DAY 1

Arrive in Leon and discover the city's fantastic architecture.

Arrive in Leon, check into your accommodation in the heart of this wonderful city and receive the first stamp in your pilgrim passport. Depending on your time of arrival, we recommend taking the opportunity to immerse yourself in the history of Leon's stunning architecture. From the famous Convento de San Marcos, considered one of the most important Renaissance buildings in Spain, to the beautiful French-style Gothic cathedral and Saint Isidore's Basilica with its royal pantheon decorated in colourful frescoes, Leon's architecture tells the story of its fascinating history and is bursting with charm for you to discover. The city is also home to Gaudi's Casa Botines - the famous architect produced masterpieces not only in Barcelona but in the north of Spain too - and the Casa Botines is the first example of his work that you will see along your Way. As the evening draws in the city truly comes alive, with its vibrant bars and restaurants bustling with locals, pilgrims, and tourists alike.

DAY 2

Begin your Camino by walking to Hospital de Orbigo.

The first day of your Camino takes you through some spectacular scenery as you make your way towards Hospital de Orbigo and the silhouettes of the spectacular Picos de Europa mountain range begin to appear on the skyline. As you approach the town, your route will take you over the famous Passo Honroso Bridge, one of the longest bridges on the French Way. Famed for its 20 arches of different sizes, this stunning 204-metre-long medieval bridge has been a crossing point over the Orbigo River since the 13th century. Legend has it that noble knight Don Suero de Quinones was enslaved by his love for Dona Leonor and was under pledge to fast every Thursday and wear a heavy iron ring around his neck. In order to undo the pledge and win Dona Leonor's affections, he promised to challenge all knights who passed over the Passo Honroso Bridge to a jousting duel. He duelled time and time again without success; however, the local judges recognised his efforts and freed him from the iron ring. For this reason, the bridge is named the Passo Honroso, or Honourable Crossing. Having crossed the bridge yourself and completed the longest day of your Camino, you can enjoy a tasty dinner at your accommodation and perhaps a glass of wine too.

FESTIVAL: Each year on the first weekend in June, a festival is held in honour of knight Don Suero de Quinones, with the locals celebrating his legend at the Passo Honroso Medieval Jousting Festival. The town comes alive with people dressed as knights, monks, peasants and archers, while jousting shows, medieval dances and games take place. It is a true Spanish Fiesta.

NOTE: If you would prefer, it is possible to shorten your walk today to 27km. This is easily managed by taking a public bus from Leon to La Virgen del Camino where you can begin today's stage of your French Way instead.

DAY 3

Walk through the Valley of the Churches to Astorga.

Today's stage of the Way will take you through the gently rolling farmlands of the so-called Valley of the Churches, first passing through the village of Villares de Orbigo, then to the hamlet of Santibanez de Valdeiglesias, nestled on the fertile plain of the Orbigo River. From here, your route becomes somewhat rural with only the scallops of Saint James to lead you through the farmlands, first to the village of San Justo de la Vega and, just a few kilometres further on, to the splendid town of Astorga. You will have time to check into your accommodation and take a stroll through the streets of this popular pilgrim town. Perched upon a hilltop, with a backdrop of mountains to the west, Astorga has much to offer, from its beautiful cathedral to the second Gaudi building of your Way - el Palacio Episcopal, translating as the Bishops' Palace. You will have time to explore the town before enjoying an evening meal at your accommodation.

Walk to Rabanal del Camino through the Montes de Leon hills.

Your route today will take you steadily uphill through the region of La Maragateria, crossing the hills of Montes de Leon before arriving in Rabanal del Camino. This charming little stone-built village has been a popular stopping point for pilgrims throughout the centuries, as a final resting point before the terrain becomes more rugged. It has played an important role in the Camino's history with the Knights Templar settling both here and in the larger town of Ponferrada on the opposite side of the mountains to ensure a safe journey for pilgrims. You too will stay here for the night, enjoying an evening meal at your accommodation and the bohemian feel the town now holds.

