Staying at carefully selected traditional family-run hotels and holiday apartments on a B&B basis, you will enjoy a warm Cypriot welcome and have plenty of opportunity to savour the local culinary delights at your choice of restaurants and tavernas each night. Self-Guided Families

Our Self-Guided Holidays are perfect for your next family holiday and are suitable for children of all ages.

Our partner hotels and accommodations are able to provide cots for young children, and some offer family rooms. We can also arrange hire of children's bikes and tag along bikes for most of our self-guided cycling trips and with trips such as Lake Constance and the Danube offering routes on designated cycle paths you can rest assured in keeping your family safe.

As a parent we trust that you know your own child's capabilities, so please read the itinerary details to ensure the distances covered each day are suitable for your family. If this is a first time walking or cycling holiday for your family, a centre-based trip is a fantastic option as it allows you to easily opt out of a day's walking if a day of building sand castles, swimming in the pool, or visiting museums is calling instead.

Please discuss this further with our Sales Team who will be happy to assist in picking the best trip for your family.

Joining Arrangements & Transfers

The trip starts and ends at Larnaca Airport. All of our self-guided holidays are sold on a Land Only basis allowing you the flexibility to choose the travel method which best suits you. The nearest airport for this trip is Larnaca with many departures from regional UK airports; it is also here where you will collect your hire car for the week.

Meal Plan

This trip is arranged on a bed & breakfast basis to allow you the most flexibility during your holiday.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

With the abundance of sunshine experienced, Cyprus is a fruitful island and you will have plenty of opportunity to enjoy delightfully fresh local produce. Cypriot cuisine is a blend of Greek, Turkish, Mediterranean and Middle Eastern cultures, with hearty meat dishes and delicious cheeses, along with fresh fruit and vegetables. Cypriots have many traditions related to gastronomy; food is considered an integral part of the culture and the way to proudly demonstrate their warm hospitality.

The traditional Meze is synonymous with Cyprus - an amazing array of small dishes that combine to make a sharing feast. These mouth-watering dishes can include dips, succulent meats, fresh fish, salad, vegetables, pulses, olives and halloumi cheese. The perfect way to sample a variety of flavours if you're finding it hard to decide!

Other traditional dishes include grilled meat kebabs called souvlakia and herby grilled sausage called sheftalia; roasted goat; stuffed vegetables called gemista and stuffed vine leaves called koupepia (we may also know of these as dolmades); moussaka; and kleftiko - a hearty slow cooked meat stew.

For a sweet treat, loukoumades are deep fried dough balls soaked in honey and coated in crushed nuts.

Coffee is also inherent in the culture and a strong indication of their hospitable nature, traditionally served very strong and with a glass of cold water, without milk. The coffee should be sipped slowly, and the thick layer at the bottom not consumed.

The wines of Cyprus are still relatively unknown but is a hidden gem waiting to be discovered. Wine production has a long history dating back hundreds of years with traditional local and foreign grape varieties used. Indigenous varieties include Mavro, Xynisteri, Moscato, Malaga and Lefkada. Be sure to have a taste of the Commandaria sweet wine, known as the wine of kings and the oldest wine in the world, coming from the time of the Crusaders. This dessert wine comes from a Protected Denomination of Origin, only produced in 14 villages on the slopes of the Troodos mountains. Did we also mention it's delicious?

Accommodation

For this holiday you will stay in a hand picked selection of family-run 3* hotels, showcasing the different landscapes of the island and each with its own unique character.

In Tochni, well known for its agrotourism, you will stay in restored traditional stone-built houses that have been converted to a collection of holiday apartments spread throughout the charming village. The holiday complexes typically have a shared courtyard or terrace and sometimes a pool, offering beguiling views over the surrounding countryside. Depending on availability, you may be accommodated in a hotel in the neighbouring village of Kalavassos, in a similarly converted traditional stone house typical of the area. Air conditioning at these hotels may be at a small additional charge, payable directly to the hotel.

Your hotel in Pano Platres is a part of the cultural heritage of Cyprus: a resort hotel located amidst forests of tall pine, full of history and coupled with modern amenities. A perfect base from which to explore the Troodos Mountains.

At the coastal nature reserve of Akamas, you will stay in a hotel close to the sea, with a pool and gardens. The small town centre of Polis is within easy walking distance, and the pebble beach and azure waters is just a stone's throw away, perfect for a refreshing dip and relaxing in the Cypriot sunshine.

Accommodations are subject to availability and can change. Any alternatives offered will be of a similar standard.

Baggage Allowance

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace however getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. You should be comfortable with walking 2 to 4 hours each day for consecutive days.

Climate

Cyprus enjoys an intense Mediterranean climate, with sunny skies for around 360 days of the year. Summers from June to September are hot and dry, while winter months from November to March are mild, and snow can fall in the Troodos Mountains.

The best time to visit Cyprus on an active holiday is in the spring, when the temperatures are pleasant and the flora is luxuriant in bloom. In April and May, coastal regions experience average daytime temperatures around 22-25 C, while temperatures in the Troodos Mountains can reach an average of 19-24 C during the day.

Summer months bring intense heat, alleviated in some ways by the sea breeze while on the coast and the relatively cooler air of the mountains. In the months of July and August, temperatures can reach an average of 30-32 C in coastal regions, while cities inland can reach a toasty 37 C.

Autumn can still be warm and humid, with temperatures dropping only slightly in September and October to around 25-28 C.
