Introduction

Just inland from Venice at the northern end of the Adriatic Sea, the Italian region of Veneto, between the Piave and Sile rivers, is the perfect place for a self-guided cycle tour. This charming corner of Italy is famous for wine growing and for its wealth of historical and architectural heritage. Prosecco is one of the most important wines produced here and as recently as 2019 the picturesque 'Prosecco Hills' in the vicinity of the small towns of Valdobbiadene and Conegliano were granted UNESCO World Heritage status in recognition of the importance of this sparkling and popular drink. From your comfortable hotel in Ponzano, you will explore the 'heart of the Veneto' during five days of leisurely cycling. You will be able to enjoy wonderful views of a verdant and vineyard-clad region surprisingly little-frequented by tourists and marvel at the architectural highlights of Treviso, Castelfranco Veneto and other towns. These highlights include the creations of the Renaissance architect Andrea Palladio (such as the handsome Villa Emo) which have a separate UNESCO World Heritage listing. Taking each day's ride at your own pace and cycling on quiet farm roads, cycle paths and riverside tracks, there will be lots of time to explore, to stop for a cappuccino and to take in the sights,

Staying at the 4-star Relais Monaco Country Hotel and Spa you will be sure to have everything you need to relax after a day exploring on your bike, including a pool, a terrace perfect for relaxing with a good book and a glass of the local produce and a great restaurant to sample the local specialities too.

Is this holiday for you?

A leisurely tour of Veneto with mainly flat stages, there's a total of up to 245 kilometres cycled in 5 days. Only the stage through the Prosecco Hills (Day 5) has a couple of short climbs of between approximately 1 and 2 kilometers in length. Most of the cycling is on quiet side-roads with little traffic and there are also stretches of unsurfaced farm roads and cycle paths. On the approaches to Treviso and at a couple of locations when crossing bridges, you can expect to encounter more traffic. With very comfortable centre-based 4-star accommodation, you will have everything you need to relax on the completion of each day's activities. E-bikes are available at supplementary cost and will make this quite leisurely holiday even more of a breeze.

Itinerary

DAY 1

Arrive at your hotel in Ponzano Veneto and relax.

Check in at your hotel in Ponzano Veneto just a few kilometres north of Treviso. The hotel staff will provide you with your travel documents and your rental bikes. Depending on your time of arrival you can choose to do some local exploring or simply take advantage of the hotel's facilities. There are extensive gardens and a welcoming spa.

DAY 2

Discover the splendour of Treviso, the regional capital of Treviso Province.

Today's journey of discovery is a short one. So there's no rush and we recommend you enjoy a leisurely breakfast and set a mid-morning departure from the hotel to allow what little morning traffic there is to subside. Your route today will take you on a loop through the beautiful provincial capital of Treviso, a city still relatively unknown among tourists. Your route notes will guide you alongside the city's fortified walls, before entering the city itself. Known as the 'Citta delle Aque' (city of water) on account of its numerous canals, Treviso has a number of impressive piazzas where you can stop for a coffee and a lunchtime snack. There is also a wealth of important historical buildings, including the Romanesque Loggia dei Cavalieri, the Duomo di Treviso (the cathedral complex with 7 domes) and the Gothic 13th century Palazzo dei Trecento. Leaving the city and returning to the countryside on the way back to the hotel you'll pass a number of impressive patrician villas which date back to the 17th century.

DAY 3

Rural cycling to the Piave River and then on the 'Wine Route' back to the hotel.

Your day's ride starts out towards Treviso (as yesterday) for the first 5 kilometres before heading east though a patchwork of agricultural land, small villages and isolated villas. You'll cross the Piave River at the small town of Ponte di Piave, a good place for a coffee stop to watch the world go by. Here you'll turn north to follow the 'Strada del Vino del Piave' (Piave Wine route) and for the next 15 kilometres you'll be cycling through vineyards dedicated to the production of Pinot Grigio. There will be opportunities to sample the local produce. At Cimadolmo, with its impressive church and tall, free-standing belltower, you'll turn to cross the Piave River again and make your way back to your hotel in Ponzano along peaceful lanes and lush green landscapes.

DAY 4

Explore westwards from Ponzano to the beautiful medieval town of Castelfranco Veneto.

The focus of today's ride is the charming small town of Castelfranco Veneto which sits at the intersection of trade routes dating back to Roman times between Vicenza, Padua and Asolo. The town was founded much later, in medieval times (around the year 1200AD), when the imposing fortress and town walls that still stand today were built. You'll enjoy a 30 kilometre ride out to Castelfranco through the pretty Veneto countryside. Arriving in the town you will find a lovely central square, the Piazza Giorgione, with elegant shops and a choice of cafes for a relaxing lunch. We recommend taking time for a tour around the city walls and for a visit to the Duomo, the Civic Tower and the Academic Theatre. When you have finished exploring Castelfranco you will return to your hotel along an alternative route. Along the way we've arranged for you to visit the country estate Villa Emo, one of the masterpieces of the famous medieval architect Andrea Palladio (entrance fee included).

