Introduction

If you have a sense of adventure and a thirst for new experiences, this tour of the north-east states of Assam and Nagaland will not disappoint. Wildlife, natural beauty, historic towns and a wild and wonderful variety of colourful tribal people await you on this unique journey of discovery that begins with a 2-night visit to the Kaziranga National Park in Assam. We then cross the Brahmaputra to visit Majuli, one of the largest river-islands on Earth, home to tribal people and a number of 16th Century Vaishnavite (Hindu) monasteries rich in Assamese history. Then, from Jorhat, we'll visit the Hollongapar Gibbon Sanctuary and the city of Sivasagar with its unusual and spectacular collection of 18th Century Ahom Dynasty temples. We devote the remainder of the holiday to Nagaland, a wild upland state on the border with Myanmar to the east. Our visit coincides with the annual Hornbill Festival which has its focus at Kisama Village where we can meet the various fierce and proud Naga tribes and hear some fascinating stories of their headhunting days! The Hornbill Festival is Nagaland's premier cultural event and brings together the region's tribes in a celebration of their indigenous heritage through colourful dances, traditional music, crafts, local cuisine, and sports. This holiday provides a rare insight into one of India's most fascinating and least explored regions.

Is this holiday for you?

This touring and sightseeing adventure holiday to India's north-eastern states of Assam and Nagaland begins with a short internal flight to the airport at Guwahati. From here, there's necessarily a fair amount of travelling as we pick out the highlights of this fascinating and little-visited region. The roads are rough in places and we will be glad of our comfortable air-conditioned transport. There are two crossings of the Brahmaputra River on local ferries and two game drives at Kaziranga in open jeeps or 'canters'. The holiday also includes some quite leisurely exploration of city streets, cultural sites and wildlife reserves on foot.

Meal Plan

All meals are provided from breakfast on Day 2 to lunch on Day 15.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Food & Water

It is not recommended to drink untreated water from the taps. You should take purification tablets or a filter bottle (such as a Water-To-Go bottle) to treat your water. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

Part of the experience of a visit to India is sampling the excellent local food. Indian cuisine offers a wide choice of dishes, much more variety than the 'curries' we are used to in Indian restaurants at home and the naan breads are like nothing you'll have experienced. Whether the food is presented as a dinner buffet or as a set menu, there will always be vegetarian options. Breakfasts and dinners are provided at our overnight accommodation. Breakfasts include cereals, bread, possibly in the form of local 'rotis', eggs, hard-boiled or omelette, often one or two delicious, spicy Indian breakfast options, fruit, juice, hot water for tea or coffee. Lunches will usually be at a local restaurant where you can choose what you want - the guide will help with this. Dinners will usually take the form of a buffet with both international and local food choices. The cuisine of both Assam and Nagaland is distinct for its minimal use of spices and oil, relying instead on fresh herbs, foraged ingredients like fermented bamboo shoots, organic greens, soy and fiery chilis. Staples include sticky rice, with river fish or smoked or boiled meats, sometimes paired with digestive broths called Khar, as well as sour curries known as Maasor Tenga.

Accommodation

We will have 14 nights accommodation in a mix of tidy tourist-class hotels (generally 3-star) and some simpler guesthouses and rural resort hotels and 1 night on Majuli Island in homestay bungalow accommodation. All accommodation is allocated on a twin-sharing basis. If you are travelling by yourself, you will be paired up with another single client of the same sex. Depending upon availability it may be possible to arrange single rooms for the hotel nights. For hotel prices and single supplement costs please refer to the dates and prices page of the trip on our website.

Group Leader & Support Staff

The group will be accompanied by a professional English-speaking leader who will meet the group on arrival at Guwahati Airport on Day 2 and leave the group at the Dibrugarh Airport for the flight back to Kolkata on Day 14. Additionally, there will be naturalist guides with the group at Kaziranga and Hollongapar. A cultural guide will assist the group during the time at Mon on Day 12. Representatives of our local partner will assist the group during the transits through Kolkata at the beginning and end of the holiday. Private, air-conditioned vehicles and drivers will be used for all road transfers.

Spending Money

Approximately £300 (or the equivalent in US dollars or euros) should be allowed for miscellaneous expenses including tips for your guides, snacks, bar bills, soft drinks, etc. There will be some opportunities to buy souvenirs on this trip. It is not necessary to purchase local currency (Indian Rupees) before you travel. Sterling and US dollars are readily exchanged in Kolkata and in Guwahati and in Jorhat. Since you will be changing the majority of your spending money into local currency during the first couple of days, one option is to travel with currency. Credit cards can be used to purchase many goods in the cities and are particularly useful for more expensive souvenirs. It is possible to withdraw cash (rupees only) from ATM's in certain banks in the cities using credit and debit cards.

Guidance on Tipping

Tipping is an accepted and expected part of Indian culture, although you should only tip for services which are well done. We recommend that tips to your guides and driver be made from the group as a whole and that the group decides together on an appropriate amount. Your guide will help with sundry tipping; bell boys, other hotel staff, toilet attendants, lunchtime restaurant staff and game reserve guides and festival staff. This means you don't need to concern yourself with who to tip and who not to tip. Your guide will set up a tip 'kitty' for this and you will probably be asked to contribute 4000 rupees (£40) each for this at the start of the trip. Separately from this, you will need to tip the driver who will be with you for much of the trip. And you will need to tip your guide. As a rough guide we suggest that £100 per person (depending on group size) will allow you to pay reasonable tips.

Baggage Allowance

You should restrict your luggage to one main travel bag plus a small daypack to carry cameras, binoculars, water etc. A robust holdall or a piece of luggage fitted with wheels is appropriate for this kind of trip. The weight restriction on the internal flights is 15kg for check-in luggage and 7kg for hand luggage.

Group Size & Holiday Status

For each holiday there is a minimum number of participants required to enable it to go ahead. Once the minimum number is reached, the trip status will change from 'Available' to 'Guaranteed to run'. You can check the trip status for each departure in the 'Dates and Prices' table. Other than in exceptional circumstances, we will not cancel a trip once it has achieved this guaranteed to run status so you are free to proceed with your international flight booking and other travel arrangements.
