Introduction

Nestled in the Ampezzo valley in the heart of the soaring Dolomites, the desirable commune of Cortina, known as the Queen of the Dolomites, invites you to discover her many charms on this one-week self-guided walking holiday. This magnificent region proudly boasts a wealth of opportunities for adventure, including numerous hiking and skiing trails alongside adrenaline-pumping via ferrata and rock climbing routes. The draw of Cortina is not just outdoor sports - the many spas and wellness experiences set in the fresh mountain air with the dramatic backdrop of the surrounding peaks are highly sought after. This really is a premier destination for discerning travellers!

On this one-week Italian escape, you will find yourself inspired by breathtaking rugged peaks as you walk amongst the towers of the Tre Cime, Cinque Torri, and Tofana, enshrined in mountaineering legend. You will be enchanted by tranquil mountain lakes with mirror-like surfaces, and at dawn and dusk you will be treated to the stunning panorama of the pale limestone peaks seemingly set aflame with the spectacle of alpenglow. Bellissima!

Is this holiday for you?

If you love Italian Alpine architecture, salivate at the thought of hearty Italian cuisine, and are in your element surrounded by the high peaks, then this one-week self-guided walking holiday in the Dolomites is just perfect. Based for the whole week in a well rated 3-star hotel in the heart of the luxurious town of Cortina d'Ampezzo, you can enjoy the best of the Dolomites and soak up the buzz of this popular holiday destination. Using the excellent bus network to get around to your walks, and cable cars to reach the high passes, we have specially designed this trip so you can experience the wonderful feeling of being up amongst the high peaks - yet without as much effort as you might otherwise have to make. You will walk up to 15km with an ascent of up to 700m per day on lovely alpine paths. Plus, the advantage of a centre-based trip means that if you feel like having a day of relaxing instead of a day hiking, you can easily do so. After all, this is your holiday to spend as you wish.

We even include some tips for the best places to stop for lunch.

You can expect to receive your Self-Guided Pack containing your route notes, a map or guidebook, and all your relevant documents, no later than 3 weeks before your holiday start-date. We will send your documents using a signed-for courier so that you can track your package and know that it is safely on its way to you. For bookings of more than 4 people we will send an additional Self-Guided Pack. If you do not need this additional pack please inform our Sales Team. Your pack will be sent to the lead booker, so please remind them to pack it before setting off.

Should your self-guided trip be part of a longer adventure requiring you to leave home more than three weeks before your holiday start-date, please inform our Sales Team so that we can make alternative delivery arrangements.

Self-Guided Families

Our Self-Guided Holidays are perfect for your next family holiday and are suitable for children of all ages.

Our partner hotels and accommodations are able to provide cots for young children, and some offer family rooms. We can also arrange hire of children's bikes and tag along bikes for most of our self-guided cycling trips and with trips such as Lake Constance and the Danube offering routes on designated cycle paths you can rest assured in keeping your family safe.

As a parent we trust that you know your own child's capabilities, so please read the itinerary details to ensure the distances covered each day are suitable for your family. If this is a first time walking or cycling holiday for your family, a centre-based trip is a fantastic option as it allows you to easily opt out of a day's walking if a day of building sand castles, swimming in the pool, or visiting museums is calling instead.

Please discuss this further with our Sales Team who will be happy to assist in picking the best trip for your family.

Joining Arrangements & Transfers

The trip starts and ends at Cortina d'Ampezzo. All of our self-guided holidays are sold on a Land Only basis, allowing you the flexibility to choose the travel method that best suits you. The nearest airport is Venice Marco Polo Airport, which is well-served with flights from UK regional airports.

It is possible to take an express bus service from Marco Polo Airport to Cortina, with the journey taking approximately 2 hours. It is advisable to book your tickets for the bus service in advance, particularly in the peak summer months. Please visit www.cortinaexpress.it or telephone +39 04 36 867 350 to arrange this.

Please note that it is quite normal for the exact bus times not to be confirmed until only a couple of months before.

Another company which provides a similar bus service is ATVO. They also usually offer two services daily, and similarly it is advisable to book your seat in advance. This can be booked online at www.atvo.it.

Meal Plan

This trip is on a bed and breakfast basis to allow you the most flexibility during your holiday.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

One of the great things about this trip is being able to enjoy a spectrum Italian food as you wish, from delicious hearty food served in the mountain huts, to typically Italian fayre in the excellent selection of restaurants in Cortina, more unusual dishes in Michelin-star establishments, and coffee and snacks 'the Alpine way' in the local cafés. With so many culinary delights to enjoy, we have designed this programme on a bed and breakfast basis, allowing you to sample as many as you like.

Breakfasts are typically continental with fruit, cereals and fresh pastries on offer, served with a cup of coffee. An interesting bread typical of the region and one you are likely to see at breakfast time is Puccia - a type of rye bread containing a local variety of wild fennel seeds.

