Introduction

This breath taking Bolivian adventure explores the unique and bizarre landscapes of western Bolivia, from Lake Titicaca all the way to the vast white salt flats of the Salar de Uyuni; one of the highest and driest environments on earth. We'll spend a couple of days on and around Latin America's greatest and most famous lake, Titicaca, before flying south to Sucre and the silver-mining town of Potosi. After an excellent acclimatisation hike in the Cordillera Kari Kari, we travel on to Uyuni, with its atmospheric 'train graveyard'. Crossing the edge of the salt flats to reach the foot of Volcan Tunupa, where we hike to the crater of this unusual multi-coloured mountain. Continuing our journey to the Sajama National Park, we see rustic churches, giant cacti, grazing vicunas, flocks of flamingoes and many other unusual Andean birds on a number of remote lagoons. Then, from Sajama Village, we make a scenic hike to the Kasiri Lagoons and Lagoon Chiarkota, with the chance to swim in a fantastic natural hot pool. Finally, we return to La Paz where we explore this fascinating city as way of rounding off this action packed 2 week holiday.

Is this holiday for you?

This is principally a journey of exploration of Salar de Uyuni and the Sajama National Park; with some fantastic trekking along the way. We've allowed some time to acclimatise to the high altitudes in La Paz and on Lake Titicaca, before we travel south to the amazing Salar de Uyuni via the towns of Sucre and Potosi. An acclimatisation hike in the Cordillera Kari Kari sets us up for our journey across the salt flats, ahead of our longer trekking days to Tunupa Crater (4250m) and the Condoriri Craters (5000m). Although none of these days are overly long, and can be backed out of, these days will be quite demanding because of their altitudes (above 4000m). Due to the vastness of the landscape there will inevitably be some longish days of driving during this holiday.

Galapagos Islands Cruise

Create the perfect holiday-of-a-lifetime by adding an exploratory cruise of the stunning and unique Galapagos Islands

Needing little in the way of introduction, the Galapagos Islands are one of the most pristine natural environments left on Earth. Over 600 miles separate them from mainland Ecuador, meaning they have enjoyed splendid isolation and provide a habitat for a bewildering array of birds, reptiles, mammals and sea life you simply won't find anywhere else.

We have a variety of ships and itineraries and you can choose from two levels of service - Standard and Upgraded, many of which are more affordable than you may have thought. Itineraries are typically between 7 and 10 days which is the optimum length for visiting this natural paradise. During your cruise you will visit a number of the islands, each distinct and renowned in their own right. Sometimes these will be `dry` landings where you step onto a pier and at others you will make `wet` landings where you reach the island by small inflatable boats and step directly onto the beach. Every boat has a slightly different itinerary but all are focused on seeing as much of the amazing Galapagos wildlife as possible. There is also plenty of time for relaxation and for swimming and snorkelling from the boats. All of our itineraries begin and end in Quito and include the flight out to the islands.

Please contact us for details on availability, itinerary options and pricing. (Sample itinerary detailed below)

You might also want to consider our 10 day Galapagos Islands Adventure, for a more active and immersive experience of these diverse islands. This shore based trip stays in cosy small hotels and guesthouses, allowing us to experience the beaches and wildlife in the early mornings and evenings when the main tourists have disappeared on their boats. Alternatively, if you are looking for something a more luxurious why not spoil yourself on one of our Galapagos Cruises aboard the luxury Monserrat Motor Yacht.

Book this trip as a stand alone tour or in addition to any of our Latin America holidays.

Meal Plan

All breakfasts, 7 lunches and 5 dinners are included in the trip price. Where there is a wide range of dining options available it makes sense to leave this choice to you and we have not included meals other than breakfasts while in La Paz, Sucre, Potosi and Uyuni. All other meals are included. Clients will be expected to pay for their own meals (other than breakfast) whilst in these cities. For non included meals you can typically expect to pay US$20 to US$30 per meal including wine.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Food & Water

Drinking Water

It is not recommended to drink untreated water from the taps. If you are on a trekking or cycling holiday, water is supplied to fill up your individual bottles. This will be boiled, filtered or provided in large jerry cans or 5 litre bottles. Additionally you should take purification tablets or a filter bottle (such as a Water-To-Go bottle) to treat your water when in towns or where water is not supplied. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

The cuisine of Bolivia is a mix of spanish cuisine and traditional Aymara fare, reliant on indigenous ingredients like corn, potatoes and beans. We can expect a diverse and tasty experience. For most of this holiday we take our meals in hotel restaurants and other eateries. In La Paz, Sucre, Potosi and Uyuni, where there is a wide range of restaurants cafes and bars serving excellent and varied cuisine, you will pay directly for these meals. In other towns and villages, we will usually enjoy a tasty, set 3-course meal provided by the hotel or lodge where we are staying. Traditional, hearty meals, with a soup starter and a meat or vegetarian main course can be expected. Breakfast includes fresh fruit, pancakes or omelette with plenty of toast and home-made jam. On some days we will enjoy a packed lunch, usually consisting of fruit, salad, bread, cheeses, cold meats and plenty to drink.