Discover the Cruz de Ferro and the Knights Templar Castle of Ponferrada.

Your route today will take you past one of the key landmarks of the French Camino, the Cruz de Ferro (1,500m) - the highest point of the French Way and arguably the spot with the best panoramas of the entire route. Although the metal cross a-top a 5-metre high wooden pole acts as a welcoming beacon for pilgrims helping them on their Way, its original purpose is somewhat of a mystery. The most popular theory is that Saint James himself erected the cross. Today, the cross is part of a tradition of the pilgrimage, with pilgrims bringing a stone from their home to leave at the foot of the cross to symbolise leaving their burdens behind - hence the mound of stones which now surrounds the cross.

Having absorbed the views and the tranquillity offered by the Cruz de Ferro, you descend through Manjarin and on through El Acebo and Molinaseca. You will soon reach your final goal of the day and the second outpost of the Knights Templar, Ponferrada, with its magnificent castle that once housed them. Having completed your Way for today you can immerse yourself in the town's atmospheric historic centre and enjoy a glass of wine and some tapas. We recommend the house wine as it will likely be from the fantastic local vineyards!

DAY 6

Walk through the vineyards of Bierzo to reach Villafranca del Bierzo.

This morning you will have the opportunity to explore more of Ponferrada's beautiful old quarter, where the 16th-century city hall and Torre de Reloj (clock tower) dominate the Plaza del Ayuntamiento. Heading off on your Way again, today offers contrasting landscapes as you first walk through Compostilla - a former mining town - then on through the wine region of Bierzo. Passing through small villages you will reach the town of Cacabelos where the Archaeological Museum is worth a quick visit before continuing on to Villafranca del Bierzo, your home for tonight. Villafranca is one of the most important stops on the French Way before entering Galicia, and over the centuries many hospitals set up here to care for the unwell. At the impressive 12th-century Church of Santiago Villafranca, sick pilgrims could be gifted religious indulgences as if they had reached the Cathedral in Santiago de Compostela, including the jubilee blessing.

DAY 7

Reach O Cebreiro, the border town of Galicia, and discover its fascinating palloza houses.

Today will take you along the so-called 'queen' stage of the French Way as you ascend to the town of O Cebreiro, the first town on the Way in Galicia. Your route will take you through rolling landscape offering fantastic views along valleys, across farmland, and over the tiny hamlets scattered below. Many of these hamlets have just 50 inhabitants or fewer, making your Way today particularly peaceful. This is a symbolic stage as you cross into Galicia and find yourself ever closer to Santiago de Compostela, and often makes a point for reflection as you recall how far you have come on your journey, the people you have met, the landscapes you have experienced, and you realise that you are now half-way along your journey. Completing a final ascent you will reach O Cebreiro, recognisable by its palloza dwellings. These fascinating circular buildings topped with thatched roofs are typical of this region and date back to Neolithic times, and were inhabited until the second half of the 20th century when modern building concepts were introduced to the area. You will have time to explore the pallozas before checking into your accommodation for the night.

Descend through Galician countryside with welcoming villages to Triacastela.

Your day begins on the most beautiful crest of a ridge offering fantastic views. From this point, your route is largely downhill as you make your way down through the green countryside and pine and eucalyptus woodlands of Galicia. This section of your Way is much more populous than yesterday, providing many opportunities to stop off and enjoy a coffee in the villages en-route. Finally you reach the small town of Triacastela, from where you will take a short transfer to your accommodation in neighbouring Samos.

DAY 9
A choice of routes from Triacastela to Sarria.

Today begins with a short transfer back to Triacastela to pick up the Way where you left it the day before. From Triacastela you have the option to choose one of two routes to Sarria. The first takes you north of the village of Samos and through the countryside. This option is the most direct and is 6km shorter than the other, however we recommend making the additional effort and taking the second option if your legs can be persuaded.

