Introduction

It is said that there is the Camino you walk and the Camino you live. This 2 week walking holiday allows you to live the Portuguese Way from Porto to Santiago de Compostela. Taking the route less travelled you will start your journey in the UNESCO city of Porto, before stepping out to discover beautiful peaceful landscapes, vineyards, and quaint Portuguese villages with rich histories and legends. You will follow in the footsteps of ancient pilgrims; discover the legend behind the symbolic rooster of Portugal and cross the Spanish border to embrace Galician culture. You will even spend the night in Pontevedra, where great explorer Columbus's flagship, the Santa Maria, was crafted.

Along the way you will stay in a welcoming selection of hotels and guesthouses, close to the Camino on a bed and breakfast basis, giving you opportunity to dine on the fantastic seafood dishes the locals love so much. The jewel in the crown is your arrival at the cathedral of Santiago de Compostela, an emotional moment for many walkers as you realise your achievements over the past 2 weeks, the memories you have made and the Camino you have lived!

Is this holiday for you?

This 2 week Camino is perfect for those looking to take on a spiritual challenge, your first long distance route or those who simply desire to see the quieter side of Portugal away, from the busy beaches of the south and discover Galicia and all its splendid traditions. Guided by the traditional scallop shells and your route notes, you should be comfortable walking for 5-6 hours a day and an average of 15-20km on quiet paths, byways and cobbled tracks. The Portuguese Way is relatively flat, taking you through the undulating terrain of the Minho and into Galicia making it the ideal first time long distance route for those seeking a new challenge. Staying in a great selection of hotels and guesthouses, we will transport your luggage for you so all you need to do is relax and enjoy the journey.

Arrive in Porto and explore the city.

Arrive in Porto, home of port wine, merchant history and stately bridges joining the city over the River Douro. Depending on your arrival time you may wish to explore this beautiful coastal city, we recommend paying a visit to Igreja de Sao Francisco for views over the river and walking through the Ribeira district where the medieval streets house many welcoming cafes and photogenic corners.

Your first day as a Pilgrim as you walk to Arcos.

Your day begins with a short transfer out of Porto to nearby Vilar do Pinheiro, avoiding an urbanised section of walking and allowing you to enjoy the changing scenery, from urban to rural, much sooner. Setting off you will begin your pilgrimage along the way of the yellow shells. Your route will wind its way first to Vilarinho, a small village known for its textile industry, and on to cross the medieval bridge over the Ave to reach Arcos. Your stresses will soon melt away as you enjoy your first day as a pilgrim and absorb the green countryside of the Camino de Portuguese. Arriving in Arcos you will have time to relax at your accommodation and enjoy an evening meal, perhaps with a glass of wine.

Walk to Barcelos and discover the legend of the Rooster.

Feeling refreshed, your route today will take you to the medieval village of Rates with its pretty Romanesque church located in the town square. The church was once part of the former convent which the town was built around. Today, it is a sleepy village which welcomes pilgrims along their way to Santiago. Continuing, your route will take you through the pleasant shade of the woodland and through welcoming small villages, including Courel and Pedra Furada. Before long you will once again see the landscape change as you reach the urbanisation of Barcelos and your home for the night.

It is here in Barcelos where the Rooster became a popular Portuguese symbol. Legend has it that a pilgrim was accused of stealing cutlery from a wealthy person. While convicting the pilgrim the judge was eating a rooster and the pilgrim announced that if he were innocent the rooster would crow 3 times, and with that it did. The tale was spread and the pilgrim later returned to build a statue of the crow which had spared his sentence.

This is a quiet, rural part of Portugal and your route will take you along minor roads, through vineyards and to the River Neiva. From here you will cross the medieval bridge before entering into your final goal of the day, Balugaes. Named after the bridge which crosses over the River Lima, Ponte de Lima is the oldest town in Portugal. This characterful town is full of charm not to mention history. Sitting on the banks of the Lima River the town's history is reflected in its array of historical buildings, built in the styles of various periods interspersed with pretty plazas and grand religious buildings. You will have time to explore all the town has to offer, visit the colourful botanical gardens and enjoy a coffee in a café on the Plaza before checking into your hotel for the evening.

Here, the landscape once again begins to change as you make your way uphill through tranquil tree covered scenery, passing the Cruz dos Franceses to reach the top of your climb. With the most demanding part of your way achieved you have time to take a moment to appreciate how far you have already come before you take an easy walk to your accommodation for the evening and a welcoming cold drink.

Cross the border into Galicia, a step closer to Santiago de Compostela.

Today is the last leg of your journey in Portugal as you make your way from the valley of the river Coura through rolling countryside. Today is a peaceful one as you make your way through this sparsely populated region on ancient cobbled tracks, first to the pretty village of Fontoura with its quaint church, and on to Valenca marking the end of your route in Portugal. This border town dates back to the 13th century and has been a safe crossing point for pilgrims who wear the scallop shell of St James despite many battles with neighbouring Galicia. Steeped in history, we recommend taking time to stroll around the historic medieval fortress and the original walled town. When you have finished exploring Valenca you continue to your final goal of the day, Tui, just across the river. Crossing the bridge inspired by the work of famous Gustave Eiffel into Tui to commence the Spanish section of the way.

Making your way through the medieval streets you reach Tui's impressive cathedral. You will have time to stop and admire this famous cathedral before continuing on your way, crossing the Veiga Bridge to walk along the Valley of the River Louro, perhaps one of the most beautiful stretches of the route, before entering O Porrino, your final goal of the day.

There is time to take a welcome rest in the park before descending to the town of Redonela. This is a great spot to stop for a well-earned lunch and enjoy a typical Galician delicacy such as Caldo Gallego (a hearty stew with chorizo) to fuel you on your way. Continuing you will soon reach Outeiro de Penas for excellent views over the Ria de Vigo estuary, one of the most sublime natural harbours in the world. Crossing the hillside your route soon opens up to display colourful fields, vineyards and orchards. Winding your way across the fruitful landscape you soon reach the beautiful largely traffic free city of Pontevedra, your home for the evening. Once Galicia's largest city, Pontevedra has a fantastic old town to discover. It was here where Columbus' flagship, the Santa Maria, was constructed. Local legend says that Columbus was in fact a Pontevedra nobleman named Pedro Madruga who took on a new identity. We recommend taking time to explore San Francisco Convent, an impressive convent which is said to have been founded by Saint Francis himself back in the 13 century.

The perfect place to pick up snacks for your journey. Leaving the city via the millennial bridge, O Burgo, you once again commence your journey to Santiago. Your way, today, will take you along the beautiful valley of the Gandra River as it winds its way to San Mauro. Continuing your path widens and you will begin to spot the first of the crosses of Saint James, some magnificently carved and making a serene and peaceful atmosphere. Portugal's national obsession is Bacalhau, a dried salted cod which will feature heavily on menus alongside other delicious seafood. After all Portugal has almost 1800km of coastline. But it is not all just seafood as Portuguese cuisine is all about simple, fresh cooking with many meaty stews such as Cozido a Portuguesa which includes beef, pork and chicken served with fresh vegetables and usually accompanied by one of the countries fantastic wines.

Crossing the border into Galicia and you can see that this too is a region passionate about food. Galicia's cuisine is less about paella and more about delicious Pulpo a la Gallega, a traditional dish of the region which comprises of succulent boiled octopus on top of a bed of thinly sliced potatoes and topped with oil and paprika. And let's not forget the tasty treat of Santiago, the Tarta de Santiago made from ground almonds and covered in icing sugar and the cross of Santiago. Yummy!
