Introduction

With a rich tapestry of culture and history, rugged mountains and canyons, idyllic beaches and incredible cuisine, Crete has so much to offer to its visitors that it's hard to cram it all into one week. On this 9 day self-guided walking holiday, we've included some of the best highlights of southwest Crete to be discovered on foot at your own pace.

Your holiday begins in the historical harbour town of Chania where you will discover romantic Venetian architecture, before travelling high into the White Mountains to hike to the summit of Mt Gingilos (1,980m) and enjoy the peaceful mountain village of Omalos. From the rugged mountains you will hike through the magnificent Samaria Gorge, among the largest in Europe, before you emerge at the remote seaside village of Agia Roumeli and discover the many beautiful beaches on the coast. You will also have the opportunity to hike the dramatic Aradena Gorge and the awe-inspiring Imbros Gorge, both returning you to the coast where you will stay in secluded seaside villages including Loutro and Chora Sfakion, where you can have a real taste of Cretan identity and hospitality. Staying in small hotels and guesthouses on a B&B basis, you will be able to enjoy your choice of fresh and delicious Mediterranean food each night while watching the sun set on your adventure-filled day.

Is this holiday for you?

This holiday is perfect for regular walkers looking for an active walking holiday in dramatic terrain, while discovering new cultures and cuisines. Walking an average of 5-6 hours a day, you will be able to take your time and immerse yourself in the beauty of your surroundings. Due to the nature of the terrain, there are days with steep ascents utilising switchbacks, and long descents through canyons from mountain to the sea. The trails are mostly good and easy to follow, but there are some walks where you will encounter open scree and cross rough rocky terrain, such as the ascent of Gingilos and the descent of Aradena Gorge which both call for surefootedness and a head for heights. These routes can also have elements of scrambling with use of hands. Both of these days have alternative route options if you prefer an easier walk. Staying in a selection of perfectly located 2* & 3* local hotels and traditional guesthouses on a B&B basis, you'll be sure to receive warm Cretan hospitality throughout. You will also have the opportunity to enjoy a swim in the turquoise Mediterranean waters at each of the coastal villages you will stay.

Each self-guided holiday comes with comprehensive route notes and a map or pocket guidebook of the area you are exploring. The route notes contain information about the places you will visit and the local transport you might need, along with the detailed route notes for your daily walks or cycle rides. We even include some tips for the best places to stop for lunch.

You can expect to receive your Self-Guided Pack containing your route notes, a map or guidebook, and all your relevant documents, no later than 3 weeks before your holiday start-date. We will send your documents using a signed-for courier so that you can track your package and know that it is safely on its way to you. For bookings of more than 4 people we will send an additional Self-Guided Pack. If you do not need this additional pack please inform our Sales Team. Your pack will be sent to the lead booker, so please remind them to pack it before setting off.

Should your self-guided trip be part of a longer adventure requiring you to leave home more than three weeks before your holiday start-date, please inform our Sales Team so that we can make alternative delivery arrangements.

GPS Travel App

This holiday includes a GPS navigation app, which contains the routes for you to follow each day, as well as attractions, coffee stops and points of interest along the way. The app does not need to have Wi-Fi connection to work, you simply follow the instructions we provide you to download the app to your personal smartphone device before you leave home and you are ready to go.

While the travel app is running, your phone battery charge can be consumed faster than normal, so we strongly recommend that you pack a power bank with you just in case you require it.

Self-Guided Families

Our Self-Guided Holidays are perfect for your next family holiday and are suitable for children of all ages.

Our partner hotels and accommodations are able to provide cots for young children, and some offer family rooms. We can also arrange hire of children's bikes and tag along bikes for most of our self-guided cycling trips and with trips such as Lake Constance and the Danube offering routes on designated cycle paths you can rest assured in keeping your family safe.

As a parent we trust that you know your own child's capabilities, so please read the itinerary details to ensure the distances covered each day are suitable for your family. If this is a first time walking or cycling holiday for your family, a centre-based trip is a fantastic option as it allows you to easily opt out of a day's walking if a day of building sand castles, swimming in the pool, or visiting museums is calling instead.

