Introduction

Overlooked by many travellers to Central America, El Salvador is the smallest country in the region and one of the most delightful. Our superb 2 week walking holiday takes us on journey around the country, walking to the summit of 8 of its 20 volcanic peaks as we go. Along our way, we also take time out to experience El Salvador's colourful colonial towns, cloud forest trails, Maya ruins, coffee plantations and stunning beaches. Starting in El Boqueron National Park, we take the short walk to the viewpoint on San Salvador's namesake volcano (1800m). Heading east to the Los Volcanes National Park, we hike up the perfect cone of Volcan Izalco (1952m) and scale San Salvador's highest volcano, Ilamatepec/Santa Ana (2381m). Journeying north to the Honduras border, we reach the country's highest point at El Pital (2,730m). On a clear day we'll be rewarded with views over into Honduras and across to the volcanoes of Pacaya and Agua in Guatemala. Next, we spend 2 days in and around the delightful colonial town of Suchitoto on Lake Suchitlan, where we enjoy a well earned relaxation day before climbing the dormant Volcan Guazapa (1438m). The coffee farming towns of Berlin and Alegria, nestled in the Eastern Highlands, will provide our next base as we climb Tecapa (1593m) and Chinchontepec/San Vicente (2173m). Onwards, we climb the stunning beautiful cone of Volcan Chaparrastique (2129m). After a day spent exploring the serene islands in the Gulf of Fonseca, we tackle our last volcano, Chonchagua (1225m). We end with a day relaxing on the beach, a perfect end to our Central America adventure.

Is this holiday for you?

All the walks are day excursions, and many of them are completed in the morning, so an average of 4-5hrs walking. We do have a couple of longer day walks of around 6-7hrs. It is possible to opt out of any of the walks. Generally the walks follow established trails through coffee plantations, forest or jungle. However, some of the ascents of the volcano cones themselves present quite challenging sections due to the climate, steep terrain and much of the underfoot surface consisting of ash. Temperatures can be hot and humid in the lower and coastal region. However the temperature on walks at higher altitudes will be a little cooler. There is a mix of accommodation from comfortable hotels and homely casas, and 1 night camping at a very comfortable fixed glamping site. Please note that whilst walking in national parks it is obligatory to be accompanied by a police escort provided by the park.

DAY 2

Short city tour. Transfer to El Boqueron National Park. Trek to the viewpoint on San Salvador Volcano. Visit Joya de Ceren.

This morning we head into San Salvador for a short tour of some of the main sites; The National Palace, Church El Rosaria and Plaza La Libertad before heading to the pine clad National Park of El Boqueron. Here we'll find San Salvador volcano (1800m), which literally had its top blasted off giving way to an amazing crater 1.5 km wide and 500m deep. We have a short walk to the viewing point from where we can take in the vastness of the crater. Hiding at the bottom of the crater is another 'mini' crater or locally called 'El Boqueronsito' which was formed with the small eruption at the volcano back in 1917. In recent years the northwest fissure has been the most active; it's eruptions have been responsible for burying the ancient village of Joya de Ceren, known as the 'Pompeii of America', which we will visit in the afternoon. This ancient village was buried by volcanic ash and has allowed the preservation of personal belongings, gardening tools, religious utensils, plants and seeds. It was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1993 on the basis that it is the only location in the whole Mayan world where you can appreciate the day to day living styles of the inhabitants. Ten structures have been excavated, including houses, warehouses, workshops, kitchens, a sauna bath and a religious structure. In the afternoon we transfer to the town of Ataco in the mountains near the National Park El Imposible. Drive time: 2hrs.

DAY 3Coffee plantation tour and soak at the hot springs.

Ataco is located within the mountains of the Ruta de Las Flores, famous for its abundance of wild growing flowers. This region has beautiful panoramic views of the mountain side coffee plantations, lagoons and dense cloud forests. It is the region with the highest concentration of coffee plantations in El Salvador. Historically coffee has been a major export for El Salvador and in the 1980's it provided more than 50% of the country's export revenue. You will have the opportunity to learn about coffee shrubs, coffee growing, coffee production and agro-forestry at Finca El Carmen. El Carmen produces designer coffee, also known as 'Gourmet, High Altitude' coffee (1200m to 1750m altitude). Your guide will describe each stage of coffee production and explain how the coffee bean is transformed into a premium coffee for export to companies like Starbucks, American Airlines and the Holiday Inn, among many others. In the afternoon we can relax at nearby geysers and thermal baths at Santa Teresa hot springs.

