Introduction

Discover France, but not as you know it, on this one week self-guided Corsican adventure. Often described as a mountain in the sea, this is an island of contrasts where you can swim in the turquoise waters of the Mediterranean from beautiful bays, and hike in breathtaking mountain scapes surrounded by jagged peaks, rich forests of chestnut and pine, and dramatic gorges. On this self-guided walking holiday, we have hand-picked a selection of the most beautiful coastal and mountain walks to give you a delightful flavour of this sumptuous island in just one week.

You will spend the first half of your week on the sparkling coast with one night in Bastia and three nights in Calvi, followed by three nights in the mountainous interior of the island in historic Corte, staying at welcoming 3* hotels on a B&B basis throughout. Making the journey between these three bases by train, you will be able to drink in the vistas and landscapes in the very heart of the island and immerse yourself into the beguiling character of Corsica at a leisurely pace. Combined with delicious Corsican food and wine and a blissful Mediterranean climate, what better escape could you ask for?

Is this holiday for you?

This holiday is perfect for those looking to enjoy a slower pace of travel, while still embarking on satisfying walks in spectacular settings. The walks are moderate, typically around 3-5 hours a day with an average ascent/descent of around 300m. You also have the option to extend some of your walks if you are looking for more of a challenge. The terrain on Corsica can be rugged, with steep and rocky terrain that can require the use of hands and feet.

Staying 3 nights each in the towns of Calvi and Corte, you can relax and settle in to a leisurely holiday, or even rest your feet with a sightseeing day if you feel like it. You will make use of the train to travel between the towns with your own luggage; tickets are not included but full instructions on how to make these transfers will be provided. There are often opportunities for a cooling dip, whether in the sea or in a natural mountain pool, so don't forget to pack your swimsuit and towel.

Arrive in Bastia and enjoy a stroll around the old town.

Arrive at your hotel in the heart of the old town of Bastia, on the north eastern coast of Corsica. This dynamic city offers a wonderful welcome to this island with its own proud identity and heritage. Its history dates back to the 14th century, when it was founded by the Genoese who made it the capital of the island, with its name taken from the "bastille" (fortress) overlooking the city. Pay a visit to this relic standing proudly at the old port and enjoy a stroll around the impressive promenade edging the sea. Wandering the cobbled streets on foot is an ideal way to soak in the city's Mediterranean character and rich history. As you explore the old town, you will discover houses with colourful facades and shutters, as well as cathedrals, churches and palaces harking back to centuries past. The city's picturesque market squares are a popular meeting place for residents and visitors alike; lined with cafes and restaurants these are great spots to enjoy a relaxed drink. The Place du Marche, neighbouring the distinctive twin-towered St-Jean Baptiste church, hosts lively traditional markets every Saturday and Sunday and offers a plethora of regional products and specialties, including charcuteries and cheeses as well as artisanal crafts. Enjoy your first evening on Corsica and settle into the rhythms of this charming city, perhaps with a glass of Corsican wine, and dinner at a restaurant of your choice.

Enjoy a relaxed morning in Bastia before taking the train to Calvi.

With a relaxed day ahead of you, take your breakfast at your leisure and enjoy some further exploration of vibrant Bastia, a City of Art and History. In the afternoon, you will have your first teaser of the rugged green interior of the island on the scenic train journey from Bastia to Calvi, travelling first inland to Ponte Leccia where you will change for the line to L'Île Rousse and Calvi on the north western coast. The famous train of Corsica is known affectionately as the "Micheline", and rides on a narrow gauge network especially built for the island's vertiginous slopes. Sit back and enjoy the changing views as the train meanders through majestic landscapes - this is slow travel at its best. Reaching the coastal town of Calvi, famed for its welcoming beaches and impressive medieval Citadel, you can settle in to your hotel base here for the next three nights. Calvi is a unique place where the rugged mountainous interior meets the glamour of the coast; you can't help but find yourself mesmerised by the cobbled streets and daydreaming at the many expensive yachts in the bay from a marina-side cafe.

Explore the Revellata Peninsula with a loop walk to the lighthouse on the rocky promontory.

