Introduction

North of the regional capital and former Silk Road trading post of Gilgit, the famously scenic Hunza Valley provides access to some of the highlights of Northern Pakistan's Karakoram Mountains. Here, the intrepid traveller will discover historic towns and isolated villages, welcoming people, ancient forts and wealth of breath-taking scenery including some of the world's biggest glaciers and mightiest snow-capped peaks. This fantastic new adventure holiday allows you to experience all of this without having to undertake a particularly long or sustained expedition-style trek.

Driving to Hunza across the Babusar Pass (4173m), we have a 2-night stay in Karimabad which gives us the chance to visit the spectacular 'Eagle's Nest' viewpoint at sunrise, where the best of the Hunza Valley is laid out before us and dominated by the great bulk of Rakaposhi (7788m). Whilst in Karimabad, we also explore the ancient and historic Baltit and Altit forts, each of them UNESCO-listed. Then, a short transfer takes us to the charming village of Hopar in the Nagar Valley, the starting place for our week-long trek to the rarely-visited Rush Lake (4694m). Perched on a high ridge between the Hispar Valley and the Barpu Glacier, this stunning little pool is one of the highest alpine lakes in the world. From a viewpoint above the lake, the sensational panorama includes every one of the Hunza peaks, the Hispar La, Snow Lake and the giants of the Central Karakoram including K2 (8611m), Broad Peak and the Gasherbrums. For an unforgettable taste Northern Pakistan's mountains and warm hospitality, without the challenges of a lengthy and committing expedition-style trek, come and join the Karakoram Experience.

Is this holiday for you?

Driving to Hunza across the Babusar Pass, we begin our acclimatisation with a night en-route at 2400 metres in Naran. We then have 3 nights in the Hunza Valley before setting off on the 7 days of the Rush Lake Trek. The daily distances are short on this trek, but the height gain is not inconsiderable, reaching a high camp at 4695m. We have 2 rest and acclimatisation days during the 5-day ascent to Rush Lake. This is not intended to be a long or continuous trek and should fall within the compass of regular weekend hillwalker. The classic outing involves cross the Bualtar and Barpu glaciers (twice each), mostly on unconsolidated moraine material but also on exposed glacier ice. We are able to keep clear of crevassed areas and these crossings are actually relatively straightforward. No specialist skills nor equipment are needed for this trek but a sense of adventure and a willingness to adapt to the needs of self-supporting group travel will stand you in good stead.

DAY 1

Meet at the group hotel in Islamabad. Transfers are provided from Islamabad Airport.

Your holiday starts at the hotel in Islamabad. Transfers from Islamabad Airport are provided. The majority of international flights arrive in the early morning and you may want to rest before lunch. The first group get-together will be at lunch, during which the tour leader will provide a pre-trip briefing. If there is the opportunity to include a sightseeing tour today, either in the modern city of Islamabad or in nearby Rawalpindi, a city from the days of the British Raj, it will be optional and there will be a charge payable locally.

Drive to Naran (2409m).

Flights to and from Gilgit are too prone to cancellation and partly on account of this we propose to drive to the start of our adventure in the Hunza Valley. Setting off after breakfast, we drive northwards via Abbottabad to Mansehra. Here, we turn away from the Karakoram Highway and head up towards the Babusar Pass through the picturesque forest and meadow landscape of the Kaghan Valley. We stop for lunch en-route and reach our hotel in Naran (2409m) in the late afternoon. Overnighing here provides a useful kick start to our acclimatisation.

DAY 3

Drive via the Babusar Pass (4173m) to Karimabad (2500m).

Heading up the valley, the scenery becomes increasingly dramatic, culminating in a series of hairpin bends which lead to the pass. The monument at the top provides a great photo opportunity and there are view of snow-capped peaks including, if it is clear, Rakaposhi (7788m) which we will be much closer to at the end of the day. Dropping down to the River Indus near Chilas, our journey continues, with views of the mighty Nanga Parbat (8126m), into the Hunza Valley. We pass Gilgit and reach our hotel in Karimabad in time for dinner.

DAY 4

Sunrise at the Eagle's Nest viewpoint, visit the UNESCO-listed Baltit and Altit forts.

