Introduction

Barcelona may be the Capital of Catalonia but there is far more to this fascinating region than Gaudi and the Sagrada Familia. This one week self-guided walking holiday offers you a chance to discover this autonomous region of Spain where the Pyrenees melt into the Mediterranean, and colourful fishing boats line the sleepy harbours. Starting in Collioure you will discover French Catalonia and France as you have never seen it before, crossing the border along the rugged coastline to unveil quiet hidden beaches. This is a small region of Europe with a huge history which pre-dates Spain itself. This trip has been designed to immerse you in its unique culture and to discover the region's medieval architecture, Jewish history and a peek into the fascinating mind of artist Salvador Dali, inspired by this special region.

Walking on average 4 to 5 hours a day you will walk through vineyards to Banyuls; graze the Pyrenees to unearth the history of the Romanesque Sant Pere de Rodes Monastery, perched high above the glistening Mediterranean; and follow the GR11 to the home of Salvador Dali in Port Lligat. You have the option to enjoy a free day in Cadaques to allow you the opportunity to swim in the azure waters, visit the many sights such as the church of Santa Maria, or simply relax in a café and watch the world go by. You will stay in small independently run 2* & 3* hotels each with a fantastic coastal location, the perfect retreat after a busy day exploring. Some hotels and guesthouses have swimming pools too for you to cool off and put your feet up at the end of the day. Staying on a bed and breakfast basis ensures you have the flexibility to visit the many local restaurants and sample the delicious delicacies this region produces.

Is this holiday for you?

If you love coastal walking, fantastic cuisine, discovering pretty Mediterranean towns and culture then this is the holiday for you. Staying in specially selected 2* & 3* hotels in pretty seaside villages you will experience the Catalanian's passion a world away from the larger resorts of the Costa Brava. Walking along the coast from Collioure to Cadaques you will see the subtle differences between the two countries as you cross the border into Spain. Walking on paths and quiet country roads for 4-5 hours a day with an average daily ascent of around 400-500m you will have plenty of time for sightseeing and to enjoy the beautiful beaches along your way.

Along your way you will discover the history of the region passing old fincas (farms) and brick ovens as you approach the lighthouse at Cap de Creus. Keeping local fishermen safe, the light house marks the most easterly point of Spain and the starting point for the famous GR11 long distance trail across the Pyrenees. It is here where the Pyrenees emerge from the Mediterranean Sea. You will have time to absorb the panorama and perhaps enjoy a lunch with a view at Restaurant del Cap de Creus. Leaving the lighthouse behind, you will follow an ancient path leading you to the holiday favourite of surrealist Salvador Dali: Port Lligat. Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

Catalan cuisine is rich, complex and sophisticated made with the best of Mediterranean produce making for a foodie heaven. Catalans aren't afraid of mixing flavours with many dishes combining sweet with savoury, meat with fruit or seafood, and chocolate isn't just savoured for desserts. Catalans often describe their cuisine as 'barroc i saboros' meaning baroque and tasty!

Whilst Barcelona is teeming with high Michelin restaurants with foams and froths, further up the coast and into France the cuisine is a little more simple but just as delicious, showcasing the geographical diversity of the region. Mealtimes are always a celebration of the regions culture often accompanied by pa amb tomaquet- toasted bread rubbed with tomato, olive oil and garlic. Breakfasts are typically continental with fruit, cereals and fresh pastries on offer, served with a cup of coffee. Cheese and hams are staples on lunchtime menus with fresh bread and salad. Whether you prefer to eat lunch in a pretty café or visit the local bakery and enjoy a picnic along your walk you are sure for a tasty meal. And when evening arrives dinners are a sociable affair to be enjoyed, served late into the evening with a glass of local wine and menus filled with the catch of the day, calcots (large sweet spring onions) and wild mushrooms.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Accommodation

We have designed this trip with comfort in mind with a great selection of small 2* & 3* hotels along your route, all with plenty of communal space to unwind after a day of exploring. All of the hotels offer something different and some have pool (seasonal opening times may apply) and spa facilities to cool off at the end of your day, or garden and terraces perfect for settling down with a good book after dinner.

All of our hotels have been carefully handpicked for their great locations and warm hospitality and are booked on a double or twin room basis with breakfast included, although some also offer delicious evening meals should you wish to sample them.

It is possible to arrange additional nights accommodation if you would like to extend your time in Collioure or Cadaques. Please speak to one of our sales team for further information.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace however getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. You should be comfortable with walking 5 to 6 hours a day for consecutive days.

Climate

Catalonia has a temperate Mediterranean climate with mild winters and hot summers. Winters are impacted by the Tramuntana winds making for some wild and rugged days as the wind blows. The peak summer months of June through to Early September will feel hot, bringing daytime temperatures over 30 degrees C, but early spring or autumn are great times to visit the area with less rain and warm sunshine, perfect for walking.

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.
