Introduction

A beautiful holiday for anyone who is wanting to see Svalbard from a different perspective. We will explore the bays of Ymerbukta and Tryghamna; arguably, the most beautiful sites of the Isfjord, with the impressive Esmark glacier (one of the few in Spitsbergen that is still advancing) providing a backdrop like no other. We are very likely to see polar foxes, seals, and reindeer - especially when gently paddling along hardly making a sound. The amazing cliffs of Alkhornet also provide incredible bird watching opportunities. In these moments we have plenty of time for photography and observation. We end our journey by visiting the ghost town of Barentsburg, a former mining base from the Soviet era. A gentle paced holiday, allowing us to see and experience the true beauty of Svalbard.

Is this holiday for you?

Kayaking experience is required (although not specifically sea kayaking), and a very good level of fitness is essential.

Double kayaks will be used throughout (guides might use single kayaks).

We will be spending a lot of time on the water. As a safety precaution, you must be able to competently swim a minimum distance of 25 metres and you should be comfortable with the idea of being completely submerged under water.

Each day will consist of about 4 to 6 hours of kayaking with additional walks from the campsites. The hikes are often ascents of fairly low altitude summits (less than 1000m, most often from 300 to 500m). It is quite common to pass through scree and/or snowfields and there are no marked paths.

A big part of this holiday is participation - from putting up your tent or packing it away, to helping with meal preparation and loading/unloading the kayaks- it's all part of the adventure and when everyone puts in a little effort the camp will run smoothly and for many this is one of the best parts of experience!

The camping is of a basic level. There is no infrastructure from the moment we leave Longyearbyen, we have to transport everything (tent, sleeping bag, clothes, meals and food, etc.) on our kayaks; pack and unload them, and carry equipment to and from camp when necessary.

Please be aware that, due to the possibility of encountering polar bears, it is compulsory for any guide on Svalbard to carry a gun. At camp you will also be asked to participate in guard tours. This does not mean guarding yourself against a bear, but simply keeping watch and warning the guide of the possible presence of a bear.

The day to day itinerary is for guidance only and flexibility is paramount. The itinerary may vary depending on local ice and weather conditions and in order to take advantage of opportunities to see wildlife.

Joining Arrangements & Transfers

Travelling to your Destination

If flying from the UK there are low cost airlines available to the start and from the end of your holiday.

To benefit from full financial protection, ease your holiday planning, and avoid dealing with airlines, we can book scheduled flights from the UK as part of a flight inclusive package. Scheduled flights are usually more expensive than low cost alternatives, however potentially less stressful if your flight is cancelled or delayed. If you book flights through KE Adventure Travel we will offset the carbon of your flight.

Day 1

Meet at the accommodation in Longyearbyen. Airport transfers are not provided.

Arrival can be at anytime, however we strongly recommend arriving earlier in the day to help avoid issues with delayed flights (The boat has a set departure time on Day 2 and this can not be changed).

Day 10

Departure can be at any time on this day.

Airport transfers are not provided.

Meal Plan

All meals from breakfast on day 2 to breakfast on day 10 included.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Food & Water

In general, we have a hearty breakfast, and lunch is much lighter, as we do not want it to interrupt the day too much. In the evening there is much more time, to set up the tents and make the fire (when there is wood and in the authorized areas). We try, as far as possible, to include as much fresh food as possible (fruits and vegetables).

The evening meal is usually, soup, "main course" and dessert (and maybe a dram of whiskey or similar - if you have brought this with you).

Accommodation

In Longyearbyen we have two nights in a guest house. This will be in twin rooms with shared bathrooms. Wi-fi will be available here.

During the trip we have 7 nights of basic camping. The tents are 3 person expedition tents (which we use for two people). There is also a mess tent where meals can be eaten.

While camping, there is no access to wi-fi and phone reception is very unlikely.

Everyone is required to help with setting up and dismantling the campsites - we are a small team and need to work together throughout the holiday.

Group Leader & Support Staff

The group will be led by an experienced and qualified leader.

Altitude

This holiday does not involve any significant ascent to altitude and we would not expect any altitude issues with this trip.

Spending Money

Important - please make sure you already have local currency when you arrive in Svalbard as there is no where to change money at the airport and there are no ATMs in Longyearbyen.

Approximately £150 per person (or equivalent in US dollars or Euros) should be allowed for additional expenses. This will include the bus from the airport into town any food on day 1, drinks with the last meal and any food purchased after breakfast on the last day. Please bear in mind that food and drink in Longyearbyen is quite expensive due to the difficulty in getting it there.

Additional Information

In Spitsbergen, carrying a gun is compulsory for the guide because of the presence of polar bears. You will be asked to participate in the guard tours. This does not mean guarding yourself against a bear, but simply warning the guide of the possible presence.

Group Size & Holiday Status

For each holiday there is a minimum number of participants required to enable it to go ahead. Once the minimum number is reached, the trip status will change from 'Available' to 'Guaranteed to run'. You can check the trip status for each departure in the 'Dates and Prices' table. Other than in exceptional circumstances, we will not cancel a trip once it has achieved this guaranteed to run status so you are free to proceed with your international flight booking and other travel arrangements.

It is an essential condition of joining a holiday with KE Adventure Travel that you have a valid travel insurance policy to cover the cost of medical treatment and to protect the value of your holiday in the event of cancellation. When taking out insurance please ensure the policy you choose covers you for the activities and altitude included in your itinerary.