Today's scenic walk takes you along the coastal path from the centre of Calvi to the Revellata Peninsula; don't forget to pack your swimsuit as you will have the opportunity to enjoy a swim at the secluded beaches along the way, accessible only by foot. The rocky coast and sea cliffs of the Revellata make it a hotspot for seabirds and is home to rare, endemic and protected plant species. Your path follows the jagged, rocky coastline and through patches of maquis vegetation to reach the Revellata lighthouse, perched at the end of the headland. From the lighthouse looking to the left, you might be able to make out in the distance the red rocks of the Scandola Reserve, designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site to preserve its natural beauty, rich biodiversity and the endemic maquis shrubland. As you start making your way back, you will pass the pretty bays of Oseluccia and Alga, perfect spots to cool off from your walk in the crystal clear waters before returning to Calvi for your second night.

DAY 4

Hike to the hilltop chapel of Notre Dame de la Serra, with the option of a challenging extension to reach the Capu di a Veta.

Today your walk will take you inland, ascending to the beautiful hilltop chapel of Notre Dame de Serra from where you can gain magnificent vistas over the bay of Calvi. You also have the option for a challenging extension today, continuing your climb from the chapel to reach the Capu di a Veta (703m), the highest point above Calvi. Setting off from the centre of Calvi, you will navigate through the town and soon make your way steadily up the well-trodden, occasionally rocky path and through the now-familiar maquis. Almost before you know it, you will reach the impressive site of the Notre Dame de la Serra. The original chapel here was destroyed during a siege in 1740, but a new chapel was built in the first half of the 19th century. An old local legend says that if you bring the love of your life here, you will spend many happy years together. Here you can have a rest and a breather while you admire the simple architectural design features of the chapel, its Baroque bell tower, and the statue representing the Virgin Mary atop a large rock; not to mention the views to Calvi bay, the Revellata peninsula and the Reginu valley. You can descend from here back to Calvi, or if you wish you can continue on the extension to Capu di a Veta. The optional extension to Capu di a Veta follows a breath-taking rocky trail and while more challenging, offers the reward of unimpeded, panoramic views. Some sections are steep on this rugged terrain, including one short section with a chain to help negotiate a couple of tricky steps. Reaching the Austrian cross marking this high point, you can catch your breath and marvel at the expansive views before commencing your descent, following the way markers guiding your way through the shrubland, to eventually reach paved roads and return to Calvi for a well-earned refreshing drink. (With optional extension: 16km / 720 ascent / 720m descent / 5-6 hours walking)

DAY 5

Relax by the beach before taking a spectacular train journey to Corte.

Indulge in a relaxed breakfast in your hotel and enjoy a day exploring the town of Calvi. This picture postcard seaside town is distinctly Mediterranean and you will love the quayside and its vibrant cafe life crowned by the Genoese Citadel. It is great to just sit in one of the cafes opposite the harbour and soak up the atmosphere. Whatever you do don't forget to climb through the atmospheric streets of the citadel and see the cathedral St Jean Baptiste or simply just relax on the 5km of pine backed beach. In the afternoon you will make your way on the "Micheline" train to the geographical centre of Corsica; to the town of Corte which will be your base for the next three nights. This mountain stronghold was once the capital of the island under the rule of Pasquale Paoli from 1755-1769. Surrounded by jagged peaks and crowned with a hilltop citadel you cannot help but fall in love with Corte. Located at the confluence of the Tavignano and Restonica Gorges the town is usually abuzz with hikers, cyclists and climbers who seek to find their adventure in this natural playground.

Discover the Gorge of Tavignano on a section of the famous "Mare a Mare" hiking trail.

Leaving Corte on foot, today's walk will take you to discover the spectacular Tavignano Gorge, hiking a section of the "Mare a Mare Nord" path bisecting the island between east and west coasts. For centuries the gorge was a pathway to Niolu, the most remote region of Corsica, where residents have long been self-sufficient, living off their agriculture and livestock. Today there are many traces which testify the importance of the route as you will discover on your walk, with many archaeological sites scattering the region. As you make your way through the gorge you will pass locals and visitors alike cooling off in the many natural pools at the foot of the granite cliffs which have been beautifully carved by time and shaded by the tall laricio pines; a little slice of paradise. Your journey today takes an out-and-back route, depending on your energy levels you may wish to continue your walk further into the gorge following the Mare a Mare path, and turn back to retrace your steps for your return journey to Corte.

