Arrive in Dubrovnik greeted by your driver, transfer to spectacular Ston and dive into Croatia's delights.

Arrive in Dubrovnik airport to be greeted by your driver keen to welcome you to Croatia. A short transfer will take you to the picture perfect Peljesac Peninsula, to the medieval town of Ston, complete with its impressive 5.5km defensive wall linking the town to the small dreamy town of Mali Ston. Peljesac is a region known for its delicious shellfish, dry red wines and spectacular beaches. Depending on the time of your arrival we recommend checking into your hotel, grabbing your swimsuit and throwing yourself into sampling the region's delights with oysters, a glass of red, and a relax at on the bay with its inviting salt pools. Waking refreshed from your first night in Dalmatia your walk today will explore the picturesque valley of Ston and the treasures it produces. First, making your way to the Mali Ston aptly translated to 'Little Ston', and though it may be small, its gastronomic offering is mighty; famed for its mussels and large flat oysters which thrive in the narrow channel separating the peninsula from the mainland. Following the historical Napoleonic Road your route will take you inland towards the wine producing region with its many green vineyard terrace, a contrasting landscape to the crumbling yellow stone architecture and vibrant blue coastline. Continuing to your highpoint of the day where your efforts are rewarded with panoramic views to both valleys below; vineyards to one side and Ston and the coast to the other. Returning along the Napoleonic Road you make your way back to Ston to spend another evening in this enchanting town and to sample the wines produced here with a wine tasting.

Health & Vaccinations

Severe Allergies

Please inform our KE Sales and support team of any severe allergies you may have before travel. We will always do our best to help but we are unable to guarantee an allergy free environment on our KE trips. We advise that you always carry your own treatment for the allergy with you such as 'adrenaline auto-injectors' if required. We also recommend that you discuss this with your accommodation on arrival so that they can better assist you.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace however getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. The walks take you through shaded woodlands, along beautiful coastal paths and country dirt roads. You should be comfortable with walking 3 to 4 hours for consecutive days with ascents up to 400m per day. We suggest that you try to fit in a number of daily walks in hilly countryside before your trip and its always a good idea to spend some time walking in the footwear you are going to use on this holiday.

Climate

Croatia has a mostly dry climate, with a wonderful Mediterranean influence on the Adriatic Coast and islands. The hottest months are July and August when temperatures can reach up to 30 degrees C, ideal if you like the heat. Spring and autumn are much more pleasant for walking with milder temperatures, of course nowhere is without rain from time to time and December is the wettest month.

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that prior to travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. We receive regular updates direct from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.