DAY 4Morning trek up Volcano Izalco (1952m).

We make an early start and drive to the Los Volcanes National Park. Here, the volcanoes of Izalco (1952m), Ilamatepec (locally known as Santa Ana at 2381m) and Cerro Verde are set within an area of outstanding natural beauty and immense biodiversity. Early in the morning we set off to hike up Volcano Izalco. This volcano is more difficult to climb up than Ilamatepec /Santa Ana (which we ascend tomorrow) as the cone is a steep and ashy. We take our time to enjoy the great view to the coastline and the valley of Cerro Verde. There is a lot of wildlife in the park, including many types of hummingbird and the black birds known as chara, which feed other birds such as toucans, during their mating season! There are also many beautiful orchids growing in the forests. In these forests we may be able to spot some amazingly tall 300 year old trees. After our walk we transfer to our overnight accommodation in the nearby Cerro Verde National Park. This a fixed glamping campsite with some great views of the Volcano Izalco which we have just walked. Overnight Cerro Verde. Drive time: 1.5hrs.

DAY 5

Today's volcano walk is Ilamatepec/Santa Ana (2381m). Transfer to El Pital, close to the Honduran border.

Early in the morning we will walk up Volcano Ilamatepec/Santa Ana. At 2,381m it's El Salvador's highest volcano. This volcano has four craters and is located within the hills of Apaneca, surrounded by cloud forests, in a region full of coffee plantations. Some people say that this is one of the most beautiful treks in the country. It starts in Las Burmas Ecopark and takes us through some high plateau and dwarf forest. We have great views to the enormous Laguna Coatepeque, which is next to the volcano. From the crater rim we can see into the small aquamarine crater lake, which is 300m deep, and gives off a significant amount of heat. In the afternoon we transfer (approx 3hrs) to the northern part of El Salvador, El Pital. This is the highest point in El Salvador at 2730m, close to the Honduran border with beautiful views into Honduras and Guatemala. Overnight at a hostel, high on the mountain of El Pital, surrounded by the cloud forest. Drive time: 3-4hrs.

DAY 6

Walk up El Pital (2,730m), the highest point in El Salvador.

At a height of 2730 metres, El Pital is the highest point of El Salvador. The peak, which is not a volcano (!), is surrounded by cloud forest and pine trees in a region noted as a habitat for several endangered species, such as the quetzal. Our hike to the summit takes around 3 hours and from the top we can enjoy sensational views over into Honduras and across to the volcanoes of Pacaya and Agua in Guatemala. After our walk, we have lunch in the town of La Palma, which is famous as the home of local celebratory artist Fernando Llort. His work can be seen everywhere in the town, in the form of murals and in all the local art shops. We have plenty of time to explore the colourful La Palma before our transfer to Suchitoto, a little colonial town with cobbled streets where we check into our hotel for the next three nights. Drive time: 2hrs.

Trek up to the summit of the dormant Volcan Guazapa (1438m). Return to Suchitoto.

Another day, another volcano, the dormant volcano Guazapa. It is not possible to walk to the summit of Guazapa, but we have a lovely long walk through some of the most beautiful plantation and forest landscape in this part of El Salvador. We include the highest areas at 1200m where we can see the ancient volcano crater and volcanic rock formations. Guerrilla forces occupied this upland area during the Civil War of 1979-1992 and there are some interesting relics of this conflicts found alongside our path. We have a traditional lunch made by the local community. Return to Suchitoto and our hotel. Drive time: 1hr.

DAY 8

A day to enjoy the interesting colonial town of Suchitoto.

Today we spend time exploring the small and colourful lakeside town of Suchitoto, which has a wealth of interesting colonial era houses and churches and charming cobbled streets. The lake is man-made and was created by the damming of the river in 1974. It has a very interesting ecosystem and is a magnet for ornithologists who come here to observe a variety of species including pelicans, herons and storks. We will take a boat ride out to some of the lake's little islands, such as the Isla los Pagaros. The afternoon is free for further exploration and independent sightseeing. If you want to sample some typical Salvadorian cuisine we can recommend heading to a Pupuseria to sample some traditional Pupusas!