We will have a pre-dawn start this morning and transfer on a switch-back road, climbing through poplar forest to the renowned Eagle's Nest viewpoint (3000m). Here, we will have an amazing 360 degree panorama across the Hunza Valley. Our guide will identify the big peaks: Ultar, Diran and Rakaposhi, to name only the most prominent. After taking in the vista and the spectacle of Rakaposhi turning gold with the rising sun, we will drive back to Karrimabad for breakfast. Formerly known as Baltit, Karimabad has a couple of ancient and well-preserved historical forts on the outskirts of the town. After breakfast, we will take a stroll through the streets with our guide up to the impressive Baltit Fort which has been updated several times in its more than 700 years of history. The present-day fort, extensively rebuilt at the end of the 19th century (having been dismantled by the British Raj), is rather Tibetan in style with a whitewashed façade, wooden pillars and intricately carved wooden windows and balconies. After lunch we will have a scenic walk of round 45 minutes to an hour, mostly downhill to visit Altit Fort. This fort was built around 1100 years old and is the oldest monument in Gilgit-Baltistan. It was the original home of the Mir of Hunza before he moved his court to the slightly newer Baltit Fort. Altit Fort is characterised by small rooms and low portals with exquisite wood carvings. We will meet our vehicle at Altit for the 30 minute transfer back to Karimabad where we spend a second night.

DAY 5

Drive to Hopar (2750m) and free afternoon at this village in the Nagar Valley.

We start the day with the short drive back down to the Karakoram Highway where we follow the Hunza River downstream for around 30 minutes to Murtaza Abad. Here, we turn off the highway onto a mostly unpaved road and follow the Hunza River upstream, now on its opposite bank. After 20 minutes we reach the confluence of the Hunza and Nagar rivers and follow the latter for a further hour to the collection of small hamlets known as Hopar (2750m). The various hamlets are each set amongst a pretty patchwork of fields and overlooked by distant snow-capped mountains. We will reach the Hopar Inn, overlooking the moraine of the Bualtar Glacier, in time for lunch. The afternoon is free to do some exploring and to meet the people of this welcoming village. Views up the valley, including the overlook of the Bualtar Glacier, which we will cross tomorrow at the start of our trek up to Rush Lake, are impressive.

DAY 6

Trek from Hopar across the Bualtar and Barpu glaciers to Barpu Giram (3250m).

The first leg of our trek takes us across the Bualtar Glacier, which is one of the fastest moving glaciers in the world (at a rate of 20cm a day!). After leaving the village of Hopar, we soon drop down onto the glacier via a steep zig-zag path. A cairned trail leads across the glacier surface, strewn with moraine and boulders with occasional sections of exposed ice. Just how straightforward this crossing is varies considerably as is to be expected with one of the world's fastest moving glaciers. Microspikes (see Equipment List) may be very useful here and you should carry them with you on this day. It will take anything from 60 to 90 minutes to make the crossing and we then climb across a spur between the Bualtar and Barpu glaciers. Dropping down onto the Barpu we now cross this next glacier, more easily than the former, over moraine rubble and ice for a further hour to finally reach the ablation valley beyond. An easy further hour of walking along this natural feature takes us to our wild campsite amongst sparse woods at a place known as Barpu Giram (3250m).

DAY 7

An acclimatisation day at Barpu Giram.

We are now above 3000 metres and it is sensible to spend another night at this altitude before ascending to our next campsite. The location of our campsite is stunning and we can choose to take a walk further up the valley and to climb the moraine for views of the glacier. This will greatly aid our acclimatisation for the next stage of the trek.

DAY 8

Trek up to Childin Hara (4333m) on the ridge leading to Rush Lake.

Our route up towards Rush Lake now heads away from the glacier, climbing steeply on a scant trail up to the long ridge that separates the Barpu Glacier from the lower Hispar Valley. After 3 hours of continuous steep climbing, we reach a slightly more level section of ridge where we take our lunch. From here it's a further 2 hours of ascent to our camping place at Childin Hara (4333m). There are excellent views out over a wild and glaciated landscape and over the distant Hunza Valley which is dominated by the peak of Ultar.