DAY 5

Cycle from Valdobbiadene through the beautiful UNESCO-listed 'Prosecco Hills'.

After breakfast at the hotel you'll be picked up and taken to the small town of Valdobbiadene, the capital of the Prosecco region. The transfer takes just 45 minutes. Valdobbiadene has a small and welcoming piazza and many coffee bars - you should try a cappuccino here before setting off on today's ride. Your route starts out with a short climb and the reward for this is a simply gorgeous view across an apparently never-ending sea of grapevines. As you cycle along your way you'll pass through several wine villages where the world-famous sparkling Prosecco Superiore wines are produced. There's another short climb

(and a 12th century fort) at the pretty village of Collato, before a long, level ride, crossing the Piave River at Ponte della Priula and back to your hotel. On your return to the hotel we have included a short Prosecco-tasting session on the sun terrace.

DAY 6

Cycle to Treviso and explore the Nature Park of the Sile River.

Today you'll cycle once again to nearby Treviso and have the chance to do some more sightseeing in this picturesque and historic city. Then, heading west, at one point on a former railway track which has been converted to a cycle path, you will find yourself at the heart of the Nature Park of the Sile River. The Sile is the longest spring-fed river in northern Italy and here it flows through a rich patchwork of lakes, marshes and woodland. In this verdant reserve area, you will be able to see many species of aquatic birds, as well as windmills, farms, aristocratic villas, churches and belltowers. Looping around to the north via the twin villages of Casacorba and Cava Sagra, you'll return to spend a final night at your hotel and toast to a great week in Veneto.

DAY 7

Departure Day.

Enjoy a relaxed breakfast and perhaps a final stroll around the grounds or another visit to Treviso before making your onward journey.

VENICE CITY BREAK

Why not extend your trip with a city break in Venice? Explore the maze of narrow streets and canals, take a gondola down the Grand Canal under the Ponte de Rialto, relax with a glass of Prosecco in Saint Mark's Square or get off the main tourist track and enjoy cicchetti (small snacks similar to tapas) in a bacari bar; a delicacy unique to Venice!

Our sales team will be happy to assist you in booking accommodation in Mestre (mainland Venice) before or after your trip so you can enjoy your Italian experience a little longer.

Food & Water

Water is drinkable from the taps on this holiday. Please fill your personal bottles for your day in the morning. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

In Italy food is a way of life; it brings families together, gives friends a reason to sit down and laugh and showcases local produce. The Veneto region is no different with many local dishes to sample. Rice and pollenta (as well as pasta) are popular staples in Veneto and the local red form of chicory known as 'radicchio rosso' as well as the hard cheese Gran Padano feature prominently. Lamb and chicken and a distinctive local salami, as well as seafood and fish from the nearby Adriatic are also commonly used. The popular dessert, tiramisu, originated in Treviso as recently as 1970 and can be found on many Veneto a la carte menus. This trip has been designed on a bed & breakfast basis to allow you to dine out and sample these delicacies and many more.

Accommodation

We have chosen to use the excellent Relais Monaco Country Hotel and Spa as your base for this holiday. Located in Ponzano Veneto, in the quiet of the countryside just a handful of kilometres north of Treviso, the hotel offers a warm and welcoming atmosphere, combined with a high standard of service. With well-tended grounds, a swimming pool and spa, it is the perfect place to relax after your days on the bike. The Relais Monaco offer a great breakfast buffet to fuel you for the day ahead and the hotel's La Vigna restaurant serves region specialities and wines. It is possible to arrange additional nights accommodation if you would like to extend your time in Veneto. Please speak to our sales team for more information.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided cycling holiday is that you decide the pace. This trip is designed for leisure cyclists and does not require you to be in peak fitness. Having said this it is always sensible to get some additional exercise before going on an active holiday. After all, the fitter you are the more enjoyable your cycling will be. You should be comfortable with cycling an average of 50 km a day mostly on quiet roads and we advise you to dust off your bike and head out on a few rides before your holiday.

Climate

Northern Italy has a mid-European climate with cold winters and warm summers. Average daily temperatures in the lowland part of Veneto close to Venice range from around 18 degrees centigrade in April and October to 27 degrees centigrade in July. Throughout our season from April to the first week of October this is a predominantly sunny region with just a little rain each month.