The second option will take you along a scenic route and is relatively easy under foot as you make your way through the villages of San Cristovo, Lusio, and Renche before reaching Samos where you stayed the previous night. While Samos is a small village, it has a magnificent abbey that warrants the extra kilometres. Although there has been a monastery here since the 6th century, alert architecture buffs will notice that the one standing here today dates from the 18th century - in fact, the original was destroyed by fire in 1536. You will have time to admire this fabulous building before continuing through the rural landscapes to Sarria, a popular starting point on the French Way for those wishing to experience the final 100km to Santiago. You will spend the night here and have the opportunity to enjoy the buzz of excitement of travellers who are already on their Way and have made it as far as the last 100km, and those who are yet to begin their journey.

DAY 10
Walk through the heart of Galicia and cross the Minho River to reach Portomarin.

Feeling rested, your route today will take you through the green heartland of Galicia where the landscape is scattered with pretty, stilted grain stores known as horreos. As you pass through this bewitching landscape with its quaint little villages, you will have plenty of opportunities to stop at one of the local cafes to enjoy tasty Galician delicacies before crossing the impressive Roman bridge over the Minho River to reach your final goal, Portomarin. This lovely village was completely moved, brick by brick between 1956 and 1962, to its current location for the construction of a dam that since floods the village's original location. During the dry season when water levels drop, some remains of the old village can be seen once again. Spending the night in the village, you can enjoy a relaxed evening meal at your accommodation.

DAY 11

Discover Castro cultural history as you walk to Palas de Rei.

This morning will find you ascending steadily as you make your way through the village of Gonzar to Castromaior. The fortified settlement here will give you a taste of what Castro culture was like before the invasion of the Romans, who also left their mark on the village in the form of a small Romanesque church. Continuing, you will pass through small villages where you can enjoy a spot of lunch. Your route soon levels out as it takes you through fragrant eucalyptus plantations and leads you to Palas de Rei. The town was a major hub for pilgrims during the Middle Ages as they gathered to face the final stretch of their journey together. Today, the town remains a popular overnight stop for pilgrims and is a hive of activity. You too will spend the night in the town before embarking on the final few days of your journey.

DAY 12

Walk to Arzua and merge with pilgrims from the Camino Primitivo for the final stage of your journey.

Today you say farewell to Palas de Rei, passing its modern Santiago Peregrino statue to re-join the French Way as it leads you through a verdant landscape studded with beautiful traditional houses known as pazos, each with a raised granary much like the horreos you passed earlier in your journey. You will soon reach Melide, where the Camino Primitivo (originating in Asturias) and the French Way Camino come together. Melide is an interesting town and you may wish to pay a visit to the museum, housed in the former Hospital de Peregrinos, that displays its history. As you leave the town, you will also pass the 12th-century Iglesia de Santa Maria with its impressive stone altar and beautiful frescoes that are worth stopping to see. Finally, you arrive in Arzua and your home for the night. The town has a long history of welcoming pilgrims and, although now in ruins, the 14th-century convent of La Madalena once provided shelter for poor pilgrims. You will have time to appreciate this special town before enjoying an evening meal and resting ahead of the final stages of your Way.

Discover the healing waters of Santa Irene as you walk to Lavacolla.

Your penultimate day on the French Way will take you to Lavacolla, where there is a tradition for pilgrims to carry out the ritual of washing their feet in the river. Leaving Arzua, you will follow wide tracks and pass through short sections of woodland as well as through quaint hamlets. You will notice the Camino is a little busier now, as not only has the Camino Primitivo joined the route but so has the Camino del Norte. Walking together with pilgrims who have taken different paths, you will make your way ever closer to Santiago de Compostela. You will pass through Santa Irene with its hermitage dedicated to the Portuguese holy martyr and its Baroque fountain that is said to provide healing waters. Soon after, you will arrive in Lavacolla where you can enjoy a restful evening ahead of the final stretch to Santiago the next day.

Stand proud at the foot of the cathedral of Santiago de Compostela.