DAY 9

A rest and acclimatisation day at Childin Hara (4333m)

We will spend day based at our camp, exploring the mountainside with some gentle walks and enjoying the superlative views that extend down to the village Hopar and the valleys of Hunza and Hispar. Spending a second night here is important for our programme of acclimatisation before heading further up to the objective of our trek: Rush Lake.

DAY 10

Trek up to Rush Lake (4694m). Afternoon excursion to Rush Phari Peak (5098m).

The ground steepens as soon as we leave camp, the track climbing through a boulder field for half an hour or so to reach a more level ridge-top trail. We gain height steadily and after around an hour of walking we reach Rush Lake (4694m) and set up camp. The lake is unusual in its ridge-top location and attracts a number of migrating bird species. We may also spot one or two yaks or dzos (yak-cow crossbreeds) grazing on the lakeside pasture. This is a lovely and rarely-visited Karakoram gem and we have the afternoon free to enjoy the far-reaching breath-taking views, notably across to Malubiting (7458m) and down into the Hispar Valley almost 2000 metres below. After lunch, there is the option to hike further up the ridge to the viewpoint known as Rush Phari Peak (5098m) which includes a steep and quite rocky final approach. From the summit, there is an incredible 360-degree mountain panorama. All the high peaks of Hunza can be seen; from Ultar to Diran and Rakaposhi, while to the south, the 'Golden Pillar' of Spantik (7027m) catches the eye. On a clear day, we will be rewarded with views towards the Baltoro giants of K2 (8611m) and Broad Peak (8047m). This optional and extremely rewarding afternoon hike will add 3 to 4 hours to the day's trek.

DAY 11

Descend directly to the Barpu Glacier and cross it to Hamdar (3400m).

We have an early start and after breakfast at our lakeside camp, we drop down directly southwards to the Sumaiyar Bar Glacier. It is 1100 metres of descent to the grazing ground, known as Phahi Phari, and this takes around 3 hours, depending on our fitness. From here, we follow a trail beside the glacier for an hour or so until we are beyond its confluence with the Barpu Glacier. We then drop down onto the ice to make the glacier crossing which can take up to 2 hours. Here, we are well above the crossing point that we used at the beginning of our trek and we encounter different conditions. The central part of the glacier is easy going on level white ice, which is not at all slippery on account of the gravel that is melted into its surface. The edges of the glacier, in contrast, are more broken up and we have to take care to find the best route. Microspikes may be useful here. Reaching the west side of the glacier, we continue along the ablation valley between the main hillside and the lateral moraine. This gives very pleasant walking. Eventually the trail traverses the hillside itself high above the glacier and there is a degree of exposure here. However this is the route that the local people use to bring their cattle to the high pastures and the trail is reasonably well maintained. Approximately 2 hours beyond the glacier crossing, we reach the seasonally inhabited settlement of Hamdar (3400m), where there is a collection of stone-built houses and an area of cultivated land surrounded by extensive pasture. From our camp here, there are brilliant views back across the Barpu Glacier to the Golden Pillar of Spantik at the head of the valley. In the evening, if we are lucky, our porters and the local herdsmen will get together for a session of singing and dancing.

DAY 12

A spare day.

Depending on the fitness of the group and the progress we make, we may choose to split yesterday's quite challenging stage. If we completed yesterday's stage as scheduled, we will have more time at the delightful camp at Hamdar. Alternatively, we can spend the morning at Hamdar and then trek out to spend the night at the Hopar Inn. Your Tour Leader will make this call.

DAY 13

Trek out to Hopar and drive to Skardu.

We will make an early start for the trek out to Hopar, descending the western margin of the Barpu Glacier on a good trail used by the people of Hopar, as they travel between the main village and their summer shepherding and farming camps. We will reach the Bualtar Glacier by mid-morning and recross it to Hopar. At the village we say farewell to our porters and crew, we drive back to the Karakoram Highway. Passing Gilgit we reach the confluence of the Gilgit River with the Indus, where we turn to follow this iconic river eastwards on a smooth road to reach Skardu by early evening.

DAY 14

Morning flight to Islamabad. Afternoon free for sightseeing.