Today's volcano is Chinchontepec, otherwise known as San Vincente. The volcano has two peaks, one at 2173m and the other at 2083m and we climb the highest of the two. This is the second-highest volcano in the country, and has the largest vertical gain. Between 600-1600m we walk through the coffee plantations, and above this we are in the dense cloud forest to the top. From the summit, we are rewarded with some great views as we can see almost the entire country. We return via the same route and transfer to our accommodation, the mountain 'cabanaz' in Berlin or Alegria. Drive time: 1.5hrs.

This morning we transfer to San Miguel, home of the mighty Volcan Chaparrastique. At 2129m high and with a crater 800m across, it is considered to have one of the best perfectly-formed cones of Central America, as well as being one of the most active volcanoes in El Salvador still producing cloud eruptions of smoke and dust - but is currently considered safe to its visitors. This is the hardest volcano to climb on your journey in El Salvador, a steep 9 hour trail to the crater.

After a full-on and challenging day yesterday, we spend the day relaxing and exploring as we board a boat and set sail across the Gulf of Fonseca, a body of water shared by El Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua. As we cross the gulf we will be treated to stunning vistas of small volcanic archipelagoes, small fishing villages and black-sand beaches. Once the stomping ground of 17th century pirates, this beautiful region entices the traveller in with lovely coves and warm waters. We stop off to explore the trading post of Isla Meanguera and climb the small Volcan Evaristo before sailing to Zacatillo for lunch, perhaps making the most of the wonderful fresh seafood on offer. Depending on the season, the keen observer may be treated to glimpses of playful dolphins, migrating birds and sea turtles. We head back to the mainland and return to our hotel.

Extensions

When booking your holiday, you will be able to 'add an extension option'. Once we have received your booking we will contact you to discuss additional services required for the extension and to take any additional deposit.

Galapagos Islands Cruise

Situated over 600 miles from the mainland of South America, the remote archipelago of the Galapagos Islands needs little introduction. The Galapagos Islands are considered to the crown jewels of the natural world, achieving near mythological status following visits by Charles Darwin. It was on his second visit aboard HMS Beagle in 1835 that Darwin's scientific studies introduced the world to the theory of evolution. The islands teem with life, much of which seem totally unphased and perhaps curious of visitors. Of the thirteen major islands, on five have any form of human habitation. The environmental footprint is kept to an absolute minimum, allowing you, the visitor, a chance to explore the incredible biodiversity of these famous islands untouched by human development. Expect close encounters with blue-footed boobies, frigate birds, albatross, giant tortoises, seals, turtles and dinosaur-like lizards amongst many, many other examples.

Joining Arrangements & Transfers

The group will meet at the hotel in San Salvador.

A single transfer from / to San Salvador Airport is provided on the first / last day of the land only itinerary.

Hotel contact details and an emergency number will be provided with your booking confirmation.

Meal Plan

All breakfasts, 6 lunches and 1 dinner are included in the holiday price.

Food & Water

It is not recommended to drink untreated water from the taps. If you are on a trekking or cycling holiday, water is supplied to fill up your individual bottles. This will be boiled, filtered or provided in large jerry cans or 5 litre bottles. Additionally you should take purification tablets or a filter bottle (such as a Water-To-Go bottle) to treat your water when in towns or where water is not supplied. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

The cuisine of El Salvador is similar to that of its neighbours, with a strong reliance on indigenous foods like corn, beans, squash and tomatoes. The influence of Mayan culture as well as the kitchens of Spain have created a diverse and tasty cuisine. Probably the most ubiquitous of all El Salvador dishes is the pupusa - thick, corn tortillas filled with anything from meats to cheeses to refried beans to pork rinds. Pupusas can be purchased from pupuseras, as well as streetside vendors.

Accommodation

In San Salvador, Ataco, Suchitoto and La Union you will stay at comfortable hotels with en suite rooms.

In Cerro Verde National Park we have 1 night at a fixed camp with shared bathrooms and great view to the crater of Volcano Izalco.

At El Pital we will stay in simple, en suite, wooden bungalows, with up to 4 people sharing 1 room. Here we will be at an altitude of 2400m and it is usually surrounded by cloud - very atmospheric!

We will also have 2 nights at a neo-colonial style guesthouse in rooms with private bathrooms in Berlin on the slopes of Tecapa Volcano.