Please discuss this further with our Sales Team who will be happy to assist in picking the best trip for your family.

Meal Plan

This trip is on a bed and breakfast basis to allow you the most flexibility during your holiday.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

Food in Crete is distinct from Greek food in general, influenced by all the visiting cultures to this island over time. With regional local specialties, Cretan cuisine is undoubtedly some of the best food on offer in the Mediterranean. Ingredients are sourced locally, are seasonal, and proudly reflect the produce of the region.

Popular Greek appetisers called mezedes can be a meal in itself, to be shared together at the table. Mezedes are representative of the local produce; if you are eating by the sea you can expect seafood dishes, or if you are in a mountain village you can expect cheeses, pies and meat dishes. You can experience a wonderful variety including olives, cheese, local bread and olive oil, dips of refreshing tzatziki or taramosalata, keftedakia (meatballs), calamari, dolmades (stuffed vine leaves), gigandes (lima beans in a tomato sauce), kalitsounia (snack sized traditional pies stuffed with cheese, that can be either savoury or sweet)... the combinations are endless!

Fresh Greek salads are abundant, generously dressed with quality locally produced olive oil and topped with delicious Cretan cheese. For those that enjoy meat dishes you can also find delicious souvlaki (barbecued meat) and kleftiko (slow cooked lamb), as well as moussaka formed of layers of sliced aubergine, potatoes and minced meat.

Regional specialties include chaniotiko bourteki - vegetable pie from Chania consisting of layered filo with slices of vegetables, potatoes and cheese; Sfakianopita, layers of unleavened dough and soft cheese, flattened like a crepe or pancake and fried until golden and crispy. This snack is believed to have been created by shepherds from Sfakia, hence its name. You might choose to sample the Cretan delicacy of hochlioi bourbouristi (fried snails) - eaten fresh in the summer months, enjoyed with a side of crusty bread and a glass of ouzo or raki. When you are by the coast you can find plentiful fresh seafood including squid, octopus and cuttlefish. Fish is often grilled whole and drizzled with lemon and oil dressing. Delicious saganaki can be with prawns or mussels, fried on the skillet and typically served with a tomato sauce and cheese.

For a sweet treat you can be tempted by baklava inherited from the Ottomans, formed of layers of filo pastry, nuts and honey; bougatsa, a traditional breakfast food of pastry stuffed with custard or cheese and sprinkled with powdered sugar; or xerotigana, deep fried pastry with honey and nuts. Yum!

Accommodation

For this holiday we have selected a combination of local 2* & 3* hotels and small traditional guesthouses, each chosen for its excellent location and warm welcome. Many have restaurants on-site where you can enjoy freshly cooked traditional dishes made with locally sourced ingredients. Additionally many of the accommodations in the coastal villages have rooms with sea views and lovely terraces from which you can watch the sunset, and are just a short hop from the sea so there is plenty of opportunity for swimming in the crystal clear waters of the Mediterranean. All our accommodations are booked in twin or double rooms on a bed and breakfast basis to allow you the flexibility to sample the local cuisine in your choice of restaurant or taverna.

It is possible to arrange additional nights accommodation if you would like to extend your stay in Crete. Please speak to one of our sales team for further details.

During high season you may be booked into an alternative accommodation of a similar standard in the area.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace however, getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. You should be comfortable with walking 5 to 6 hours for consecutive days on rugged paths. Some of the routes will take you on rough terrain with rocky sections and scree slopes or on coastal cliff paths where surefootedness and a head for heights is required to enjoy the views.

Climate

Crete has a temperate Mediterranean climate with mild, rainy winters and hot, dry summers. The best time of year for hiking on Crete is in the late spring (May to June) and early autumn (September and October). At these times daytime temperatures can range from low to high 20's Celsius, dropping at night to 10 degrees C in the mountains and 15 degrees C on the coast. Temperatures during the summer months of July and August are hot, reaching up to 30 degrees C during the day and with little chance of rain, and warm evenings.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.
