you a helping hand whilst you are pedalling, making it easier to climb hills, and travel further with less effort and more comfort.

E-bikes are available on this holiday at an additional supplement of £275. Please request this upgrade option from our Sales Team at the time of booking.

Baggage Allowance

Your main luggage will be transferred between each of your hotels while you are out on your ride. We ask that you please ensure that each piece of your luggage is under 20kg and that your luggage is ready for collection each morning. You will also need a daypack to carry your daily essentials with you whilst you are riding.

Vaccinations

You should contact your doctor or travel clinic to check whether you require any specific vaccinations.

GHIC / Medical cover

UK residents should carry a free Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC). This entitles you to state provided medical treatment when you're visiting an EU country or Switzerland. This is not a substitute for medical travel insurance which is vital when travelling overseas.

Severe Allergies

Please inform our KE Sales and Support team of any severe allergies you may have before travel. We will always do our best to help but we are unable to guarantee an allergy free environment on our KE trips. We advise that you always carry your own treatment for the allergy with you such as 'adrenaline auto-injectors' if required. We also recommend that you discuss this with your accommodation on arrival so that they can better assist you.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided cycling holiday is that you decide the pace. Having said this it is always sensible to get some additional exercise before going on an active holiday. After all, the fitter you are the more enjoyable your cycling will be. You should be comfortable with cycling 40 to 50km and up to 500m ascent a day on quiet country lanes and roads. We advise you to dust off your bike and head out on a few rides before your holiday to help make your holiday more enjoyable. We also offer e-bike upgrades for those seeking to make the journey more leisurely.

Climate

Puglia has a Mediterranean climate with hot summers when temperatures can reach up to 30 degrees Centigrade, and mild winters. The most enjoyable times to visit the region can be spring and autumn when temperatures are a little cooler, typically between 10 and 25 degrees Centigrade.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.