Along your walks, you will find inviting mountain huts and cafes and, in the evenings, there are many fine restaurants from which to choose. Some of the local specialities include Casunziei all'Ampezzana - half-moon shaped ravioli served with melted butter, parmesan, and poppy seeds. The red ones are sweet and filled with beetroot, whilst the green ones have a more savoury flavour and are stuffed with spinach and Swiss chard. Another yummy pasta-based dish very typical of the region since ancient times is Spätzle, a very small type of gnocchi typically served the smoked ham (Speck) and cream. Or how about Canederli - dumplings made from Speck and bread, potato, or semolina, and served in broth either as a main dish perhaps with a side of kale, or served as a side dish to a roast or a stew or goulash.

After a great day's walking and exploring we love a good apple strudel with perhaps a scoop of ice cream or some vanilla custard and a coffee - even as a dessert if we still have room for one! Each region has its special way of doing this dish, and here you'll tend to find them flavoured with cloves and cinnamon. Another sweet treat you might enjoy is Fartaies - battered fritters fried in oil and served warm with red bilberry jam. Whatever you choose to eat, in this part of the Dolomites you might decide to round off your meal with a Grappa al Ciariè - an Italian brandy flavoured with wild cumin and typically enjoyed after dinner here.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Accommodation

You will be based for the week in a comfortable 3-star historic hotel in Cortina. Decorated in a typically Alpine style, rooms here boast views of the surrounding mountains and you will be sure to feel immersed in the heart of the Dolomites. The hotel offers a great breakfast buffet to help fuel your adventures, and a restaurant serving up delicious traditional cuisine if you decide not to go out for your evening meal.

Rooms are on a double or twin basis, some with Austrian-style twin beds as is traditional in this area (two mattresses within one double bed frame with separate bedding for each person).

It is possible to arrange additional nights' accommodation if you would like to enjoy this fantastic region a little longer - please speak to our Sales Team for more information.

Please note that during high season you may be booked into alternative accommodation of a similar standard in the area.

Baggage Allowance

For this holiday you should take one piece of luggage and a daypack. Luggage with wheels is useful for this holiday.

The information that we provide is for UK passport holders.

For other nationalities, please refer to your own Government website for the latest information.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you have the correct travel documents including vaccinations and health certificates (see Health & Vaccinations below), and visas for your holiday. Please ensure that you check the FCDO for the latest advice for each country visited before travel.

Health & Vaccinations

Vaccinations

You should contact your doctor or travel clinic to check whether you require any specific vaccinations.

GHIC / Medical cover

UK residents should carry a free Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC). This entitles you to state provided medical treatment when you're visiting an EU country or Switzerland. This is not a substitute for medical travel insurance which is vital when travelling overseas.

Severe Allergies

Please inform our KE Sales and Support team of any severe allergies you may have before travel. We will always do our best to help but we are unable to guarantee an allergy free environment on our KE trips. We advise that you always carry your own treatment for the allergy with you such as 'adrenaline auto-injectors' if required. We also recommend that you discuss this with your accommodation on arrival so that they can better assist you.

Currency

The currency for part or all of this holiday is the Euro.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace however getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. You should be comfortable with walking 4 to 5 hours for consecutive days. We suggest that you try to fit in a number of daily walks in hilly countryside before your trip and it's always a good idea to spend some time walking in the footwear you are going to use on this holiday.

Climate

Northern Italy is in the middle European climate zone, making for warm summers and cold winters. The warm days of spring fill the meadows with beautiful wild flowers, although the evenings can still be cool. Temperatures in the autumn are similar. Temperatures in Cortina d'Ampezzo (1,224m) from June through September see average lows of 11 degrees centigrade at night and highs of 29 degrees centigrade during the day. Temperatures higher up, at around 2,000m, are slightly lower - with typical average night-time lows of 10 degrees centigrade and daytime highs of 20 degrees centigrade. As usual when hiking in the mountains, a range of layers is advised, and as rainfall in the region occurs in all seasons, pack your waterproofs just in case.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.

Books

The Dolomites and Their Legends - Karl Felix Wolf

The Alpine Corps on the Dolomite Front, 1915: Myth and Reality - Immanuel Voigt

The White War: Life and Death on the Italian Front 1915-1919 - Mark Thompson

Travel Insurance

It is an essential condition of joining a holiday with KE Adventure Travel that you have a valid travel insurance policy to cover the cost of medical treatment and to protect the value of your holiday in the event of cancellation. When taking out insurance please ensure the policy you choose covers you for the activities and altitude included in your itinerary.

For appropriate insurance cover we recommend Campbell Irvine Direct. Please go to our Travel Insurance page for further information and to get a quote.