After breakfast, we transfer to Skardu Airport where we board our plane for the 1-hour flight back to Islamabad. Arriving in the Pakistani capital, after a period in the mountains, is always a strange experience and it takes a little time to get used to the hustle and bustle and especially the traffic. Our private bus will be waiting at the airport to transfer us to the group hotel and once we have settled in it will be time to take lunch (unless we have experienced unusual flight delays). After lunch, the rest of the day is free for independent sightseeing or to relax at the hotel. Your trip leader will advise you on the possibilities for sightseeing. Shopping for hand-made rugs is a usually popular option. This evening, we come together again for a celebratory meal at the hotel or in a local restaurant.

DAY 15Contingency day in case of delays.

Skardu is a 'weather dependent' airport and although, unlike Gilgit, the flights do operate on most days, this is an important contingency day in case we have to travel back to Islamabad by road. If we have flown to Islamabad yesterday, this will be a further day for sightseeing in the capital and your leader will advise the group on the options available for today.

Important Notice

Travel on the Karakoram Highway

We encourage you to read the up to date Travel Advice on the FCDO website. Currently, the FCDO warns against travel on the Karakoram Highway (KKH) between Mansehra and Chilas.

Driving by road up to the Hunza Valley, we avoid the proscribed section of the KKH by taking the N-15 National Highway across the Babusar Pass.

However, if the Babusar Pass road is closed we may be obliged to travel on the above-mentioned section of the KKH. In this event your insurance cover may be compromised.

We have been taking groups to Pakistan for 40 years and have never had any problems on this road. In actuality, the journey along the Karakoram Highway is spectacularly scenic and an epic experience which has been enjoyed by hundreds of KE clients.

Joining Arrangements & Transfers

The group will meet at the hotel in Islamabad.

Transfers are provided from/to Islamabad Airport for all clients arriving on Day 1 of the Land Only itinerary and departing on the last day of the Land Only itinerary.

Hotel contact details and an emergency number will be provided with your booking confirmation.

Meal Plan

All meals are included in the holiday price from lunch on Day 1 to breakfast on Day 16.

Food & Water

It is not recommended to drink untreated water from the taps. If you are on a trekking or cycling holiday, water is supplied to fill up your individual bottles. This will be boiled, filtered or provided in large jerry cans or 5 litre bottles. Additionally you should take purification tablets or a filter bottle (such as a Water-To-Go bottle) to treat your water when in towns or where water is not supplied. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

During the Rush Lake Trek breakfasts and dinners will be provided in a mess tent at camp. There will be a mix of local and Western dishes made from ingredients purchased in Pakistan and cooked by highly trained trek cooks. Breakfasts consist of cereal, muesli or porridge, eggs, bread or chapatti, tea and coffee. Lunch is generally a picnic consisting of a choice of canned fish, tinned meats, cheese, pickles, pate, and crackers or chapattis, sometimes accompanied by hot soup and noodles and finished off with tea or coffee. Dinner is a three course meal; soup, main course, dessert. At the hotels we use during this holiday, it is not unusual that dinner is provided in the form of a buffet with a wide choice of dishes.

Accommodation

During this trip the group will have 3 nights in Islamabad at a good standard of hotel. There will also be 4 nights in tourist class hotels (1 night in Naran, 2 in Karimabad and 1 in Skardu). When in Hopar (1 or 2 nights) we will use a simple guesthouse. Accommodation at each of these places is twin-share and there are generally en-suite facilities. Whilst on trek there will be 6 or 7 nights camping in 2-person tents. If you are travelling by yourself you will be paired with another single client of the same sex. Single room occupancy can be pre-booked for each of the hotel nights and you can also pre-book additional hotel nights in Islamabad. Hotels are subject to availability and prices may vary. It is also possible to arrange for single tent occupancy at additional cost.

Internal flights

Skardu is a weather-dependent airport. Since the valley is completely surrounded by high mountains, planes can only operate when the visibility is good, which means our flight back to Islamabad at the end of the holiday is not guaranteed. The planes fly much more often than not, but cancellations can occur and in these circumstances we will travel by road. If we were not prepared to do this, our groups would risk being stranded in Skardu. See our 'Important Note' about travel on the Karakoram Highway for more details.

Group Leader & Support Staff

The group will be led by an experienced KE Western leader assisted by a local guide. During the Rush Lake Trek the group will be accompanied by a support crew, including a cook and a team of porters who will carry all equipment and personal trek bags. This crew is drawn from local villagers who depend on working for trekking groups to supplement their subsistence income. Most of the crew will have worked with KE groups before. Travelling with these friendly and hardy people is a major part of the experience of Karakoram trekking.