Accommodation

During this trip the group will spend 4 nights at a comfortable hotel in La Paz, 1 night at an ecolodge on the Isla del Sol, 3 nights at comfortable hotels in Sucre and Potosi, 1 night at a small hotel in Uyuni, 1 night in a lodge in Tahua, 1 nights at a simple lodge in Garci Mendoza and 2 nights at a hostel in Sajama Village. On the nights we stay in simple hostels/lodges you will have shared bathrooms and you may find your sleeping bag useful to supplement the bedding provided. All hotels have ensuite bathroom facilities. All accommodation is based on twin sharing and if you are travelling by yourself you will be paired up with other single clients of the same sex. Subject to availability it is possible to arrange single rooms for most of the hotel/lodge/hostel nights. Additional hotel nights in La Paz are also available.

Group Leader & Support Staff

The group will be accompanied throughout by an experienced, English-speaking local leader. There will also be one or more support vehicles and drivers.

Altitude

This holiday involves going to very high altitude. During the course of your trip you will be spending at least one night above 4000 metres and/or trekking to 5000 metres or above. This is not something that you should worry about; the human body is quite capable of adapting to a very wide range of altitudes, but it is important that we follow some simple rules in order to acclimatise successfully. Before coming on this holiday you should read the advice on trekking at high altitude. Unless you have previous experience of trekking above 4000 metres you should consult one of our trekking experts before embarking on this holiday. On this trip we carry a portable altitude chamber (PAC-bag) and/or bottled oxygen for use in emergencies.

Spending Money

We estimate that US$400 will be sufficient to cover your personal spending including the above mentioned non-included meals. This amount should also cover tips for your guide, drivers and other local staff. You should allow approximately US$60 in total for these tips. N.B Lots of small denomination local currency is useful here. (Please note that tipping is not compulsory but it is the normal practice. Your trek leader will advise on how much and when to give these tips). It is not necessary to purchase local currency (Bolivianos) before you travel. Credit and debit cards can be used to obtain cash at ATMs in La Paz . If you are bringing your travel money with you, we recommend that you do this in the form of cash US dollars, as you will be changing the majority of your money on the day of your arrival. Note that travellers cheques can sometimes be difficult to exchange and normally have a poorer rate than cash. Credit cards can also be used to purchase some goods and at some restaurants in La Paz.

Guidance on Tipping

Tipping is normal in Bolivia. However, you must remember that it is voluntary and how much you give depends on how you feel about the service you have received. Airport baggage carriers are the only exception and tipping is compulsory. These people are unwaged and make a living by carrying your luggage. The general rule is 3 bolivianos (30p) per bag. For hotel staff, tipping is not expected, but is welcome. For hotel porters 3 bolivianos per bag carried is normal. Any drivers, specialist guides or tour conductors (i.e. on sightseeing tours) normally are tipped around 15 bolivianos per day. Please note that drivers of standard taxis do not usually expect a tip. As with most countries, it is usual to tip in restaurants and 10% is expected for good service. For the support crew on trek (guides, cooks, porters etc.), it is recommended that each client contributes around $60 to a group tipping pool.

Beat the Jet Lag

Our holidays are normally designed with minimal 'down time' at the start of the trip, but having a day or two at the beginning will have the additional benefit of allowing you time to get over the stress of a long journey or travelling across time zones, leaving you refreshed and ready for your holiday. We can easily arrange for you to have additional nights and airport transfers.

Baggage Allowance

For this holiday you should take one piece of luggage, which should be a soft bag such as the KE kit bag and a daypack. For international flights please check your baggage allowance with your airline.

Group Size & Holiday Status

For each holiday there is a minimum number of participants required to enable it to go ahead. Once the minimum number is reached, the trip status will change from 'Available' to 'Guaranteed to run'. You can check the trip status for each departure in the 'Dates and Prices' table. Other than in exceptional circumstances, we will not cancel a trip once it has achieved this guaranteed to run status so you are free to proceed with your international flight booking and other travel arrangements.

Preparing for your Holiday

It makes a lot of sense to spend some time before coming on a trekking or climbing trip getting some additional exercise. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable you will find the experience. For this trip you need to be aerobically fit and comfortable with walking for up to 8 or 9 hours on two of the days. Regular hillwalking is the best way to get fit for any trekking holiday, but you could also adopt a weekly exercise regime. Running and swimming are good for developing better stamina. Before departure, we suggest that you try to fit in a number of long walks in hilly country.

Climate

Bolivia's dry and sunny winter season lasts from the end of April to October, and during this period the weather can be expected to be excellent for trekking and climbing. The days are relatively warm, up to a maximum of 20°C, although it can feel warmer than this in the strong sunlight. Night-time temperatures will drop to around freezing point above 3500 metres, whilst above 4500 metres the temperature can vary from 20 degrees centigrade to minus 20 degrees centigrade during a 24 hour period.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.
