Introduction

This is THE adventure holiday for families who want to explore some of the incredible palaces and sites of Rajasthan whilst ensuring there is time for relaxing by the pool, enjoying cycle rickshaw rides, making curries, watching a Bollywood movie; a real immersion into the bustle of Indian life.

We will explore the sights of Old Delhi and take a rickshaw ride down its charming backstreets and market stalls. We'll board a train to Agra, visit the fort and then the iconic Taj Mahal at sunset. Here, we will experience the magic of the golden rays of last light draped upon the intricately carved facades of this most beautiful of buildings. We will have a cycle rickshaw cycle around the wetlands at Bharatpur, whilst enveloped in the thrum of a bewildering array of wildlife.

At the world-renowned Ranthambore National Park, we ramp up our wild experiences with the opportunity on our autumn or spring trips, to seek out an elusive tiger on one of our two included game drives. We may even find time for a cricket match with the local children here. We visit the forts and palaces of the 'Pink City' of Jaipur, we head to the cinema to catch a Bollywood movie and, for the budding chefs amongst us, we have a cookery lesson too! Be swept along by this whirlwind tour of one of the most fast paced and exciting regions of India, Rajasthan.

Is this holiday for you?

Suitable for children from 6yrs old

This is a family adventure holiday to some of the greatest attractions of Northern India. Our longer journeys are by train which makes travelling easier and more interesting. Any road transfers are in air-conditioned private vehicles. We use a high standard of accommodation, with the majority of hotels outside Delhi having swimming pools. Our guides are well versed in keeping the children entertained and will ensure a steady stream of activities such as quizzes and cricket matches arranged with local children.

Meal Plan

All breakfasts and dinners are included in the holiday price. You can choose your own lunch and the guide will suggest a suitable establishment, or they will be taken at the hotel. The food in India is delicious and there will always be plenty of choice.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Food & Water

Part of the experience of a family holiday to India is the truly amazing food on offer. Most of us are familiar with Indian cuisine but the real thing can be quite different to the dishes we know from Indian restaurants. In all the places that we stay it will also be possible to order western-style dishes.

It is not recommended to drink untreated water from the taps. Water will be filtered via a reverse osmosis system and provided by the hotels or in large jerry cans or 5 litre bottles on the bus. Additionally you should take purification tablets or a filter bottle (such as a Water-To-Go bottle) to treat your water, as an extra precautionary measure. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

Accommodation

In Delhi we have 2 nights in a centrally located hotel. In Agra, Bharatpur, Ranthambore and Jaipur we stay in hotels with swimming pools. All hotels are simple and chosen to be family friendly, well located and with reasonably facilities where possible.

Children under the age of 12yrs will usually share rooms with their grown-ups. This might be a twin, triple or quad room, a double with an extra bed, or multiple rooms depending on the number of family members. The extra beds in the rooms are usually mattresses on the floor with proper bedding - this is standard in India. If you are travelling with children over the age of 12yrs, you will be in separate rooms or sharing twin/multi-bed rooms. Please talk to us about your requirements and we will do everything to ensure that you are happy with your rooming allocation.

Additional hotel nights are available pre and post the holiday. All hotels are subject to availability and prices may vary.

Group Leader & Support Staff

The group will be accompanied throughout the tour by a professional, English-speaking local tour leader. During the holiday the group will also have the services of English speaking local guides for the city tours and of expert naturalist guides for the safari tours.

Altitude

This holiday does not involve any significant ascent to altitude and we would not expect any altitude issues with this trip.

Spending Money

We recommend the average family (mum, dad and 2 kids) will need approximately £400 for lunches, miscellaneous expenses, including tips to local staff, beer, soft drinks, etc. It is not necessary to purchase local currency (Indian Rupees) before you travel. We recommend taking your spending money in the form of cash. Sterling and US dollars are readily exchanged in Delhi or it is possible to withdraw your money from ATM's in all major towns and cities. Credit cards can be used to purchase some goods and are particularly useful for more expensive souvenirs.

Guidance on Tipping

For your tour guide we recommend that you give a tip if you feel that their services have met your satisfaction. As a rough guide we suggest a tip to your tour leader the equivalent of £15 - 20 per family member (with perhaps a little more for small groups of five or less). You may also wish to tip your driver(s) but we would suggest this should not be greater than half the amount you give to your tour guide. In hotels you should give a tip of around 30 - 60 rupees to hotel porters.

Additional Information

The Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) are responsible for the conservation of many monuments in India (including the Taj Mahal). This organisation will occasionally undertake work to restore the various monuments, but often without notice, so it is difficult to forewarn our customers of this work. It is possible that, at any time, monuments on this holiday could be having work done on them.

Beat the Jet Lag

Our holidays are normally designed with minimal 'down time' at the start of the trip, but having a day or two at the beginning will have the additional benefit of allowing you time to get over the stress of a long journey or travelling across time zones, leaving you refreshed and ready for your holiday. We can easily arrange for you to have additional nights and airport transfers.

Baggage Allowance

For this holiday you should take one piece of luggage and a daypack. Luggage with wheels is useful for this holiday. For international flights please check your baggage allowance with your airline.