Walk up to Punta di u Corbu for fantastic views over Corte and the Restonica valley.

After a relaxed breakfast, this morning you will walk south from Corte to ascend Punta di u Corbu, gaining a wonderful view over the town, the Restonica valley and the backdrop of magnificent jagged peaks that characterize central Corsica. This walk is dedicated to Saint Teofalu (Theophilus), born in Corte, who was the only canonized priest from Corsica. It is said that he loved silence and solitude; indeed the path through the tranquil woods invites you to enjoy a mindful day walking, breathing in the fresh mountain air scented with pine. Enjoy the peace of this quiet path before you descend into the Restonica valley and follow the route of the glacial river to return to Corte.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

Steeped in tradition, full of flavour and locally grown, Corsican cuisine is a delicious fusion of French and Italian influences with its own unique character. The island's geography has played a strong role in determining what is served; with over 600 miles of coastline it is not surprising that seafood is a regular feature on restaurant menus, but not as often as you might think. Surprisingly, it is in fact the islands meats which are the Corsican's favoured protein source. The island's mountainous interior is perfect for rearing sheep and wild boar, which roam free and feast on the abundance of chestnuts growing in the area. This flavoursome diet of chestnuts gives the meat a unique flavour which makes it ever so popular. These tasty meats are used in delights such the fantastic cured meats including Figatellu and Lonzu AOC, or hearty stews such as civet de sanglier (a rich stew of boar, vegetables, chestnuts, fennel and red wine). The Italian influence on the island's food is evident in the love of cured meats and the many cheeses produced using sheep and goat's milk.

The island also has a great vegetarian offering with Corsica's Italian influences showing through in some fantastic vegetarian pasta dishes and typical juicy Mediterranean salads waiting to be enjoyed.

Chestnuts are not only a staple for Corsica's wild boar with islanders enjoying dishes such as Pulenta (a fritter made using chestnut flour). This is a tradition which dates back to Genoese times when the trees were first planted as an alternative crop to cereals. As you walk on the island you will note the many chestnut trees. We recommend sampling the crepes with chestnut filling with your coffee. It is a great sweet treat after a walk.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

You will be sure to be charmed by our hand-picked hotels, whether by their history and tradition, their unique character, or the magnificent vistas over the beautiful surroundings. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have the correct travel documents including vaccinations and health certificates (see Health & Vaccinations below), and visas for your holiday. Please ensure that you check the FCDO for the latest advice for each country visited before travel.

Health & Vaccinations

Vaccinations

You should contact your doctor or travel clinic to check whether you require any specific vaccinations.

GHIC / Medical cover

UK residents should carry a free Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC). This entitles you to state provided medical treatment when you're visiting an EU country or Switzerland. This is not a substitute for medical travel insurance which is vital when travelling overseas.

Severe Allergies

Please inform our KE Sales and Support team of any severe allergies you may have before travel. We will always do our best to help but we are unable to guarantee an allergy free environment on our KE trips. We advise that you always carry your own treatment for the allergy with you such as 'adrenaline auto-injectors' if required. We also recommend that you discuss this with your accommodation on arrival so that they can better assist you.

Currency

The currency for part or all of this holiday is the Euro.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace, however getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. You should be comfortable with walking 4-5 hours on consecutive days with an average ascent of around 350m per day. We suggest that you try to fit in some extra walks in hilly terrain before your trip to help prepare for your walking holiday.

Climate

Corsica has a Mediterranean climate with hot summers and moderate, dry, clear winters. The climate varies with altitude of course. The temperatures can reach up to 30°C on the coast in the summer months and as low as freezing in the evenings in the mountains. The summer months of July and August can feel very hot for walking. The micro climates in Corsica make the weather unpredictable and fast changing in the hills. You will need to be prepared for all eventualities with your waterproofs and warm layers with you along with your swimming costume.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.