Altitude

This holiday involves going to very high altitude. During the course of your trip you will be spending at least one night above 4000 metres and/or trekking to 5000 metres or above. This is not something that you should worry about; the human body is quite capable of adapting to a very wide range of altitudes, but it is important that we follow some simple rules in order to acclimatise successfully. Before coming on this holiday you should read the advice on trekking at high altitude. Unless you have previous experience of trekking above 4000 metres you should consult one of our trekking experts before embarking on this holiday. On this trip we carry a portable altitude chamber (PAC-bag) and/or bottled oxygen for use in emergencies.

Spending Money

Approximately £200 (or equivalent in US dollars, Euros etc.) changed into local currency should be allowed for miscellaneous expenses, including porter and trek crew tips. You will also pay directly for guided sightseeing in Islamabad if this works out for your group and you choose to take part in the tour. The cost of this will be approximately 50 US dollars for a half-day tour. Note that money for tips should be changed into local currency (denominations of 500 rupees or smaller only) before you leave Islamabad. It is not necessary to purchase local currency (Pakistan rupees) before your trip. Money can be changed at a reasonable rate at the airport or at authorised money changers. Since you will be changing the majority of your spending money into local currency soon after your arrival, we recommend that you take it in cash, taking care that all notes are new, clean and in good condition. US dollars, Sterling and Euros can readily be exchanged at the airport. US dollars will give you more flexibility to exchange in smaller towns or in an emergency. Credit cards can be used to purchase many goods in Islamabad or Skardu and are particularly useful for more expensive items such as carpets. Withdrawing cash from an ATM machine may prove to be impossible anywhere on this trip.

Guidance on Tipping

It is usual to tip the members of your local crew and drivers, if you are happy with the services provided. We estimate that £80 (in local currency equivalent) will cover this aspect of your trip expenditure. Towards the end of the trek, the trip leader will help the group to determine an appropriate level of tipping for each crew member, and this is most usually done as a group 'thank-you' with ceremony on the final day of trekking.

Beat the Jet Lag

Our holidays are normally designed with minimal 'down time' at the start of the trip, but having a day or two at the beginning will have the additional benefit of allowing you time to get over the stress of a long journey or travelling across time zones, leaving you refreshed and ready for your holiday. We can easily arrange for you to have additional nights and airport transfers.

Baggage Allowance

For this holiday you should take one piece of luggage, which should be a soft and sturdy duffel bag, and one day pack. Your baggage will be carried in the support vehicle and by porters or pack-ponies during the trek. The packed weight of your bag whilst trekking including your sleeping bag and camping mattress should be no more than 12.5 kgs. You should note that this allowance which is governed by maximum porter loads, is slightly less than allowances for treks in India and Nepal and is quite strictly adhered to. It is possible to leave items not required on trek at the group hotel in Islamabad and also in Gilgit.

Group Size & Holiday Status

For each holiday there is a minimum number of participants required to enable it to go ahead. Once the minimum number is reached, the trip status will change from 'Available' to 'Guaranteed to run'. You can check the trip status for each departure in 'Dates and Prices' table. Other than in exceptional circumstances, we will not cancel a trip once it has achieved this guaranteed to run status and so you are free to proceed with your international flight booking and other travel arrangements.

General Information

Passport & Visas

The information that we provide is for UK passport holders. A passport with 6 months remaining validity at the end of your stay is generally required, and you should have at least 2 blank pages for each country that you visit.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you have the correct travel documents and visas for your holiday. Please ensure that you check for the latest advice before travel. For the most up to date information on entry requirements, please visit the UK Government website.

All British passport holders are required to obtain a visa for entry into Pakistan. Download our Pakistan Visa Information document for full details of how to apply.

Health & Vaccinations

If you have a severe allergy please inform the KE office before you travel. We will do all we can to help, but we cannot guarantee an allergy free environment on KE trips. You will need to carry your own treatment for the allergy with you, as 'adrenaline auto-injectors' are not carried as standard by KE leaders and staff. You should inform your leader on arrival of your allergy, and let them know where you keep your adrenaline pen.