Our last 2 nights are at a simple beach resort with swimming pool in El Cuco. Please note that it is common for these simple resorts to shut down in the evening with staff going home after dinner has been served; we should be prepared to enjoy some quiet evenings - all part of the laid back coastal life. A pack of cards and a good book are excellent packing ideas!

With the exception of the accommodation at El Pital, all accommodation is based on twin sharing. If you are travelling by yourself, you will be paired with another solo traveller of the same sex.

Single rooms are available for an additional cost, with the exception of the two nights at El Cuco (Days 12 and 13). There are only a limited number of single rooms available on Days 5, 9 and 10 so single occupancy on these nights will be dependent on group size and availability. Please contact the KE office for details.

Group Leader & Support Staff

The group will be led by a professional and qualified tour leader.

Altitude

This holiday involves going to moderately high altitude. During the course of your trip you will reach altitudes in excess of 2500 metres. Most people will have no difficulty with this level of altitude but before coming on the holiday, we recommend you read the advice on trekking at high altitude. You can also talk to one of our trekking experts if you have any concerns about altitude.

Spending Money

A total of US $250- $300 should be sufficient to cover your personal spending including the non-included meals (5-10USD per meal), tips for drivers and trek staff, miscellaneous expenditure on drinks, souvenirs etc, and airport departure tax (if applicable - this is dependent on which airline you fly with as it maybe included in your ticket). It is possible to use credit and debit cards to withdraw money from ATMs in most large towns. If you are bringing your travel money with you we recommend you bring this in cash US dollars. OPTIONAL ACTIVITIES EL CUCO: Please note that prices are subject to change Kayaking: $40 per person for 2.5hrs Community sea turtle conservation project at Playa El Icacal: £45 per person Surf Lesson: $40 per person for 1.5hrs, including surf board and instructor

Guidance on Tipping

Tips are the accepted way of saying 'thank you' to your local guides and drivers. They do not form part of their wages. KE always pays local crews the best rates of pay, no matter what country they are in and any tips they receive are seen as a personal thank you from group members. For our part, we advise local teams that tips are not a duty or a prerequisite but are a bonus and entirely dependent on the service that was given. We recommend that you give a tip to your guide and driver if you feel that their services have met your satisfaction. The actual amount is up to you but we suggest that you do this as a group rather than on an individual basis.

Baggage Allowance

There is no restriction on the weight of your trek bag other than that imposed by your airline. However, you will have a more comfortable travel experience if you pack as light as possible. We do ask you to restrict your luggage to one main bag and a small day pack.

Group Size & Holiday Status

For each holiday there is a minimum number of participants required to enable it to go ahead. Once the minimum number is reached, the trip status will change from 'Available' to 'Guaranteed to run'. You can check the trip status for each departure in 'Dates and Prices' table. Other than in exceptional circumstances, we will not cancel a trip once it has achieved this guaranteed to run status and so you are free to proceed with your international flight booking and other travel arrangements.

Preparing for your Holiday

It makes a lot of sense to spend some time before coming on an walking holiday getting some additional exercise. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable you will find the experience. Regular walking in hill country is the best preparation but if this is not possible, then running and swimming are also good for developing better stamina and general cardio-vascular fitness.

Climate

El Salvador has a tropical climate with pronounced wet and dry seasons. Almost all the annual rainfall occurs during the rainy season which extends from May to October. From November through to April, the northeast trade winds control weather patterns. During these months, air flowing from the Caribbean has had most of the precipitation removed by the mountains of Honduras and by the time this air reaches El Salvador, it is dry, hot, and hazy. This season is known locally as verano, or summer. Temperatures vary little with the season and elevation is the primary determinant of temperature. The Pacific lowlands are the hottest region, with annual averages ranging from 25°C to 29°C. San Salvador is representative of the central plateau, with an annual average temperature of 23°C and absolute high and low readings of 38°C and 7°C, respectively. Mountain areas are the coolest, with annual averages from 12°C to 23°C and minimum temperatures sometimes approaching freezing.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that prior to travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates direct from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Why Choose KE

Why KE

This walking holiday is unique to KE. Find out for yourself why we rate this tiny pocket of volcanoes, verdant coffee plantations and stunning remote beaches as one of our favourite destinations in Central America. We summit no less than eight volcanoes and explore colonial cities and islands and soak up the charm and warmth of this fabulous country. Journalist Martin Symington recently travelled with us to El Salvador for Wanderlust Magazine, read the article here.