Today is the day you complete the French Way Camino from Leon. Having followed tradition and bathed your feet in the river, you begin your final day on the French Way. A final ascent over Monte do Gozo that, at an elevation of 370m, provides the most satisfying first glimpse of Santiago de Compostela and the towers of its cathedral. Descending from Monte do Gozo, the final few kilometres soon pass as you enter the city and reach your final goal - the cathedral of Santiago de Compostela. This is often an emotional moment as the realisation of completing your Camino sinks in. Soon you will join fellow pilgrims from around the world in reaching the resting place of Saint James in the spectacular cathedral. This is a proud moment and you will have time to absorb it before making your way to your accommodation for a well-earned rest.

OBTAINING THE COMPOSTELA: To cope with large numbers of pilgrims during the busiest summer months, the pilgrim office has installed a numbered ticketing system for processing your pilgrim passport. Please be aware that you may have to return to collect your certificate the next morning and that you will need to present your pilgrim passport.

Meal Plan

This trip is on a half-board basis for the 12 nights spent in smaller towns along your route; we have left your evening meals open for the other 2 nights, where there are several options from which to choose (Leon, Santiago de Compostela).

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

Castilla y Leon is the largest region in Spain, and its cuisine is rather different to that found on the coast - you'll find fewer seafood-based dishes and more stews, often featuring chickpeas or morcilla (a type of blood sausage). The real speciality of this region is its Cochinillo Asado (roast suckling pig) or Cordero Asado (roast lamb) - great options for meat eaters! Simply cooked and full of flavour, you are sure to enjoy such a delicious dish after a day of walking.

Bread in this region is fantastic and was often a communal affair in the villages where communities gathered to bake it in the village oven. We recommend visiting the local bakery for your picnic supplies so that you can enjoy a taste of this long-standing staple.

As you cross into Galicia and edge nearer to the coast, you will notice this region's love of seafood. Yet, compared with coastal regions further to the south in Spain, Galicia's cuisine is less about paella and more about delicious Pulpo a la Gallega, a traditional dish of the region that comprises succulent boiled octopus on top of a bed of thinly sliced potatoes, topped with olive oil and paprika. Let's not forget the tasty treat of Santiago, the Tarta de Santiago (literally 'Cake of Saint James'), made from ground almonds and decorated with powdered sugar stencilled with the Cross of Saint James. Yummy!

Accommodation

On this trip you will stay in a selection of comfortable, simple 2-star or 3-star hotels and guesthouses, each offering warm hospitality and close proximity to your route. Each accommodation brings its own charm whether it is a small family-run guesthouse offering beautiful gardens in which to relax or a 3-star hotel close to many restaurants.

The accommodation throughout this trip is in a twin or double room. It is on a half-board basis for the 12 nights spent in the smaller towns along your route. We have left your evening meals open (i.e. on a bed and breakfast basis) for the other 2 nights, where there are several options from which to choose (Leon, Santiago de Compostela).

It is possible to arrange additional nights' accommodation if you would like to extend your time in Leon or Santiago de Compostela. Please contact our Sales Team for more information.

Baggage Allowance

Your main luggage will be transferred between each of your hotels while you are out walking. We ask that you please ensure your main luggage is limited to one piece under 13kg per person and that your luggage is ready for collection each morning. Any additional pieces will incur an additional cost. You will also need a daypack to carry your daily essentials with you whilst you are walking.

You may even wish to make this holiday part of a bigger adventure or pair it with one of our other holidays. We can arrange additional nights' accommodation before or after your self-guided trip - please ask our Sales Team to find out more about this.

Our Sales Team will be happy to provide you with a quote for scheduled flights, or alternatively you may wish to book your own flights with a low cost carrier from your nearest regional airport.

Please DO NOT book your flights before you have received your booking confirmation and your deposit has been taken.

We offer some transfers to your accommodation from the nearest airports - please refer to the 'Joining Arrangements & Transfers' section for further details for this trip.