You should contact your doctor or travel clinic to check whether you require any vaccinations or other medical preparation prior to your holiday. You should be up to date with routine courses and boosters as recommended in the UK e.g. diphtheria-tetanus-polio and measles-mumps-rubella), along with hepatitis A and typhoid. Malarial prophylaxis is discretionary for this trip. Malaria exists in the area around Islamabad. However, incidences of urban transmission of malaria are extremely low. In Skardu or Gilgit and in the mountains there is no malaria risk. A certificate of yellow fever vaccination is required if travelling from countries with risk of yellow fever transmission and for travellers having transited for more than 12 hrs through an airport of a country with risk of yellow fever transmission. Travellers who intend to visit Pakistan for 4 weeks or more should note that proof of Polio vaccination will be required on exiting the country. On holidays to more remote areas you should also have a dentist check up. A good online resource is Travel Health Pro.

Currency

The unit of currency in Pakistan is the Pakistani Rupee.

Preparing for your Holiday

It makes a lot of sense to spend some time before coming on a trekking holiday getting some additional exercise. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable you will find the experience. You need to be comfortable walking for 6 hours on the longest of the trekking days and you need to be able to cope with a variety of terrain including loose scree and boulders. Regular hiking in hilly country is the best training but running, cycling and swimming are also good for developing cardio vascular fitness and stamina.

Climate

From mid-June to the end of August, we can expect to encounter temperatures as high as 30°C at Karimabad, 25°C at Hopar and 10°C at Rush Lake. If the weather is clear, it will be warm during the day and cool in the evenings above 3000 metres. This part of Pakistan is reasonably sheltered from the effects of the monsoon and the weather tends to be settled during the summer. However, weather in mountainous areas is notoriously difficult to predict, and short-lived storms can occur at any time of the year.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that prior to travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates direct from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.

Maps

TerraQuest: Karakoram. 1 : 175,000 Available from Stanfords - stanfords.co.uk

This is the best map for all of KE's current Karakoram treks. Covers the central part of the Karakoram Range on a waterproof and tear-resistant, double-sided map, with coverage extending from Gilgit and the Karakoram Highway to the peaks of K2 and Gasherbrum. The map is presented in a special format, handy for conveniently viewing just small sections of it at one time.

Travel Insurance

It is an essential condition of joining a holiday with KE Adventure Travel that you have a valid travel insurance policy to cover the cost of medical treatment and to protect the value of your holiday in the event of cancellation. When taking out insurance please ensure the policy you choose covers you for the activities and altitude included in your itinerary.

For appropriate insurance cover we recommend Campbell Irvine Direct. Please go to our Travel Insurance page for further information and to get a quote.

Equipment Information

Equipment List

The following checklist should help you with your packing. You do not have to bring everything on the list and you should use your own experience and judgement, but we ask you to ensure you have the items on the mandatory list. When selecting clothing for this holiday, please be culturally sensitive. Tight fitting or revealing clothing is not appropriate. Shorts and tee shirts can be worn but only once we are above the last temporary habitations of the valley.

You must bring the following items:

- Hiking boots

- Sports sandals or old shoes (for river crossings)

- Kahtoola Microspikes (or similar footwear traction) for the glacier crossings

- Waterproof overtrousers

- Fleece jacket or warm jumper

- Waterproof jacket

- Warm jacket (e.g. down)
- Scarf or buff
- Sunhat
- Warm hat
- Sunglasses
- Gloves or mittens
- Daypack 30 to 40 litres
- Headtorch and spare batteries
- Sun protection (including total bloc for lips, nose etc.)
- Water bottles 1 litre (x2) (we encourage re-filling water bottles rather than single use plastic)
- Water purification tablets
- Sleeping bag (comfort rated -15°C)
- Thermarest or similar sleeping mat
- Basic First Aid Kit including: antiseptic cream, throat lozenges, diarrhoea treatment (Imodium), altitude (Diamox), painkillers, plasters, blister treatment, and re-hydration salts (Dioralite).
- 2x small padlocks (one for left luggage and one for trek bag)

Packing checklist:

- Socks
- Trainers for camp use

- Spare laces
- Trekking trousers
- Underwear
- Baselayer shirts
- Shirts or T-shirts
